Board Regrets Retirement of 17-Year Fireman

A veteran of 17 years of Fire Department service will retire from the department on a disability retirement, effective June 5, it was announced today.

Fire Chief James M. Brett said that the Board of Fire Commissioners has approved with regret the application of Fireman Francis T. Coughlin, of 23 Wilson Avenue, to the New York State Board for Service Connected Disability Retirement.

FRANCIS T. COUGHLIN

Fireman Coughlin, who has been serving as a dispatcher at Central Fire Station, suffered from extensive back trouble.

Coughlin was appointed a fireman on March 1, 1947. He served as secretary of Local 461, Kingston Uniformed Fire Fighters, and as a trustee in the Fourth District, New York State Fire Fighters Conference. He will be 42 years old June 2.

Praised by Chief

Chief Brett cited Coughlin for the "unstinted and valorous devotion to duty that you have displayed through the years." In a letter of resolution to Coughlin, the Board of Commissioners said in part in approving the fire fighter's application for retirement: "His duty was often rendered under the most hazardous conditions, these perilous conditions resulted in a severe injury which brought about his untimely retirement . . . The Board extends its sincere appreciation for a job well done on behalf of a grateful citizenry . . . and extends its best wishes for a happy and healthful retirement for years to come."

The resolution was signed Fire Board members Edward Dasher, president; C. John Bechtold and Henry E. Boice, commissioners, and Chief Brett, secretary. They approved the resolution at the regular meeting of the Board Tuesday night, Chief Brett said.

Says Reds Could Take SE Asia

Matter of Great Concern: Bundy

LONDON (AP)—Asst. Secretary of State William P. Bundy said today there is a real danger of a Communist takeover in Southeast Asia.

As Bundy flew in from Washington for London talks on the Asian crisis, the British government rejected a Soviet charge that U.S. reconnaissance flights over Laos violated Laotian neutrality. The Soviet note to Britain warned that the U.S. flights could aggravate the situation throughout Southeast Asia.

Bundy, assistant secretary for Far Eastern affairs, told newsmen the threat of a Communist takeover "is a matter we all have been watching with great concern."

Asked how stability and neutrality for Laos could be achieved without force, he replied, "That is a very difficult question to answer and it is one of the things we must talk about."

Bundy was meeting with Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler for the first of several days of talks on Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

The British Foreign Office, in a sharp rebuke of the Russians, dismissed the Soviet note on the U.S. flights as "purely propagandistic" and said it "totally misrepresents the true position in Laos."

The Soviet note said the United States was "embarking on this dangerous road of an open violation of the Geneva agreements" and "assumes grave responsibility for all consequences following from this."

The Russians also accused the United States of trying to involve the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization in "its dangerous plans for Laos."

The Soviet Union urged Britain to endorse the note for distribution to the United States and other participants in the 14-nation Geneva conference of 1962 which guaranteed Laotian neutrality. Russia and Britain are cochairmen.

"They can never have expected us to agree" to distribute the note, the Foreign Office said.

British officials consider the flights justified because the Communist Pathet Lao forces refused to allow inspection of their military strongpoints by the International Control Commission established by the Geneva agreement.

Laotian Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma asked the United States to undertake the flights.

In a dispatch from Washington, the Soviet news agency Tass accused the United States of "harboring plans for new military actions in Southeast Asia, which hold nothing in store but scandalous failures."

From Laos came a report that right-wing troops were on the move in the Mekong River area about 90 miles northeast of Vientiane and had regained some territory from the Pathet Lao near the town of Muong Huong.

Body Is Committed To Flames

CremationFollows Long Procession

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's body was committed to the flames of a funeral pyre today in an ancient Hindu ceremony watched by hundreds of thousands of mourners on the banks of the sacred Jumna River.

Ending an era, Nehru's 17-year - old grandson Sanjaya Gandhi touched a torch to the huge pile of sandalwood on which the prime minister's body lay.

Beat Back Crowds

Police had to beat back crowds with clubs when the gun carriage bearing Nehru's body approached the cremation site after a funeral procession through the city. Thousands of shuffling feet sent up a dust cloud that obscured 'even the towering walls of the nearby Red Fort.

Military officers lifted Nehru's body to their shoulders, walked along a freshly laid carpet of red earth spread to the pyre and then up seven steps to the sandalwood resting place.

Frenzied mourners shouted "Nehru! Nehru!"

Even before the procession started from the prime minister's official residence, a stampede among the crowd outside killed two persons and injured six.

Mourners Delay Carriage

The gun carriage was halted repeatedly by the vast throng of mourners. Foreign statesmen and dignitaries riding in cars behind were prevented from following closely.

Uncounted hundreds of thousands jammed the city shouting, crying and throwing flower petals at the body wrapped in India's tricolored flag and lying atop the gun carriage.

The crowd was so thick and the procession so chaotic that U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who arrived from Washington after the funeral march started, could not join the procession. He spent two hours at Palam Airport while aides tried to arrange a helicopter airlift to the cremation site.

Acting Prime Minister G. L. Nanda, with tears in his eyes, placed a floral wreath on the body as it was lifted from the porch of the prime minister's residence to a flower-bedecked gun carriage.

Many Pay Homage

The body had lain in state on the porch through the night as hundreds of thousands of sorrowing Indians passed in mournful homage.

To the beat of muffled drums, an honor guard of Indian soldiers and sailors accompanied Nehru's bier as six horses slowly drew it along the six-mile route to the Hindu funeral pyre at the Rajghat, the Pyre of Kings, on the banks of the holy Jumna River.

Sorrowing Indians jammed the line of march.

Jail Is Reinforced After Labor Threat

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP)—Tension gripped this little southern Michigan city today following a night of strike violence and demonstrators' threats at a jail holding arrested pickets.

Sixty state policemen and sheriff's deputies of neighboring counties came to the aid of Hillsdale's seven-man police force in the emergency.

A crowd of 300 persons had massed at the Hillsdale County Jail. Some demonstrators threw rocks, breaking jail windows.

Angered by Arrests

The trouble began about 7 p.m. with the march of demonstrators to the jail from the strike scene at Essex Wire Corp.

The crowd was angered by the arrest of three persons, one of them a striker's wife. The demonstrators stoned the jail in protest and police began waving their nightsticks to restore order.

After about two hours, the crowd had become generally peaceful.

Mayor C. Aubrey Paul called the City Council into an emergency meeting. City Attorney Harvey W. Moes said the council decided on "a course of action to be taken in this strike." He declined to elaborate, saying that for "good reasons" the council would delay its announcement until later in the day.

Started Feb. 28

The violence-marked strike at Essex, a major industry in this city of 7,629, has been going on since Feb. 28. It became exactly three months old today.

The Hillsdale Local of the International Union of Electrical Workers pulled out its 180 plant workers in a dispute over terms of a first contract with the company.

A chief issue has been the Hillsdale local's demand for wage parity with the Indiana workers.

Essex has said that the average hourly wage at the Hillsdale plant, about $2.43, is from 40 to 60 cents below the average wages paid the employes in the Fort Wayne plant.

A plant guard was shot and wounded Tuesday night, another guard was clubbed with a baseball bat, and a union picket was slashed.

Trouble broke out Wednesday night when a carload of guards leaving the factory was intercepted. Rocks were thrown.

Slate-Voting Is In No Violation, State Court Rules

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Court of Appeals holds there is nothing unconstitutional about the state law permitting slate-voting.

Slate-voting allows the names of allied candidates to appear on the ballot in groupings.

The state's highest court, acting Wednesday on an appeal by a Brooklyn man, issued no opinion of its own. It did, however, unanimously affirm lower-court decisions holding the statute valid.

Basis for Challenge

The law had been challenged on the ground that it favored party organization candidates over unaffiliated candidates and thus denied the latter equal protection of the law.

Alan C. Levy, an insurgent candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 13th District, in Brooklyn, brought the challenge.

The court reviewed his arguments and those of the State Law Department, which defended the statute, and gave a prompt decision because of the limited time remaining before next Tuesday's state primary.

Listed by Size

Under the statute, the slates are listed in order of size—the largest groups first, down to the names of individuals.

The position of slates of the same size is determined by lot.

Legion Slates Boys' State Fete June 18

The 18the annual testimonial reception and dinner for 10 Ulster County selectees to American Legion Boys' State at Colgate University this year will be held Thursday, June 18 at 6:30 p. m. in Broglio's Restaurant, West Park.

The event each year is sponsored by Ulster County American Legion, according to P. J. Beichert, county Boys' State chairman. The dinner session serves as an informal get-together of the candidates and their sponsors, representing the various county Legion posts and guests.

Mothers Invited

An innovation this year will be the open invitation to all posts to invite the mothers of the boy selectees. Prior to this the annual event had been strictly stag.

In previous years many posts had invited the father of the selectee to the dinner. A majority vote of the Boys' State Committee this year extended the privilege to the post to invite the mothers of the boys.

The 10 selectees, one sponsored by each post in the county will spend the week of June 21-27 at Colgate University, Hamilton. The Ulster County contingent with boys from Dutchess and Orange Counties will again travel to Hamilton by chartered bus.

Sponsors Listed

The boys selected are:

Charles H. Gaffney, 204 Pearl Street, Kingston High School; Kingston Post 150.

Cunningham Lists How Bush Helped, Reason for Award

Mal Cunningham, past president and honorary life member of the Hudson Valley Homebuilders and treasurer of the New York State Homebuilders Association, today refuted a statement made by Nelson Burhans which appeared Wednesday in The Freeman relative to the award the Association made to State Senator E. Ogden Bush.

The award was presented to Senator Bush Tuesday, Cunningham said, for his favorable voting record in connection with bills affecting the Homebuilders Association throughout the state of New York .

Cunningham said that Senator Bush voted favorably for the Condominium Bill which permits those who build five or more units, to sell the units off as individual houses. He also

Purchase agreements for lands at Malden-on-Hudson this week, at Wittenberg last week, and a 90-acre donation of Hudson River waterfront property will be part of a multimillion dollar State Conservation Department project to provide two state-operated compsite and recreation areas for Ulster County.

The State Conservation Department has been allocated in excess of $2,000,000 for the recreation facility at Malden which covers about 121 acres, including a 22-acre natural beach on the river.

Initial Steps Taken

State Sen. E. Ogden Bush and Ulster County Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson announced they have been advised that the initial steps toward acquiring the necessary lands have been taken by the Conservation Department.

Both Albany legislators have been influential in securing the location of these two recreation areas in the county.

Sen. Bush in an announcement today said a 90-acre parcel of land including 2,800 feet of frontage on the Hudson River will be given to the state by Terry Staples of Malden-on-Hudson. This is part of the Malden brickyard property located about two miles north of the Village of Saugerties on the west bank of the river.

"This is a tremendous gift to the people of the state and Ulster County residents in particular," Sen. Bush said. "Mr. Staples' generosity in providing this highly desirable river front property will help meet the growing recreational needs of our people, now, and in the future," the senator said.

Signed May 20

On May 20 a purchase agreement was signed for the first section of land in the proposed 500-acres Wittenberg State Park in the Town of Woodstock. The agreement covers a 52-acre tract owned by Mrs. Noelle Gilmore of Mt. Tremper and signed under the State's Park and Recreation Land Acquistion Bond Act program. Funds for both projects are made available through the $100,000,000 bond issue for expansion of the state's recreation facilities passed by state voters a few years ago.

The purchase agreement at Malden-on-Hudson includes a 100-foot strip for a two-lane access road from Route 9W to the proposed recreation area and beach site on the river.

The agreement is with Mrs. Florence Whitehead of Malden-on-Hudson. The wide apron entrance will be opposite the Berzal mushroom plant about 2,000

Girl Is Injured As Car Upsets On State Thurway

State police early this afternoon were investigating a one-car accident which occurred on the state Thruway near mile post 82 about nine miles south of Kingston.

A spokesman for Fatum's Ambulance Service said a call was received at 11:56 a. m. from Thruway authorities requesting a physician, plasma and an ambulance to remove an injured girl to a hospital.

An ambulance crew went to Kingston Hospital where they picked up Dr. Philip Goldman who happened to be in the emergency room at the time and a quantity of plasma and then sped to the scene of the accident.

En route to the hospital Dr. Goldman administered plasma to the girl whose name was not available at Freeman press time. According to incomplete reports the girl was a passenger in a car which apparently went out of control and overturned.

Goldwater, Rockefeller Step Up Pace for Primary

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, bolstered by neutrality pledges from Richard M. Nixon and Gov. William W. Scranton, wades deeper into the presidential primary battle today as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, fortified with support from Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge's son, steps up the pace.

Rockefeller planned today to visit Monterey—where Goldwater had been Tuesday — for a round of appearances before continuing north to Santa Cruz, Santa Clara and San Francisco.

Goldwater also planned to move northward, visiting Santa Barbara—where Rockefeller had been Tuesday—to mend any political fences the New Yorker may have toppled.

Goldwater revealed the neutrality statements he'd received from the former vice president and the Pennsylvania governor Wednesday. An aide said the Arizona senator had wired the undeclared Republican contenders earlier in the week, saying they had been represented here as aligned with his opponents.

Both Nixon and Scranton replied they are not out to stop either Rockefeller or Goldwater in the primary election next Tuesday.

There was, conversely, no such statement from Lodge. His son, George, appeared at a news conference early Wednesday to urge Lodge supporters to vote for Rockefeller, saying it was "the surest way to endorse Lodge in California."

Young Lodge said nomination of Goldwater by the GOP "would most likely set the party in decline from which it would atrophy."

The son of the ambassador to South Viet Nam said he believes Rockefeller, more closely than Goldwater, represents the views of "forward-looking" Republicanism enunciated Monday by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Earlier, Goldwater had declared that he is "the only serious candidate" in the California presidential primary and that he hates to think of what would happen to the dollar if Rockefeller became president.

Goldwater also said he'd have

DEMOLISH OLD CEMENT KILNS—The New York State Public Works Department is demolishing 14 old cement kilns on the Rosendale-Creek Locks Road at LeFevre Falls and using the material to widen Route 213 along Rondout Creek between Kingston and Eddyville. The kilns, property of the State Conservation Department, each approximately 15 feet by 40 feet, were considered dangerous to persons visiting the area. Already 2,500 yards of material have been used. In 1895 when the Rosendale Cement industry was in its heyday, the mill was one of over a dozen thriving plants and was operated by the late Thomas Miller interests as the New York Lime and Cement Company. The old brick mill in front of the kilns has been removed. The only cement company still in operation in the area is Century Cement Company at Lawrenceville which has a capacity of 6,500 barrels per day. The Andrew J. Snyder interests, (Century Cement Company,) was the first cement development in the Rosendale area, dating back to 1830, and has always, like the Miller interests, remained one of the independents, never being acquired by the Consolidated Rosendale Cement Company which took over much of the industry in the latter days of operation. Charges Made That Gardiner Petitions For Goldwater Had Forged Delegates

Charges that a petition allegedly circulated in the Town of Gardiner and filed in Albany on behalf of Barry Goldwater delegates to the Republican National Convention appeared to contain forged signatures, have been made by GOP leaders in that township.

Justice of the Peace Warren McDowell, chairman of the Town of Gardiner Republican Committee, told The Freeman Wednesday afternoon that the matter will be referred immediately to the "proper authorities" for investigation.

Judge McDowell said the petition contained 20 names including several persons he referred to as "the backbone of the Republican party in our town." McDowell said 12 of the persons whose names are on the petition have been contacted and each insists he did not sign the petition and can offer proof to back up their denial.

"We are going to find out who perpetrated this trick," the town GOP chairman said He contended that two of the persons listed on the petition have not been residents of the Town of Gardiner for more than two years, and one person listed returned to Germany more than two years ago.

Judge McDowell stated that the petition probably will be submitted with a complaint to the office of the state attorney general and the state police for investigation. He noted that no action on the complaint can be expected before Primary Day on Tuesday, June 2, but the complaint definitely will be made in the immediate future.

Chairman McDowell said the matter first came to the attention of the Town Republican Committee recently, after the County Republican Committee leaders learned the petition had been filed in Albany. McDowell said the County Committee asked the reason for the Goldwater delegate petition.

The petition, McDowell said, is for Kent Leavitt, Dutchess county, and Lewis Irwin Hall, West Hurley, as delegates to the Republican National Convention, and on behalf of Alice O. Lafko and Archie C. Lebrecht, as alternates.

The regular endorsed GOP delegates from this area are Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, Ulster County, and Myrtle Tinklepaugh, Columbia County, as delegates to the convention, and Roy C. Ketcham, Dutchess, and Neal Brandow, Greene County, as alternates.

McDowell said the name of Robert L. Lacouette, a town of Gardiner Republican committeeman, is on the disputed Goldwater delegate petition, as a witness. The town GOP chairman contended that Lacouette insists he did not sign the petition, and that he and other committee members will be complainants in contemplated action at the conclusion of an investigation.

McDowell emphasized in comments to a reporter that the Town GOP Committee "definitely will push the investigation" in an effort to learn the identity of persons responsible for the petition, which Judge McDowell said was filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

According to McDowell the names on the Goldwater dele-

Stress Benefits In Asking Funds For Flood Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Engineers underlined flood control benefits of Kinzua Dam on the Allegheny River near Warren, Pa., in asking a House Appropriations subcommittee to approve $27 million for construction of the project in the fiscal year starting July 1.

"The Allegheny River reservoir project. . .is a key unit in the reservoir system for the protection of the Allegheny Valley. The metropolitan area of Pittsburgh and the upper Ohio Valley," the engineers said in a statement filed with the subcommittee.

"The project will provide a substantial degree of flood protection for these extensively developed and heavily populated areas. . .

"It will protect Warren, Pa., against the maximum flood of record, and in conjunction with the existing Tionesia Reservoir, will practically eliminate Allegheny River floods at Oil City and Franklin, Pa."

The statement, made public by the subcommittee Wednesday in releasing the record of closed hearings a few weeks ago, called attention to a decrease of $2 million in the estimated cost of the project. The estimate is now $107 million instead of $109 million.

The reservoir, when filled, will extend to near Salamaca, N.Y.

Wiltwyck Cemetery Marks 108th Year of Service

Wiltwyck Rural Cemetery Association of Kingston is observing its 108th year of service to the community area.

Organized in 1856

The association was organized March 20, 1856 when a meeting of the citizens of Kingston was held at Browns Hotel, "in the village of Kingston" for the purpose of forming a cemetery association under the act of the legislature of the state adopted April 27, 1847. At that meeting was J. S. Smith, William B. Finch, Abijah Smith, William Lounsberry, E. P. Dederick, J. V. N. Walhiago, William D. Hill, S. A. Bostwick and L. J. Smith. J. S. Smith was chairman of the meeting and William D. Hill, secretary.

Named directors at the organization meeting and elected to terms of office by lot were Edwin W. Budington, Henry H. Reynolds and John D. L. Montanye for the one year term; Augustus Schoonmaker Jr., Joseph S. Smith and Peter Elmendorf Cole for two-year term and William Hays, William Hendricks and Abijah Smith for the three-year term.

At that time the annual meeting was set for the first Monday of April, a designation which has since been observed.

Has Original Minutes

In the possession of Oscar J. Lawatsch, secretary - treasurer, are the minutes of the original meeting written in the hand of William D. Hill who served as secretary of the organizational meeting.

Since the first meeting of the original trustees the annual meeting has been held in the month of April, usually on the second or third Monday of the month.

Since the organization of the Association 108 years ago a large tract of land has been acquired and presently the cemetery grounds consist of approximately 80 acres extending from the West Shore Railroad tracks across West O'Reilly Street and joining the Montrepose Cemetery grounds on the south. Last year the Association purchased over 1,600 yards of clear fill and laid out a beautiful new burial section among the trees on the O'Reilly Street side of the cemetery where plots are now available.

Meeting Honors Three

This year the annual meeting was held at the Kirkland Hotel in honor of Adelbert H. Chambers, who has served as president of the Association for 20 years; John Ferguson, who has been with the cemetery association for 36 years and has served for 20 years as its superintendent; A. B. Shufeldt, who has been a trustee and member of the committee on Superintendents for 20 years. Charles de la Vergne, Cloyd Elias and Ward Tongue were elected trustees for a three year term to succeed themselves.

A. Raymond Atkins, who serves as chairman of the finance committee and James H. Betts have been trustees since 1943. Oscar J. Lawatsch, who serves as treasurer, and Henry Forst have been with the Association since 1946. Charles de la Vergne has served as trustee since 1940 and served as secretary and treasurer for many years.

Superintendent John Ferguson, succeeded the late Henry Downs who was superintendent of the cemetery for over 50 years.

Other Officers

Serving with President Chambers as officers are James H. Betts, vice-president; Oscar J. Lawatsch, secretary - treasurer and A. Raymond Atkins, chairman of the finance committee.

Oscar J. Lawatsch, secretary-treasurer, citing a passage from Gladstone, "Show me the manner in which a nation or country cares for its dead and I will measure with mathematic exactness the tender sympathies of the people, their respect for the laws of the land and their devotion to high ideals" and said it was the aim of the Association at all times to live up to that standard."

The Aleutian earthquake of 1946 produced 55-foot-high waves on the shores of the Hawaiian Isiands where some 150 lives were lost.

Siena Student Is Killed, Two Hurt While Walking

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A Siena College student was killed and two others were injured—one critically — early today when struck by a truck as they walked on Route 9, near the college campus, in suburban Loudonville.

The dead youth was identified as Julius Rubsam, 18, of Peekskill.

Reported in critical condition at Albany Medical Center Hospital was Beauregard Robinson, 17, of Cornwall. Joseph Sala, 18, of Amsterdam, was treated at the hospital and discharged.

Police said the boys were students at the college.

The three apparently were walking north on Route 9, near Newton Road, police said, when they were hit by a truck driven by Leroy J. Fox, 33, of Esperance. The vehicle, owned by Bonded Freightways of Rensselaer, also was proceeding north, police reported.

Police said no charges were placed, pending investigation.

Battle Reaches Virtual Standstill On Rights Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's civil rights battle was at a virtual standstill today, Senate and House holding a joint session to hear President Eamon de Valera of Ireland before members scattered for a long Memorial Day weekend.

It was quiet on the civil rights front Wednesday, too. Although the Senate met for five hours and 15 minutes, only about one hour was devoted to the House-passed civil rights bill.

Leaders have dropped any idea of trying to wear down the Dixie opponents at this point. Instead they are concentrating on trying to enlist the two-thirds majority needed to apply the Senate's anti-filibuster cloture rule.

"With the batteries of lawyers on both sides, we could be here until Labor Day," Osser said Wednesday.

Mental Health Unit Hears About Half-Way House

A report on a hospital improvement grant of $86,000 to Middletown State Hospital for expanded rehabiltation work was heard at Tuesday night's meeting of Ulster County Association for Mental Health Board of Directors held at George Washington School.

Mrs. Frederic W. Holcomb Sr., president, read the report announced Tuesday by the Middletown Hospital which includes the establishment of a half-way house in Kingston.

Carefully Selected

A carefully selected group of discharged or improved patients referred for rehabilitation will take up residence at the center, under the supervision of an adequate staff. A special advantage of this arrangement is that the patients will be able to work in the sheltered workshop of Gateway Industries in Kingston.

It was brought out that the Ulster County Association for Mental Health has worked toward this type of program since its inception, with public educational meetings and specialist speakers from the State Department of Rehabilitation and Middletown State Hospital stressing the value of rehabilitation, and presenting the needs.

Reports from the Catskill Regional Mental Health Planning Committee were given by Charles McKendrick, superintendent of Eastern Correctional Institution, Napanoch, and Mrs. Frieda Dingee, both members of this committee.

A report of a very successful Clergymen's Seminar on pastoral counseling sponsored by the association, with 61 men of the three major faiths participating, was given by Mrs. Harry Gold.

Reports on Workshop

Miss Katherine Murphy reported that a workshop for Welfare workers, public health nurses, probation personnel and interested clergymen will be held at the Benedictine Hospital auditorium June 24.

Donald J. Haughton, field training representative of the Massachusetts Department of Public Welfare will discuss the Basic Theory of Interviewing—Methods and Techniques of Interviewing the Emotionally Disturbed and Retarded. This program has already created a great deal of interest, according to Miss Rose Marie Feeney, chairman of the planning committee.

Mrs. Diana Geiger, part-time executive secretary of the association, read the appointment of various committees made by Harry M. Thayer, president for 1964-65.

The following will serve as comittee chairmen: Education: Mrs. Harry Gold and the Rev. Cecil F. McFarland, co-chairmen; membership, Miss Katherine Murphy; nominating, William H. Van Benschoten; legislation, Arthur B. Ewig; personnel policy, Mrs. Holcomb; professional advisory, Dr. Edward F. Shea; publicity, William J. Mathews; volunteer, Mrs. George F. Reid and Mrs. Edwin C. Schults, co-chairmen.

Reappointed to Board

Miss Henry Millonig was reappointed to the board of directors of the New York State Association for Mental Health Regional Board; Dr. Arnold B. Woehlke to the Professional Advisory Committee of Gateways Industries, and Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Geiger to the Ulster County Council of Social Agencies.

Kenneth Taber, who, with Mathews, is serving as chairman of the Commerce and Industry Fund Campaign, reported that a number of industries and others have contributed to date. Members present volunteered to follow up the appeal to the business and professional people, who have been asked to help the association financially in its educational and promotional program.

Education with institutes, seminars and public meetings for specific and general groups, the showing of films are all part of the association's program. Also promoting better treatment facilities locally, cooperating with the Ulster County Mental Health Center and its director Dr. Katharina Stuber, and with the district Middletown State Hospital as well as with the New York State Department of Mental Hygiene.

Films and informational leaflet are available at the office at 27 East O'Reilly Street.

Supports National Unit

The association also supports research through the National Association for Mental Health.

At present there is a need for a Day Care Center (Psychiatric) and an Alcoholism Clinic. Through further voluntary contributions much or all of these programs will be promoted and accomplished through the effort of our Ulster County people.

WRITING FROM BACKYARD—Aerial star Bonnie Jones can't even write a letter home without having Clown Buzzie Potts peek over her shoulder. They're both members of the Clyde Beatty-Cole Bros. Circus, billed as the world's largest, which comes to Dietz Stadium on Monday, June 8, under auspices of Kingston Council 275, Knights of Columbus. Combined circus carries 150 arenic performers. 200 wild animals, a five-ton hippo and three herds of performing elephants. Clyde Beatty, world-famous wild animal trainer, will lead the performing cast in that act with lions and tigers. Other performers include Carla Wallenda and her high wire act; the six Franconis, Italian horseback riders featuring Amanda; Flying Goanas, trapeze artists; the six Frielanis, bicyclists; Tito Troupe, trampoline performers, and Capt. Astronaut, who is shot 220 feet from a canon. Eddie Dullum, Joe LeRue, Billy Kincaid and Cha-Cha lead the cast of clowns. Doors to show will open at 3 and 7 p. m., with performances starting promptly at 4 and 8 p. m.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The rise in spending for business expansion is credited with giving the economy one of its strongest boosts this year. But is such capital investment a boom?

Compared to the lag since 1958 it is. The Department of Commerce cites it as helping make the over - all economic gains since April 1 look solid in spite of the lagging response of consumers to the federal income tax cut.

The investment fraternity thinks the current increase in business spending is still far from what it should be, if compared to past performance or to the greater growth of the total output of goods and services—gross national product.

Some bankers fear the present rise in business spending, important as it is, may be exaggerated. The statisticians like to talk of percentages rather than dollar volume. This year's increased spending will still be well below postwar peaks as a percentage of the gross national product.

The reason for the lag, say economists at Chase Manhattan Bank of New York, lies in profits These, too, have risen to a record in dollar volume. But the bankers compared them to sales and to the GNP.

After-tax profits this year are expected to rise to 3.3 per cent of corporate sales. But in the years immediately after the war they averaged 4.9 per cent. After-tax profits this year may rise to 5 per cent of the gross national product. In the early postwar period they averaged 7.3 per cent.

When such profit percentages are high, business spends freely for new plant and equipment. When they shrink, so does the urge to expand.

Others point out another factor tending to act as a governor on business spending plans. This is the percentage of production to facilities. As sales have risen in recent months, excess capacity has been shrinking. As the plants now building or projected go into operation the ratio of production to capacity seems likely to drop again.

Hollywood News and Views

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — In the spring, the movies' fancy lightly turns. The film companies seem unwilling to issue anything of a weighty nature; hence, the springtime flood of fluffy, frivolous products.

Passable Entertainment

Three of the current releases demonstrate Hollywood's preoccupation with combining names and nonsense. Vast amounts of each have gone into "What a Way to Go!" The result is not equal to the sum of its parts, but it provides passable entertainment.

Thanks are largely due to Shirley MacLaine, who works ever so hard to keep the flimsy fabric from tearing asunder. The story is reminiscent of old Sid Caesar - Imogene Coca sketches, complete with takeoffs on old and new movies. Shirley is a simple lass whose life is ruined by too much money.

The whole business is not to be taken any more seriously than the premise. The trouble is that none of the characters has a shred of reality; all are as two dimensional as Huckleberry Hound.

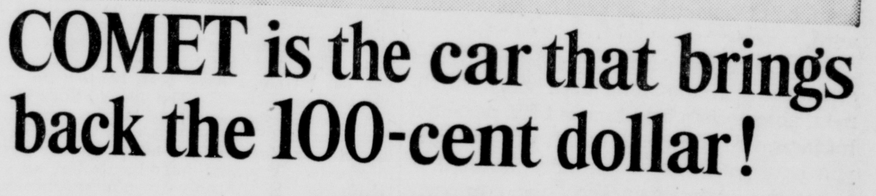

"A Bedtime Story" provides the provocative casting of Marlon Brando and David Niven in another farfetched sage of high life. They play a pair of low-lifes, actually jet - age gigolos who relieve rich American women of diamonds, rubies and other baubles.

Sure Brando Touch

Niven is capital for this sort of thing. The surprise is Brando. Whether playing the smooth operator or masquerading as a blithering half - wit prince, he evokes laughs with a sure touch.

Then there is "Viva Las Vegas," another adventure in unreality. This one has Elvis Presley as a race car driver and Ann-Margret as a swimming teacher in Las Vegas, and —oh, why bother? Suffice to say the plot, retreaded perhaps from an old Esther Williams - Van Johnson script, is barely enough to thread together a succession of musical numbers.

HOW NOT TO ACT

Want to keep from getting a job when you graduate from school?

Here are some simple things to do that will practically insure a summer — maybe even a lifetime — of leisure:

Show your individuality by affecting a Beatle haircut and other touches of distinction which make it clear you have a personality of your own.

Show up late and keep your interviewer waiting. Let him know you're not falling over yourself to land this job.

Pull up a chair real close to the interviewer, rearrange the stuff on his desk so his ashtray is near you, and light up. This shows you are at ease and at home anywhere.

Tell him frankly what you think is wrong with his business. So he burns a little. So what? If he can't take a little honest criticism, he's too narrow-minded to fool around with.

Make sure the company is broadminded about coffee breaks, long lunch hours, tardiness, absenteeism and time out for personal business. Bear down on this. It will indicate you have your career carefully planned.

Let the interviewer know the company will be lucky to get you—that a lot of other outfits are bidding for you.

If a starting salary is mentioned, react with pain and hurt surprise. Explain that your professor thought you would be worth a lot more.

Follow this routine and it's dollars to doughnuts you end up with time to catch up on your sleep in the mornings and to polish up your golf game — assuming, of course, that you can get hold of the dough to play.

WE LIKE US, AS IS

What are the heavy thinkers trying to do to us?

A chemist is suggesting that we ought to be learning while we sleep by "utilizing the subconscious."

Scientists have come up with a scheme to attach little motors to a man and thus endow him with increased muscular power so he may be able to lift more and work harder.

Doctors are forecasting that a new miracle liquid may be able to turn tired old faces into fresh new ones and hide our ugliness and age with a chemical mask.

So we face the intriguing prospect of looking like zombies, competing with heavy machinery for a living, and never enjoying a moment's respite from deep thinking.

It almost makes you wonder if the old lady may not have had something when she said: "If the good Lord had meant for us to fly, He'd have given us wings."

GO SUITABLY ARMED

The season of outdoor culinary endeavor is again upon us. Let no man sally forth on invitation to yon neighboring patio save he be armed with bicarbonate or such other nostrums as he deems effective.

The danger is less acute than in earlier days of backyard cookery, granted. Some patio chefs have learned that it is not necessary, when broiling meat over charcoal, to have the result resemble charcoal in appearance and taste. Some have grasped the idea that the purpose of condiments is to enhance and complement rather than overwhelm, the flavor of the piece de resistance.

Some few have become masters of the grilled cuisine. But not all . . . not all. So venture not to the patio unless properly armed for the fray.

BEE, WHERE IS THY STING

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways and be wise." So the Book of Proverbs has been admonishing mankind for three milleniums.

Now, thanks to the work of a West German apiarist, it may be to the bee that men should go to learn, not the ways of industry, but the ways of peace. One Jan Lassen, beekeeper in the village of Wohle in Schleswig-Holstein, has succeeded in breeding a variety of bee that is completely nonagressive.

Lassen spent 50 of his 80 years to achieve his goal by breeding from bees selected for their gentle nature. His "pacifistic" bees can still sting but never do, and Lassen can handle them without gloves or mask.

Alas, as is so often the case in human affairs, interlopers from outside bring trouble to this apiarian Eden. Despite precautions, an occasional wandering, belligerent male successfully woos one of the gentile queens, producing a generation of little stingers who have to be painfully weeded out.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

NEW YORK AND THE CALIFORNIA PRIMARY

It could be a case of when the cat's away the mice will play. Or it could be more serious than that. At any rate, while Nelson Rockefeller is going all out to pick up eighty-six delegates in California, a determined band of Goldwaterites is busy trying to take delegates away from him in his home state of New York.

The New York and California primaries are scheduled for the same day, June 2, and the difference between Eastern and Pacific Coast time could mean that some news of the way things are going in New York will be available to late voters in Los Angeles and San Francisco. But the New York Goldwaterites are not relying on any hopes that a home state defection will be evident in time to affect the vote in California. Regardless of the California primary, they want to put Goldwater delegates across in ten contested New York State Congressional Districts if only to demonstrate to the Republican convention that Rockefeller is weak where popular opinion in the West considers that he is strong. Ten districts could yield a maximum of twenty delegates, but even if the Goldwaterites could pick up from two to six delegates they would consider it a meaningful victory.

The Goldwater push for New York State delegates is concentrated in counties that have been particularly restive under liberal Republican rule. These are mainly "down State," with a big cluster on Long Island — Suffolk, Nassau and Queens. But they include Erie County at the other end of the state. In addition to Long Island and Erie the Goldwaterites are making a pitch on Staten Island, in suburban Westchester and Rockland counties, and in the mid-Hudson Twenty-eighth Congressional District where Kent Leavitt, a big figure in the national Goldwater for President movement, holds forth.

The effectiveness of the Goldwater push in New York has already been proved, for in many of the contested districts the Republican organization candidates for a trip to the national convention are running either as "uncommitted" or as merely willing to support Rockefeller as a "favorite son," not as a serious last-ditch contender. In Suffolk County, an organization Republican who aspires to be a delegate remarked, "If we commit ourselves now, we might very well be out on a limb."

The New York Goldwaterites are far more virulent about Rockefeller than is Barry Goldwater himself. At the very moment when Goldwater was announcing in California that he would concentrate his fire on Lyndon Johnson, not on fellow Republicans, the New York Goldwaterites were busy shipping their anti-Rockefeller literature to the Pacific Coast in large amounts. The burden of this literature, as New York conservatives put it, is that "you've got to live with Rocky really to know him." In an "open letter to New Yorkers," forwarded to the Coast, it plays up the "humiliating concessions" which Rockefeller "extracted" from Richard Nixon in 1960, and adds that, "as a result, Nixon lost New York by 383,646 votes, his beating anywhere in the nation except for Massachusetts, John Kennedy's home state." It calls Rockefeller "the worst taxer and spender in the history of New York State . . . personal income taxes taken from your pay envelope have been boosted an incredible 103.2 per cent." (The N. Y. State Income Tax Bureau denies any increase has been made.) And, pointing to the State Liquor Authority scandals in New York, which have "already resulted in seventeen criminal indictments," it says that "Rockefeller is the only Republican Presidential possibility who couldn't score on the Bobby Baker issue."

Since, prior to his victory in Oregon, Rockefeller had been encountering apathy in California, the New York Goldwaterites hope to promote a renewal of that feeling among California liberals by writing their letters and sending telegrams and placing ads in local papers. The statement has been made in Los Angeles that if the Republicans turn out only 60 per cent of their vote on June 2, Goldwater will win, whereas if 75 per cent go to the primary polls, Rockefeller has a good chance of pulling a "second Oregon." It is in the context of this analysis that the letter-writing and telegram-sending campaign from New York, which was first suggested by Senator Karl Mundt at the Goldwater Rally in Madison Square Garden, could be a potent straw on the back of the Rockefeller camel. It's highly partisan stuff, but the New Yorkers think Rocky's effort to tar the Goldwaterites with a Birchite label merits their taking the gloves off.

The DOCTOR SAYS

Tennis Is a Great Game, But It Is Also Strenuous

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Tennis, anyone? Whether you answer yes or no should depend on your general physical fitness. Tennis, you see, is a strenuous game.

If you are over 40 there is no reason why you should not still enjoy this game if you take pains to build up your fitness by observing a few basic principles.

Like handball and badminton, tennis is a game in which sudden bursts of energy accompanied by quick movements are alternated with periods of rest. For the improperly conditioned player these short spurts often result in sprained ankles, twisted knees, torn calf muscles, shoulder and wrist injuries and tennis elbow.

It is advisable, therefore, to spend six or eight weeks before the season in walking, skipping rope and general calisthenics. When you finally step out onto the court ready to go, you should spend 15 or 20 minutes in a leisurely warm-up volley.

Avoid joint injuries by perfecting the technique of following through on each stroke and leave the violent cuts and smashes to the professionals. Learn to let the out-of-reach shots go.

In other words don't try to be a hero at the expense of your heart and your joints. Remember, you are playing a game, not winning a war. In this regard it is always better for your peace of mind, your health and your wa'let not to bet on the outcome. You're supposed to be having fun—not trying to make a place on the Olympic team. At 40, it's better to be slightly seedy than seeded.

As with all summer sports, sunburn and heat exhaustion are hazards to be avoided. It is better to play a little every day than to save it up and play several hours on the weekend. If you can't play every day, it is doubly important to get your walk and your exercise on the days when you don't play. The former King of Sweden was still playing at 70 but then he played every day, using indoor courts in bad weather.

"A Further Appropriation Is Necessary"

Washington News

BY BRUCE BIOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — An inquiry is under way into persistent charges of police brutality advanced by Negroes and some civil rights groups. The probe could help clear the air or corroding elements which undetermine respect for law and order in today's tense society.

The International Association of Chiefs of Police is conducting the study and should have a report later this year.

Protesting groups may argue that the association is an interested party and thus not qualified to undertake a fair investigation in its own house. There is ample sign from a variety of policy statements, however, that the association maintains a responsible attitude toward the problem and is capable of reasonable self-criticism if it be warranted.

An official association comment uttered not too long ago: "It is realized that in the emotion-charged atmosphere of some demonstrations the parties on both sides of the police lines have been guilty of unnecessary force and tactics which tend to spark violence.

"But 'smoke-screen' charges of police brutality to cover excesses and illegal conduct on the part of others are inexcusable.

"Law enforcement agencies and responsible demonstrating groups in virtually every instance want no violence. . .reasonable men faced with these situations realize this and have acted accordingly."

WHAT CONCERNS MANY conscientious law enforcement authorities is the indication, turning up in many places, that Negro leaders have begun to make "police brutality" an almost automatic charge against a community without regard to fair consideration of the evidence. The demand to "end police brutality" appears on nearly every list of Negro demands for redress of grievances.

MOST DISTURBING TO RESPONSIBLE officials is the levying of such charges in instances where demonstrators, both white and Negro, have deliberately acted either to thwart the law or to interupt the normal processes of community life.

When police have responded to uphold the law and end the interference to traffic or whatever, charges of brutality have almost invariably followed.

It is ironic that they should be flug with such frequency and seeming abandon at a time when brutality against the police is being practiced on an ever-increasing scale. Most of these assaults are made by persons facing arrest or being pursued for a variety of offenses. But some are committed by civil rights demonstrators.

One Maryland state trooper who has seen frequent duty at troubled Cambridge, Md., has been injured four times. He has been struck by a bottle and burned by acid. Neither of these seem proper equipment for a "peaceful" demonstrator

In 1962, the last year for which complete figures are available, 78 law enforcement officers were killed by criminal action. The 1960-62 total was 113. Injurious assaults number in the thousands.

POLICE TRYING TO MAKE ARRESTS for minor traffic offenses often find themselvs surrounded by menacing crowds. Sometimes these situations suddenly take on racial overtones. A documented case:

An intoxicated Negro woman driver strikes another car. Stepping out, she tries to pretend she was not driving. When odered to get into a police vehicle, she shouts: "My civil rights are being violated." A gathering crowd of 50 curious Negroes rumbles angrily, stops just short of attacking police.

By their present inquiry, by their conduct of civil rights work shops and other reviews of the problem, responsible police leaders indicate they are trying to assess fairly their performance and their proper role in dealing with racial tensions. There is not yet much heartening evidence of similar concern from all civil rights leaders who press their demands in the public streets.

What Senator Goldwater Really Said on A-Bomb

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Sen. Goldwater can certainly point a finger of blame at the unfortunate reporting job that was done over the week end in telling the world that he favored the use of atomic bombs against the enemy in Viet Nam when he actually never made any such recommendation or proposal.

For immediately after the erroneous reports were widely publicized, UN Secretary General U Thant issued a blistering attack aimed at Sen. Goldwater, and so did the Soviet Ambassador at the UN, Nikolai T. Fedorenko.

What did Sen. Goldwater really say, and how did some of the press associations and newspapers report it? First, it is important to examine the stenographic transcript issued by the American Broadcasting Co. giving the verbatim answers that Sen. Goldwater made to Howard K. Smith on its program, "Issues and Answers," last Sunday afternoon.

Sen. Goldwater had pointed out that the Red Chinese fighting in Viet Nam peninsula have access to unlimited supplies plus those they have taken away from South Vietnamese troops. He declared:

"I would strongly advise that we interdict supply routes wherever they be, either by sea, or most importantly through North Viet Nam, Laos or Cambodia, and I believe this could be done in a way that would not endanger life and I believe it could be done in a way, after having consulted with the leading Red Chinese in North Viet Nam, to the effect that we are stronger. We don't want to ooccupy any part of Southeast Asia. All we want to do is get this little war over with, and get our boys home and have peace over there and tell them that we are going to bomb the bridges, the roads and so forth, and unless they accede to stopping strategic deliveries over those roads and railroads, that we can step it up. I think those people understand what we would be getting at, and we should be doing it."

Mr. Smith then asked:

"Now a lot of supply lines seem to run in on the Laotian border, in any case, through jungles and along trails. How could you interdict those?"

Sen. Goldwater answered:

"Well, it is not as easy as it sounds, because these are not trails that are out in the open. I have been in these rain forests of Burma and South China. You are perfectly safe wandering through them as far as an enemy hurting you. There have been several suggestions made. I don't think we would use any of them. But defolation of the forests by low-yield atomic weapons could well be done. When you remove the foliage, you remove the cover. The major supply lines, though, I think, would have to be interdicted where they leave Red China, which is the Red River Valley above North Viet Nam, and there, according to my studies of the geography, it would not be a difficult task to destroy those basic routes."

The key sentence in Sen. Goldwater's answer about the various suggestions — including possible use of low-yield atomic weapons —was the following: "I don't think we would use any of them."

One of the press associations, nevertheless, carried a dispatch declaring that Sen. Goldwater had "proposed" the use of 'low-yield atomic weapons to defoliate the forests along the borders of South Viet Nam. The same dispatch quoted the Arizona Senator as declaring that non-atomic attacks on supply lines should be carried out, and also quoted the Arizona Senator's statement that he did not think any of the atomic weapons would be used.

Sen. Goldwater has expressed resentment over the misinterpretation and erroneous reporting of his remarks. United Press International, in a dispatch from San Diego on Tuesday night, said:

'At one point, Goldwater said he was misquoted by the press, and in wire service reports, on use of nuclear weapons in the South Vietnamese dispute. 'I would never use a nuclear weapon when a conventional weapon would do,' he said. 'I would leave it up to the commanders.'"

It was not surprising for the Soviet Ambassador at the UN to denounce Sen. Goldwater as having "proposed" the use of low-yield atomic weapons in South Viet Nam and to call upon the U. S. government to condemn the "Goldwater proposal." Adlai Stevenson, American Ambassador to the UN, argued in reply that neither Sen. Goldwater nor any other Senator makes foreign policy, and added:

"He (Fedorenko) has not explained the military measures which the North Viet Nam regime, with the assistance of its powerful Communist allies, has been for many years taking in Laos and the Republic of Viet Nam."

It might be added that the Soviet Ambassador to the UN, who has suddenly become worried about a theoretical use of low-yield atomic weapons in Viet Nam, seems to have forgotten that just a few months ago his government constructed missile bases in Cuba, 90 miles away from the shores of the U. S., and that from such installations it was possible for nuclear weapons to be used to destroy a large section of American territory. To this day, the Soviet government has never apolgized to the world for its brazen threat to the safety of the American people.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

In the May 6, 1964 Freeman, page 4, in the "Quick Quiz" column, one question was: "What was 'The Great White Fleet?" The answer being: "On Feb. 21, 1909, 16 white-painted battleships of the United States Navy, nicknamed 'The Great White Fleet,' steamed into Hampton Roads, ending the first round the world journey ever undertaken by an American battle force." In speaking to Captain Andrew Hickey, U. S. Navy, (ret.) historian and author of "The Story of Kingston" he told me about his being on the U. S. Battleship Maine, one of the White Fleet, at the time he was a midshipman. I thought his experiences were unique and exciting, and hope he writes about them.

Among a collection of postal cards my grandfather collected, I found several of "The Great White Fleet" like the U. S. Battleships, Maine, with three stacks on which was Captain Hickey. I also have the U. S. S. Minnesota, the Wisconsin, Ohio, Kansas, Illinois, Kearsage, all daytime shots. The USS Battleships Virginia, Texas, Massachusetts and Brooklyn were photographed at night in moonlight. I also have postal cards of that era of sailors on board ship, fencing, boxing, sewing, peeling potatoes. I see they had little hand sewing machines, with one sailor pushing the cloth under the needle, and the other sailor turning the handle, three machines operated by six sailors. All the gobs were wearing their blue uniform. One is doing hand sewing, I see. No doubt much was written at the time on this famous "Great White Fleet" with which Captain Andrew Hickey of Kingston served.

Mrs. Emma Tonneson of Mt. Marion, sent me a note in which she writes in part: "How often I dwell on similar thoughts you have. In a couple of your latest 'Do You Remember,' you mention the mammoth shopping centers, the Kingston Point Park, the Hudson River and boats . . ." She also enclosed two poems for my pleasure which include some of the thoughts I mention here, about shopping in big centers, and also the pleasure of the Hudson River, and picnic lunches. She compares the relaxing life, to the "buzzing" of cars on the Thruway, wondering where they are going, for what and why. Driving of cars has changed the personality of people I think. Years ago, when cars were few, it was sort of a friendly sport, you waved to friends, you have lots of room, for cars were small and slow. I look at a postal card of the Rondout Bridge, and the cars on it, seem tiny. A policeman was in the middle of the street with a big umbrella stand. Now its intersection lights to watch, traffic directions, one way streets, meters, and a thousand other things you cannot do or should do. I understand going to the present World's Fair in New York by car is not a pleasant adventure.

I received a nice note from my friend, Principal Robert Graves of the Port Ewen School inviting me to the second Port Ewen School "Prose and Poetry" Fair during the week of May 18 to 22. Each pupil in Grades 1-6 will display his best writing, besides an art exhibition in the main foyer of the school. The school will have this exhibition during school hours and also Wednesday evening of that week for their P-TA meeting. I will look again at the old School No. 13 Port Ewen Bell, in a place of honor in the new building, which was given to them by Mr. and Mrs. James S. Belefas of 42 Crown Street who bought the old

Local Bankers Will Attend Stonier School

Fred P. Carpenter and Joseph W. Robertson of the Kingston Trust Company will attend the Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University June 8 through June 19.

The school, which is conducted by the American Bankers Association will be attended this year by 1,100 bank officers from 45 states, the District of Columbia, Venezuela and the Philippines.

The Stonier Graduate School was founded in 1935 by the A.B.A. to provide an opportunity to experienced bankers for advanced study in banking and related subjects. The faculty for the 1964 session numbers approximately 100 leading bankers, lawyers, educators, and Government representatives. During the two- week session, they will cover all phases of banking, economics, law, government, and related fields.

To qualify for graduation from the school, students must attend three of these summer sessions at Rutgers. In addition, they must complete two years of extension work at home and write a thesis based upon original research in some phase of finance.

Lobbyists Report $8,482 Spent for Liquor Proposals

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Liquor lobbyists, attacked by Gov. Rockefeller during the legislative battle over his proposals for liquor-law reform, say they spent $8,482 in efforts to influence bills during the regular and special sessions of the 1964 Legislature.

The figures were disclosed Wednesday from financial reports filed with the secretary of state.

According to reports, the spending by the six groups representing liquor interests was considerably less than expenditures of other lobbying groups.

Consolidated Edison of New York, for instance, reported lobbying expenses of $23,256.

The reported expenses of the liquor lobbies:

Greater New York Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association, $3,903; New York State Restaurant Liquor Dealers Association, $3,130; Metropolitan Package Store Association, $708; New York State Brewers Association, $553; New York State Wholesale Liquor Association, $188; New York State Wholesale Beer Distributors Association, no expenses listed.

Ho-Hum Attitude on Coast

Californians Yawn As Candidates Spiel

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Those curious people, the Californians, seem to be displaying a great indifference to the vital business of picking a Republican presidential nominee in their June 2 primary.

The concentration of news media personnel in this former center of movie-making would indicate that something important is going to happen in next Tuesday's primary voting. This contest pits Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz. against New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—and the assembled noncandidate aspirants for the nomination to oppose President Johnson in November.

Usually Exhilarating

Ordinarily, a chance to help choose a party nominee would exhilarate the residents of almost any state. It did exhilarate the Republican voters of Oregon on May 15, when Rockefeller won a victory the pollsters had failed to forecast.

Confronted with the possibility they may be able to veto one of the two challengers for the nomination, California's voters seem to be replying with a political yawn to the campaigns of Goldwater and Rockefeller for the state's 86 GOP presidential nominating delegates.

A drive down California's freeways discloses billboards extolling virtues of the opposing presidential candidates. But off-freeway stops with average citizens registered a minimum of interest.

The cliche being passed among politicians was that the crowds didn't listen to what Goldwater had to say and applauded him vigorously, while they listened to Rockefeller but didn't applaud.

This perverse attitude on the part of California voters left political forecasters nonplussed, despite state polls indicating Rockefeller now is enjoying a surprising substantial lead over the Arizona senator.

Tough on Experts

But no expert could judge from the reception of the two candidates how their campaigns really were going.

In the campaign rallies, the "We want Barry" chant boomed out over full convention halls. The bright lights burned down on the gray-haired candidate from Arizona. The pretty girls in their cowboy hats marched about. But there was no convincing air of victory in all of the maneuverings.

In contrast, Rockefeller, his hair awry, signed autographs in a group pressing around him and stepped onto a platform to declaim his views earnestly and somewhat monotonously. There were seldom any "We want Rocky" shouts. But the New York governor's campaign, nevertheless, had acquired an atmosphere of victory that seemed to be lacking in his opponent's.

Child Recovering From Bite by Dog

A two-year-old girl who was bitten in the face by a dog shortly after 8 p. m. Wednesday, was reported in satisfactory condition today in her home.

Marcia May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin F. May, of 185 Smith Avenue, suffered cuts to her cheek and other facial scratches. She was taken to Kingston Hospital where she was treated and given an injection. She was released after treatment. May said his daughter was riding a tricycle in front of her home near O'Neil Street when she bent over to pick up a piece of paper. He said the dog lunged at the paper at the same time and bit his daughter.

Tavern Man's Daughter

ELMIRA, N. Y. (AP) — The city of Elmira owes its name to a little girl who fell asleep in the right lap at the right time. During a meeting in Teall's Tavern in 1808, Elmira Teall climbed into the lap of Assemblyman Emmanuel Coryell, who headed a committee to find a new name for Newton. The town fathers thought there were too many Newtons in the state. Coryell decided Elmira would be a right pretty name for a young frontier town.

U.S., Soviet Negotiations Improve, But in Some Ways Relations Are Getting Worse

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations between the Soviet Union and the United States are beginning to run up an impressive list of successes. The latest is the new treaty to increase protection for American citizens in the Soviet Union and Soviet citizens in the United States.

Still, relations between Washington and Moscow in some ways are getting worse at the same time they are getting better. The future course or relations is unpredictable, and no one in either capital has any guarantees against the sudden eruption of a new and dangerous crisis.

Agreement on Treaty

Agreement on the new treaty, formally known as a consular convention, was announced by President Johnson Wednesday. He emphasized that it was the first two-nation treaty between this country and the Soviet Union in the 31 years they have had diplomatic links. He expressed the hope that it would lead to a further improvement in relations.

The treaty provides for opening up consular offices in each country, in addition to the embassies in Washington and Moscow. How many offices will be opened and where they will be established are questions still to be negotiated.

The United States is reported interested in having a consulate in Leningrad, and the Soviet Union is understood to want a consulate in Chicago. Each country formerly had consulates in the other, but they were closed in 1948 as a result of cold war incidents.

Important Provision

The most important provision of the pact, in the U.S. view, is a commitment by each government to give official notice within three days of the arrest of a citizen of the other, and to permit officials to visit the person arrested within four days of seizure.

Soviet failure to notify the United States promptly of the arrest of American citizens has been a major source of irritation, one dramatic incident being the seizure last year of Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn. That case was finally straightened out only after the personal intervention of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Typical of the double-sided nature of U.S.-Soviet affairs at present is the fact that, at almost the same hour that Johnson was announcing the consular pact, a spokesman at the State Department was deploring the prospective shipment of Soviet arms to Cyprus.

An arms deal between the Cyprus government, controlled by the island's Greek majority, and the Soviet Union has been rumored for about two weeks. U.S. officials obviously believe the reports are true, and they fear the possibility of new violence between the Greek population and the Turkish minority.

The Worst Crisis

The most serious source of current tension between the world's two major powers, however, is the crisis in Southeast Asia. Faced with Communist offensives in both Laos and South Viet Nam, the United States has been employing all kinds of diplomatic pressures to persuade Red China and Communist North Viet Nam to stop the fighting in Laos, and to realize the dangers of an expanded war in Viet Nam.

U.S. Soviet Negotiations — 2..

Privately, officials said the United States had really got no help from the Soviets in its efforts to bring the crisis under control. On the contrary, they noted a sharpening turn in Soviet propaganda, coupled with warnings against a greater U.S. intervention in the area.

Other sources of tension include continuing Soviet support for Cuba as a Communist beachhead in the Western Hemisphere. In fact, given the possibility of some Cuban action against U.S. reconnaissance planes, many authorities here still see the situation in the Caribbean as a potential powderkeg.

Dates From Missile Trouble

The parallel trend of improved relations dates from the Cuban missile crisis in the fall of 1962. As the great powers backed away from the confrontation that had carried the world seemingly to the edge of nuclear war, there were many statements from both Soviet and American leaders that steps must be taken urgently to strengthen the prospects for peace.

The first of the agreements that resulted was an agreement to open up a "hot line" between Washington and Moscow, so that in any future crisis the men with the power of decision could communicate with speed and secrecy.

The next major development was the successful negotiation in signing of a treaty imposing a limiten ban on the testing of nuclear weapons.

Wheat Deal Cited

One of the more concrete achievements of the series of negotiations which have gone on since the Cuban missile crisis, was last fall's U.S.-Soviet wheat deal. Under this agreement, the United States has sold the Soviet Union 1.7 million tons of badly needed wheat.

Authorities here also cite as an evidence of declining East-West tension the parallel actions taken last month by President Johnson and Premier Khrushchev in announcing a cutback in the production of nuclear explosives.

Most officials here think the trend toward improving relations has been both helped and hindered by the Soviet split with Red China and the resulting rivalry between Moscow and Peking for leadership of the Communist parties around the world.

Undoubtedly, the split has caused Khrushchev to reassess his relations with the West, in the light of the fact that the Soviet Union is caught up in a cold war on two fronts. It is assumed here that the long Soviet border with Red China is a source of constant concern to Moscow strategists.

At the same time, U.S. experts say, because of the competition for Communist leadership, Khrushchev must strike out against the United States and other Western powers on some issues since failure to do so would yield advantage to the Chinese.

Everything Fouled Up in Viet, Major Wrote in Letter

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)— An Air Force major wrote his wife before his death in South Viet Nam that the Southeast Asia forces suffered from "not enough housing, not enough planes, not enough parts, not enough people, not enough bombs."

Lucille Adams, widow of Maj. Hughie Adams, released on Tuesday portion of letters she said she received during the four months before Adams' death Jan. 7.

The major called his B26 plane "The Widow Maker" Mrs. Adams said. She said a young lieutenant told her Adams' plane fell apart in the air, killing him and another flier.

"You can't imagine how fouled up everything is," Adams wrote in one of the letters. "The people who said Diem was doing his best against the Communists are full of baloney. He spent all the money we gave him for special troops to protect him."

Adams was due for retirement in another year and was a veteran of World War II and Korea. He flew 13,000 hours during World War II, dropped paratroopers in Europe on D-Day, and flew troops to Africa and in China.

Correction Made On Mention of Jacobson Firm

In a published account in The Freeman last May 22 regarding the signing of a contract to purchase the former Fuller Shirt Company on Pine Grove Avenue, it was stated in part that "Presently the premises are occupied by IBM, whose lease expires in October; the Kingston Shirt Company, a division of Raymar Shirt Company, which also operates the F. Jacobson & Sons shirt factory on Cornell Street, and the Faymo Sportswear, Inc. factory."

William Buchbinder, district plant manager of the F. Jacobson & Sons firm said the information was incorrect. He told The Freeman that the Jacobson firm was sold to the Kayser-Roth firm of New York City, and is presently operating as a subsidiary of that company. He said that the Jacobson firm also operates its own five-story building at Smith Avenue and Cornell Street and was completely independent of the Kingston Shirt Company, the Ramar Shirt Company, and anyone involved in the contract negotiations.

The news story said a contract was signed by Max Z. Kligman, president of the Pilgrim Furniture Company of Kingston, representing the D. & R. Realty Corporation to purchase the premises at 45-57 Pine Grove Avenue.

The Freeman regrets the error.

Cunningham Lists

voted favorably to increase the age of houses for conventional financing from 10 to 12 years and to set the mortgage limits up to $30,000.

Senator Bush also voted favorably for the amendment of the Transportation Law to permit corporations to install and own sewage treatment plants for homes in housing developments without deeding them to the municipality, Cunningham said. This was, Cunning said, a most important bill to the homebuilders.

Helped on Financing

Mr. Cunningham stated that a bill which affected all banks, realtors and home owners was acted upon favorably by the senator which was an amendment to the State Banking Law to permit 90 per cent conventional financing on homes up to 10 years old.

"It is his voting record plus his activity in steering these bills through the Senate that our Association awarded him the designation as the outstanding legislator," Cunningham said.

Nab Fourth Man In Abortion Ring

FULTON, N. Y. (AP) — A fourth man has been arrested in what state police call a crackdown on a widespread abortion ring in Central New York.

Dominick Froio, 45, of Rome, was arrested Wednesday night at his restaurant by State Police and charged with aiding and abetting in an abortion.

Three other men, including a prominent Fulton physician, were arrested Tuesday night.

Froio, proprietor of Tubby's Restaurant in Rome, was arraigned before Judge Donald K. Comstock of Fulton City Court and was released in $10,000 bail, pending a hearing June 8.

Dr. Harry L. Alpert, 52, and Victor Gorea, 42, both of Fulton and Frank Morreale, 53, of Utica were arrested in Fulton on charges of illegal abortions. Bail for each was set at $10,000.

Judge Comstock set a hearing for Alpert tomorrow. Gorea was to appear in court Monday and Morreale on Tuesday.

State Police said the investigation of the alleged ring, begun nearly three months ago, was still underway. They said the ring had operated in Rochester, Syracuse, Utica, Binghamton, Rome and surrounding areas.

Says His Party Wants Directorate Of Five Nations

LONDON (AP)—The man who may be Britain's next foreign minister says the British Labor party, if it wins the national election in the fall, will work for a five-nation directorate to formulate nuclear and political strategy for the North Atlantic Alliance.

Patrick Gordon Walker, Labor's spokesman on foreign affairs, suggested that West Germany and Italy should join the United States, Britain and France in drawing up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's plans for action "up to the moment when—and if—the nuclear trigger has to be pressed."

At that point, Gordon Walker added, the Americans would be on their own because Labor wants the United States to become the sole custodian of the West's nuclear striking power.

Gordon Walker outlined his party's planning in an interview shortly before flying today to discuss key world problems with Communist leaders in Warsaw, Moscow and Bucharest. Harold Wilson, Labor Party leader, will join him Saturday in Moscow.

Gordon Walker skirted the problem French President Charles de Gaulle's lone - wolf policies create for the Labor NATO plan.

"If the French decide not to join in the group, a place should be kept for them," he said.

NATO's shape and strategy was a major topic when foreign ministers of the 15-nation alliance met in the Hague two weeks ago. It has been a subject of confidential discussion between Wilson and his colleagues and the Johnson administration in Washington. If Labor wins the fall election, Wilson will become prime minister and Gordon Walker very likely will be foreign secretary.

Fire Comes to Firemen

A fire came to Central Fire Station this afternoon to get put out. It is easy, since the fire was on wheels. Dispatcher Walter Madajewski said that a 1964 sedan pulled in front of the station at 12:07. Firmen extinguished the blaze, which was in the back end of a rear seat cushion, with pressured water. Cause of the fire was a cigarette.

The vehicle was owned by the Kinney Rental Service, of 10 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City, and leased and operated by Jessie Friedman, of New York City.

Saturn Is Fired On Apollo Mission

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —A Saturn 1 superrocket blasted off today in the first attempt to orbit an unmanned model of the Apollo moonship.

The launching was the first of a long series of unmanned Apollo flights aimed at earth orbital missions and eventual landings on the moon.

Greatest Power Known

The mammoth two-stage Saturn 1 rumbled skyward at 12:07 p.m. on the tremendous force of the world's greatest known rocket power plant. The cluster of eight first-stage engines was designed to develop thrust of 1.5 million pounds during 146 seconds of flight.

The second stage, powered by high-energy liquid hydrogen, was calculated to produce an additional 90,000 pounds of thrust for eight minutes to drill the "boilerplate" Apollo craft into an orbit ranging from 110 to 140 miles high.

As the rocket's booster engines flashed to life, they showered the launch stand with a mass of flame and sent a thunderclap rolling across Cape Kennedy.

Rising slowly at first under its vast load, the rocket picked up speed quickly as the engines gulped fuel.

About 51 seconds after lift-off the vehicle began a gradual pitch into a southeast heading, spurting a tail of flame more than 300 feet long as it raced across a clear sky.

Appears Normal

Project officials announced three minutes after launching that the second stage had ignited and appeared to be performing normally.

The 190-foot rocket-spacecraft combination—tallest ever launched by the United States — was burdened by 475 tons of propellant. To produce the enormous thrust for their task, the engines had to consume fuel at a rate of nearly three tons a second.

The shot had been postponed twice because of equipment failures.

Because of the test nature of the flight no attempt was to be made to separate the burned-out second stage or an instrument package from the Apollo spacecraft. Total weight of the three payload sections was 37,300 pounds and over-all length 80 feet.

Nor was it intended to recover the satellite, which was expected to burn up from atmospheric friction after about a week in orbit.

Romney Declares Public Emergency In Strike Town

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP) — Gov. George W. Romney, responding to a plea for help from the city's mayor, today declared "a state of public emergency" in strike-torn Hillsdale.

The National Guard was ordered to move troops in after a night of violence in which some 300 rock - throwing demonstrators virtually stormed the Hillsdale jail. The mob was protesting arrest of three pickets.

The governor also ordered the strike-plagued Essex Wire Co. plant here shut down, except for skeleton maintenance crews, for an indefinite period.

Except for police officers and troops, Romney said no one will be permitted firearms in this city of 7,629 in southeastern Lower Michigan.

A third part of the governor's order bars "picketing, demonstrations or public assemblage" in Hillsdale, but it leaves government in the hands of local officials.

Romney said Mayor C. Aubrey Paul was informed of the order and "he has indicated informally that it appears to him to be adequate."

Romney acted in Lansing after a telegraphic plea from Paul for martial law. Beforehand, the governor conferred with State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, assistant adjutant general of the Michigan National Guard.

The governor said his order will remain in effect "as long as people and property are in danger" and that guards at the strike-bound plant will be disarmed.

He ordered production stopped and banned picketing.

"Without this action," Romney told newsmen, "there is a likelihood of violence of an unknown extent."

Sixty state policemen and sheriff's deputies Wednesday night came to the aid of Hillsdale's seven-man police force in the emergency.

May Match 1962 Headache

Disaster Beckons State Dems Again

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) —New York State Democratic leaders searching for a U.S. Senate candidate might be maneuvering themselves into the same type of political disaster that befell the party in the 1962 state election.

The party's inability to produce and develop a strong candidate and leader in time to wage an effective campaign doomed the Democratic effort two years ago.

RFK Complicates Situation

Evidence of the same problem is present now as the party seeks a top-flight nominee to run against Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating this fall.

The uncertainty with which the Democrats had approached the task of choosing a senatorial candidate has been complicated by speculation Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy might want the nomination.

What little efforts had been made toward seeking a nominee appear to have been suspended pending a decision by Kennedy.

He is a resident of Virginia but could run for the U.S. Senate from New York State.

The attorney general has said only that, "all other things being equal," he thinks a present resident of New York should run. That comment did little to clarify his intentions and party leaders say that Kennedy's plans regarding the nomination are not clear.

Kennedy probably could have the nomination if he wanted it, despite the certainty his candidacy would bring sharp Republican attacks on the fact he is an outsider.

Open to Attacks

Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney sounded last weekend what would be the central theme of the GOP reaction to a Kennedy race. Mahoney called the attorney general "a Back Bay carpetbagger."

The Democrats also could expect charges that their party was so impoverished in ability that it had to go outside the state to find a top candidate.

Two years ago, Democratic leaders talked about deciding early on a candidate to run against Gov. Rockefeller.

The theory was that this step would defeat the Republican strategy of setting late dates for nominating conventions, a move designed to benefit the incumbent by cutting down on the time the challenger has for campaigning.

But, after a summer of backing and filling, no candidate emerged until a few days before the convention. His selection was dictated by New York City leaders on the basis of polls and strategic considerations that proved to be unsound.

After a brief, ineffectual campaign, the nominee was defeated soundly.

Betting at Roosevelt Is Up $3.6 Million

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state reports a betting-tax inake of $14.7 million from Roosevelt Raceway's spring meet. This was $3.6 million more than last year's tax revenue at the harness track.

The total handle for the 72-day meeting, which began Feb. 20, was $144 million, compared with $109.6 million in the 61-day meet a year ago, the State Tax Department reported Wednesday.

The Legislature lengthened the racing season in the state in each of the past two years to increase betting-tax revenues.

Attendance was 1,743,212, compared with 1,522,894 last year.

Gateway Industry Will Announce Expansion Plans

Expansion plans providing additional facilities will be announced soon by Gateway Industries Rehabilitation Training Center Inc. The facility in a little over seven years has grown to be of Ulster County's most valuable health and educations services.

Gateway's phenomenal growth from a social club to a professionally staffed rehabilitation and training center for the handicapped is the result of the dedication of community spirited individuals and organizations to a single purpose: to make the handicapped independent of public assistance by training, so as to return them to competitive employment and permit them to become useful contributors to their community.

Housed at Field Court

Housed now in a former factory building on Field Court, Kingston, Gateway occupies and utilizes for workshop and training purposes two complete floors for a total 10,000 square feet. The space enables the Center to currently handle a trainee schedule for 55 clients. These people are supervised and trained by eight highly-experienced professional staff members of Gateway.

Most trainees are developed and schooled for work in the needle trades, industrial bench work and the clerical field. These areas of employment in the community continually demand trained personnel. During the past year 20-25 graduates of Gateway took their place back in competitive employment in work such as this, fulfilling the prime purpose of the organization.

From its infancy to its present adult status, Gateway has been completely Community orientated. It aspires to fulfill a basic need of the Community and must in turn depend upon it for active support; thus Gateway is a member agency of the Community Chest.

Additional income is realized through limited New York State grants and through work contracts negotiated with the county community's industrial and commercial firms. Job contracts, carefully screened to fit the abilities of Gateway trainees, and bid for and won on a competitive basis.

Has Satisfied Customers

Gateway's consistently high quality of performance standards, its ability to meet and cover production schedules, its flexibility and versatility in handling diversified jobs has created high satisfaction with its outside contractor customers. Many return to Gateway with additional jobs without being solicited.

The expansive potential of Gateway services is great. The New York State estimate of handicapped persons in the Gateway service area is 4 per cent of the population. To meet this challenging need Gateway is currently mapping plans for additional facilities and growth. These plans will be ready for general community announcement within two weeks.

Fire Sweeps 20 Acres In West Hurley Area

Volunteer firemen from West Hurley under Chief Fred Myers, assisted by Sawkill fire fighters battled fire in a wooded area on the Byron Gerlach property off Route 28, late Wednesday.

Chief Myers reported the flames swept over about 20 acres of woodlands before the fire was brought under control. West Hurley firemen were called out at about 5 p. m., and later Sawkill volunteers were summoned through mutual aid to assist. The fire was quelled shortly after 10 p m.

It was reported the woods fire apparently started from burning rubbish in a nearby dump.

Police were investigating today a malicious mischief complaint by a car owner. Aron Holland, of East Union Street, reported at 1:55 a. m. today that someone broke off the car's radio antenna, scratched the hood and dented a hubcap while the vehicle was parked opposite 112 Broadway.

The operator of a car involved in a two-car accident Wednesday afternoon on Creek Locks Road in the Town of Ulster was issued a summons for failure to keep right. The summons is returnable before Justice of the Peace Robert Stedge on Friday. Earle A. Terwilliger, 56, of 14 Cherry Hill Road, New Paltz was traveling west on the Creek Locks Road when his car and that of Herbert S. Bolde, 36, of Creek Locks Road, collided. None was injured. The accident was investigated by Deputy Sheriffs Daniel Levy and Vincent VanDemark.

Bit Hand

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Postmen may expect to be bitten by dogs but not by packages they deliver. Postman Richard Evans was loading mail on a truck when the teeth of a stuffed alligator worked through wrappings of a package and snared his finger.

Driver Is Injured As Truck Overturns

An 18-year-old Poughkeepsie bakery truck driver was injured at 3:15 p. m. Wednesday when the vehicle he was driving went out of control and overturned on Route 9W at Ulster Park, according to State Police Sergeant Henry S. Rhodes, Kingston substation.

Trooper J. F. Czaplicki of Highland, reported Frank Iapichino, of 21 Albany Street, Poughkeepsie, was driving a truck owned by Capitol Bakery of that city, north on Route 9W when the vehicle went out of control.

Iapichino was taken to Benedictine Hospital by Doctor's ambulance. He was treated for a possible cerebral concussion and abrasions of the arms and legs, troopers said.

Deaths

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP)—Ted Collins, 64, who managed and directed singer Kate Smith to fame and a longtime radio-TV personality himself, died Wednesday of a heart attack.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — George C. Gordon, 91, board chairman of the Drop Forge Co. for 11 years, died Wednesday after a long illness.

Red Light, Red Face

Capitol News in Brief

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

SPACE RACE: The Republican Citizens Committee urged Wednesday that the United States abandon its goal of landing a man on the moon by 1970.

"We see no evidence that urgent defense objectives warrant a crash program or that a meeting or deadlines such as 1970 serves any significant national objectives," declared the committee's Critical Issues Council, headed by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, brother of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

THE CHANGING SCENE: The late President John F. Kennedy, as a New Englander and former Navy man, was in love with the sea and ships.

Under his administration the paintings in White House lobby included one depicting a naval battle in the War of 1812.

In its place today hangs a picture more in the western mode of President Johnson—a painting by Frederic Remington, entitled "Aiding a Comrade," and showing two frontiersmen helping a wounded pal while pursued by Indians.

WEEKEND TRIP: President Johnson flies to New York today for a clutch of Democratic fund raising affairs and then jets to Texas for the weekend.

On Friday night, the President speaks at commencement exercises at his old high school in Johnson City and the next day he and Mrs. Johnson receive his-and-her honorary degrees at the University of Texas in Austin.

REJECTED: The House rejected Wednesday a bill that would have increased from $10,000 to $20,000 the maximum amount of bank and savings and loan deposits subject to federal insurance.

The rejection came on a 197-142 roll call vote that sent the measure back to the House Banking Committee.

Each crabgrass plant carries 50,000 seeds.

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower flew by helicopter from his farm at Gettysburg to Levittown for a surprise visit to a new elementary school bearing his name.

During a question and answer session with the 684 pupils and their teacher, a girl asked him what was the hardest thing he had to do as president.

"I believe the toughest thing was sending to Little Rock to make people obey the court order (integrating a high school)," he replied. "This was a very sad thing — that people could be so shortsighted."

Services Monday For Ted Collins

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP)—Funeral services will be held Monday in New York City for Ted Collins, who, by the flip of a coin, launched a lucrative career as singer Kate Smith's manager.

Collins, who also became a radio - tv personality, died Wednesday of a heart attack as Miss Smith looked on in tears. He was 64.

Collapsed in Car

Collins collapsed as the 55-year-old Miss Smith was parking her automobile while driving him to a doctor's office. He had been scheduled to undergo a routine electrocardiogram.

Collins and Miss Smith have spent summers at this Adirondack resort for 30 years, and each had a camp on Buck Island in Lake Placid. He lived in Palm Beach, Calif., in the winter.

Miss Smith, whose theme song "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain, was scheduled to appear on the Ed Sullivan television show June 14, but she canceled that Wednesday.

Collins originally wanted to be a doctor but changed his plans when his physician-father died while the son was attending Fordham University.

The younger Collins, highly interested in phonograph records, became sales manager at 23 for the Columbia Phonograph Co., in his native New York City, and soon was recording manager.

It was nine years later, in 1933, that he heard Miss Smith sing the lead in the Broadway show "Flying High," after flipping a coin to choose his night's entertainment. That led him to ask her to make some records, and he became her manager.

Burial in Valhalla

They set up a corporation called "Kated." Miss Smith was, for many years, one of the nation's highest-paid entertainers. Collins appeared with her on many television shows.

A solemn Mass of Requiem will be celebrated Monday (10 a.m.) at St. Vincent Ferrer Roman Catholic Church, New York City. Burial will be at the Gates of Heaven Cemetery in Valhalla, north of the city.

Collins leaves his widow, Mrs. Jeannette Collins of New York City, a daughter, Mrs. Adelaide Fitzgerald of Larchmont, and three grandchildren.

3 Cheat Death As Boom Falls On Dutchess Job

Three workmen narrowly escaped death at 12:45 p. m. Wednesday, when a large boom attached to a crane and a huge circuit breaker fell as they were guiding it into position at the Con Edison plant at Pleasant Valley.

South Millbrook State Police reported Richard Lynch, 28, of Peekskill, was operating a crane when the main support cable snapped. The boom and the circuit breaker crashed to the ground and apparently three workers were struck glancing blows by the equipment.

State police said the injured were, Tager Nielson, 44, of Brooklyn; Wallace Hornung, 43, of Poughkeepsie, and Boyd Brewer, 36, of Newburgh. The injured were treated at the scene and later rushed to St. Francis' Hospital, Poughkeepsie, in ambulances summoned from the Arlington and Pleasant Valley fire stations.

The injured were reported in satisfactory condition. They were admitted at the hospital for further treatment.

A trooper said, "the three men narrowly escaped fatal injuries."

Flying Garbage

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Herman Spiker blamed a railroad train when his car was hit by a flying garbage can. Patrolman R. E. Huber said the huge garbage container owned by the city had been emptied by a truck, then put down too close to the railroad tracks. A train rolled past and a freight car hit the container, sending it flying into Spiker's car.

And Now There Are Six

May 30 was designated as Memorial Day in 1868 by Gen. John A. Logan, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, to honor the memory of Union soldiers who fell in the Civil War. Eventually most of the states made it a legal holiday. And gradually Memorial Day came to be observed in memory of the warrior dead of all of America's wars and some conflicts that are, in the modern mode, "non-wars." The ranks of the Union comrades have been swelled by their successors of the Spanish War and World War I, that was to have ended all wars, only to be followed by the catastrophic World War II. And then came Korea, which they said was no war at all, but a "police action"—but war it was to the men who suffered and fought and died in it. Now, on this 96th Memorial Day, American servicemen are dying in yet another such "non-war" in a foreign clime–Viet Nam. To these, Memorial Day is dedicated, too. For their deaths are just as much sacrifices for preservation of the American creed of democracy as were those made on the field from Bull Run to Gettysburg.

Courtesy Card Plan Outlined By Library Group

A plan by which borrowers at any Ramapo Catskill Library System Library might be able to obtain a courtesy card which could be used at any area library was discussed at the May meeting of the RCLS librarians.

Although not all area local library boards have approved the action, a substantial number of the 45 Ramapo Catskill Libraries are ready and willing to make their holdings available to all those in the area to whom they would be useful.

Another feature of the meeting was the review, by the staff of the Ramapo Catskill Library System of current books. One that will be of particular interest to many in the Middletown area was "I Never Promised You a Rose Garden" by Hannah Green. This book, an important new psychiatric novel, was reviewed by David Weill, library intern with the system. It is the story of a schizophrenic girl who is hospitalized, and of her treatment while at the hospital. The title is taken from a statement made by the girl's psychiatrist as the doctor tries to encourage the young woman to participate more fully in her own treatment. The realistically optimistic trend of the book will appeal to those who are aware of the hopeful work being done in this field.

Two Killed in Collision

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP)—Two men were killed Wednesday in the collision of a truck and an automobile at an intersection on a cross-town arterial highway. The car smashed into the office of a service station.

Police said the dead were Francis Barrett, 65, and Felix Juisto, 22, both of Schenectady. They were riding in the car. The driver of the truck was not injured, police said.

Report on Earnings

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The Carrier Corp., maker of air-conditioning equipment, has reported earnings of $4,404,000 or $1.95 a share, for the six months that ended April 30.

Sales for the period, the first half of Carrier's 1964 fiscal year, totaled $152,040,000, the company said Wednesday.

For the corresponding period a year ago, Carrier reported earnings of $3,527,000, equal to $1.52 a share of common stock, and sales of $134,082,000.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"It's nice, but it's also sort of sad," said the tall, lanky fellow with thinning hair. "After 25 years as the Amazing Ballantine suddenly I'm Lester Gruber. And 95 per cent of the people don't even remember all the years on the Ed Sullivan Show."

Carl — the Amazing Ballantine — may be rueful about the recent strange shift in his career, but it is a story with a happy ending.

Over the years, Ballantine built a popular and highly profitable vaudeville act, appearing in magnificently tailored evening clothes and with all the sweeping gestures of the stage magician, but doing tricks that turned into minor disasters—rabbits refused to emerge from top hats, ladies refused to be sawed in half, the wrong card always popped out of the pack.

Then something tragic started to happen to vaudeville and Ballantine — who does not like to play night clubs—started seriously to look around.

"When McHale's Navy came up, there were only eight weeks of vaudeville a year left in this country, coast to coast. I have to work 40 weeks a year to make the money I earn on this TV show," he said.

Show business always knew him as a deft comedian who pulled laughs with fumbling magic tricks. Thus he had some acting offers, including a regular part in "Car 54" with he reluctantly turned down for the ABC Navy comedy.

"I read for the Gruber role," he recalled. "I was just one of about 40 guys looking for the part. They called me four days later to tell me I had it."

Carl plays a torpedoman with the instincts of a con man.

"It's a cinch," he said gleefully. 'I am Gruber—Gruber is me. Other actors may study a part and decide one of 30 different ways to play a character. Me I'm myself. In fact, sometimes I go to the director and tell him my lines are ones Gruber would never say. And he tells me, okay, to rewrite them."

But to Ballantine the most incredible fact is that few of the "McHale's Navy" fans ever connect him with the magician most of them have certainly seen at some time over the recent years.

Some, in fact, have informed "Gruber" how much a magician named Ballantine resembles him.

NBC has offered to underwrite—"up to $25,000" — one-third of the cost of an outside study designed to improve methods of nominating and voting in the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences annual "Emmy Awards." Incoming ATAS president, writer Rod Serling, said he would present the offer to the organization's board of trustees for action.

Rich but delicious: squares of bread toasted in hot butter in a skillet and used hot as the base for a cocktail spread.

15,500 Force Likely to Stay

U.S. Not Ending Viet Help by End of 1965

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is unlikely to admit it, but it seems apparent the plan to wind up the major part of the U.S. military effort in South Viet Nam by the end of 1965 has quietly withered away.

When officials are reminded of that plan, announced last October, they reply: "But there have been two coups in Saigon since then."

What they mean is that the effort against the Communist insurgents has been set back by confusion and disorganization stemming from two changes in the South Vietnamese government. These were the overthrow of the Diem regime by a military junta in November and the overthrow of the junta by another military group in January.

Force to Remain Same

The belief is that the 15,500 U. S. military men in South Viet Nam will not be reduced appreciably, if at all, this year, and perhaps not to any great extent next year.

New plans to double the number of Vietnamese pilots and to boost the Vietnamese ground forces by some 50,000 men will entail increased U.S. training responsibilities that will carry over at least into 1965.

Some U.S. advisers will return home as their tasks are finished—as the Vietnamese get the hang of doing certain things for themselves.

Long Struggle

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says repeatedly it will be a long, hard struggle before the Communists are overcome in Viet Nam.

The latest indication that the end-of-1965 target date has been shelved came Tuesday after McNamara testified in secret before the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D - Ga., the committee chairman, said McNamara "was not as optimistic on his timetable as he had been before."

Actually, McNamara for some time has avoided any direct answer to reporters' questions about whether the 1965 objective still holds.

Continuation Held

Some officials contend there never was a flat commitment to pull out the bulk of U.S. military men by the end of next year.

They say it was an objective predicated on the ability of the South Vietnamese to stand on their own feet and to control most of their country, and on political stability in Viet Nam.

These officials also note that the statement setting the 1965 target date specified that some U.S. trainers probably would have to stay on beyond that time.

That statement was issued by the White House on Oct. 2 after McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Talylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, reported to President John F. Kennedy on an on-the-spot check.

McNamara and Taylor had gone to Saigon at that time to assess possible damage to the anti-Communist cause growing out of repression of the Buddhists by the regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Home Extension Service News

Since Memorial Day opens the outdoor eating season, many shoppers will soon be considering the availability of meats for the charcoal grill or outdoor fireplace. The expected supplies of various choices may aid selection, says Louise M. Kakargo, assistant home demonstration agent.

Broilers are popular for outdoor barbecuing and will be in good supply and low in price this summer. While the U. S. Department of Agriculture expects the June marketing of broilers to be slightly less than a year earlier, the tender-meated birds will still be abundant and frequently on special.

Although beef steaks are usually not economy cuts, the large number of cattle on farms being fattened for market has meant that retailers have had heavy supplies of beef to sell. Consequently, beef has been repeatedly offered at reduced prices and should continue to be throughout June.

Chopped meat patties—hamburgers, lambburgers, porkburgers, and vealburgers, and frankfurters are outdoor cooking favorites that remain fairly constant in price per pound and supply throughout the year. Shoppers may want to buy a supply of chopped meats when they are offered on special. Chopped meat bought in large quantities sometimes costs less per pound than smaller package. Remember to wrap and refrigerate chopped meat carefully as it spoils more easily than chops, roasts, or steaks.

Shoppers may want to consider marinated lamb stew to broil on a skewer or lamb shanks and breasts to cook in a favorite barbecue sauce. These cuts usually remain economically priced throughout the summer.

Lamb chops and steaks are also available for outdoor meals all summer, but like broilers and beef steaks, they are in great demand during the hot weather, therefore, their price per pound traditionally rises.

This year, lamb supplies are expected to be 3 to 5 per cent lower than last year, as there are fewer sheep on the farms. A small lamp crop will likely mean a rise in the price per pound of lamb sometime late this summer, but as long as beef remains plentiful, lamb prices will probably remain low.

The price per pound of cured pork varies very little throughout the year, as curing improves storing qualities of pork thus helping to keep market supplies fairly constant. Because such cured and smoked pork cuts as ham, picnic, Boston butt, and Canadian bacon are often sold fully-cooked and boneless, shoppers may want to buy one of these cuts for easy slicing before grilling. Some butchers will also slice the meat to the thickness desired.

Fresh pork chops and steak are good barbecued, but like other chops and steaks, their price per pound rises during the summer when the demand for quick cooking cuts rises. Those who plan to grill fresh or cured pork must make sure that the meat is thoroughly cooked before it is eaten.

Many shoppers forget fish for outdoor cooking, yet fillets, steaks, or whole fish as well as shellfish are appropriate choices. Fresh fish is in its peak supply and usually lowest in price per pound during the spring and summer months. Frozen fish is usually in its lowest supply period, but may be offered at special prices to compete with the fish.

The summer should bring good local supplies of these fresh fish — bluefish, cod, striped bass, flounder, halibut, mackerel, salmon, swordfish, and whiting. Fresh shellfish in season during the summer include scallops, soft shell crabs, and lobsters.

Miss Eileen Reis Named Chairman of Membership Drive

Miss Eileen Reis, RN, head nurse at the Benedictine Hospital in Kingston, has been named local chairman of a statewide membership drive to be launched this fall by the New York State Nurses Association.

The 13,000-member NYSNA, consisting of 18 districts, is part of the 170,000-member American Nurses' Association.

More than 210 area nurses belong to the local District Association, which encompasses Ulster and Greene Counties. Miss Reis will lead a corps of some 12 volunteers in an all-out effort to recruit at least 60 more members for the district.

Initial plans for the campaign were reviewed in Albany earlier this month by representatives from the 18 NYSNA districts. At the meeting, leaders of NYSNA and ANA stressed the theme that nurses have a "professional responsibility to belong to their 3-4-1 associations."

The "3-4-1" theme refers to the district, state and national levels of ANA, and the fact that members are represented on a fourth, international, level through ANA's membership in the International Council of Nurses.

Garden Program Launched

Fifty 4-H Club boys and girls will be participating in the Sears-Roebuck Garden Program which this year consists of three Experimental Programs. Each member enrolled in the program will carry on several cultural procedures in his or her own garden.

Cultural Experiment number one is primarily for younger club members and consists of thinning experiment and use of hot caps. Each member received hot tents, tomato plants, carrots and beets to carry out the experimental plots.

Cultural Experiment number two — designed for older members with some gardening experience involves the practices of mulch using black plastic and variety comparison of tomatoes and cucumbers. Each member received two tomato and cucumber varieties and a small roll of black plastic.

Cultural Experiment number three, geared to experienced 4-H Garden members, involves two practices, starter solution for increasing plant growth rate and spray material for controlling insects. Each member received tomato and egg plants plus some spray and starter solution materials.

All members participating in this special garden project will complete a supplemental record sheet to record any differences and results in their experimental garden plots. The seeds, plants and garden materials needed in the project were provided by Sears Roebuck Company. The objective of the Sears Garden Program is to help 4-H members understand the importance of using approved varieties and undertaking cultural practices and to establish demonstration garden plots so that other garden members may become acquainted with improved vegetable varieties and practices.

WHEN FRIEND WON'T TAKE PAYMENT

Q—I telephoned a friend who lives in the city and asked her if she would buy a certain brand of cosmetics for me which I cannot get here in the suburbs, and to bring them with her when she came for the weekend. When I offered her the money, she would not accept it and said the cosmetics were a present. I feel terrible about this. Would it be proper to send her a check, or might this hurt her feelings?

A—I can understand how you feel but since she wished you to have the cosmetics as a gift and refused to accept the money from you, it would be very ungracious to send her a check.

Bride Not Wearing Bridal Clothes

Q—I am going to be married in church but will not be wearing bridal clothes. Instead I have chosen a street length dress in a pale blue with hat to match. May I carry a boquet, or would a corsage be better with a street length dress?

A—If your dress is tailored, a corsage would be more suitable but if it is a rather dressy afternoon dress, you may quite properly carry a small bouquet.

Teener Is Found Guilty in Buffalo Slaying of Man

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A teen-ager accused of the shotgun slaying of a 22-year-old man, has been found guilty of second-degree manslaughter by an Erie County Court jury.

Daniel Kwandrans, 19, of Buffalo, was found guilty last night after the jury of 11 men and a woman deliberated eight hours.

Kwandrans was tried for first-degree murder in the Nov. 17 shooting of Kenneth Knight of Buffalo.

Judge Burke I. Burke of Erie County Court, in his charge to the jury, instructed the jurors that they could not return a first-degree murder conviction, on the basis of the evidence presented.

Knight had been scheduled to enter the Army Nov. 18 and he was headed for a friend's home with several companions when he encountered Kwandrans, who was carrying a .12-gauge shotgun, police said. Kwandrans mistook Knight and his group for neighborhood vandals, a fight developed and Knight was shot, police said.

Judge Burke set sentencing for June 11.

Result Could Be Gruesome

No One in Sight at Present Comparable to Gandhi, Nehru

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mohandas Gandhi picked Jawaharlal Nehru as his political heir. But Nehru, who died Wednesday as India's only prime minister in its 17 years of independence, groomed no one to succeed him.

He was an intellectual who never learned to delegate authority. The result could be gruesome. India has 450 million people in one of the poorest and most jammed countries on earth.

Nehru, a democrat who had enough blind worship among the Indian masses to be a dictator, had sought to guide his country along the democratic path.

But not long before his death he was reported saddened by the incessant quarrels between Indians of different languages, religions and races. And there is bickering in his own strong political instrument, the Congress party.

Seventeen years of democracy —in a country where about 340 million people are illiterate — may have been too brief a time to create any real dedication to the democratic principle.

No One in Sight

In India now there is no one in sight with the stature of Gandhi or Nehru.

They not only led the fight for Indian independence before it was achieved in 1947—thus becoming symbols of it — but by the very nature of these two men their leadership was more than just political.

It was also spiritual, which is unique in the 20th century. They were selfless, with their only interests India and its people. Both had gone to school in England. Both were lawyers.

Both abandoned law to work for freedom from Britain. The British jailed them both for years. That much they had in common. There was much they didn't. Gandhi was humble. Nehru was arrogant.

It was ironic that he once described himself in an anonymous article he wrote as intolerant of other people and with contempt for the weak and inefficient.

While his leadership and vision were tremendous, and he was a miracle for India, he himself was inefficient. Example: He concentrated decisions in his own hands, was his own foreign minister. The result was called an "administrative jungle."

Gandhi put together his philosophy of civil disobedience and noneviolent resistance under the influence of many sources, including the Sermon on the Mount, Henry Thoreau, Leo Tolstoy, John Ruskin, Percy Bysshe Shelley, and India's early Jain sect which preached Ahimsa, the principle of noninjury to living things.

Not Complete Pacifist

But he was never the complete pacifist the world imagined. Louis Fischer, a Gandhi biographer, said he had a "violent nature and his subsequent Mahatma-calm was the product of long training. His mind was a battlefield on which caution constantly contended with passion."

He used nonviolence against the British in India when the British had all the power and the Indians had none. Nehru went along with Gandhi on nonviolence as a tactic to be used when useful, to be abandoned when not.

After years of preaching nonviolence among nations and abhorring war, he sent his army into Goa, a Portuguese colony in India, to take it over. He tried to stand aloof, preaching neutralism, only to be invaded by Red China. Then he armed.

Was Socialist

The influences on Nehru were different from those affecting Gandhi — liberalism, socialism, Marxism. But he was not a Communist. He was a Socialist who sought to bring his country abreast of the times through socialism.

Gandhi said of himself "I am a Christian and a Hindu and a Moslem and a Jew." Nehru was an agnostic with all that means in skepticism about religious beliefs.

But one of his greatest services to India was in seeking to make it a secular state in which the various religions, since none could dominate the government, would live together without trying to crush one another.

After Gandhi's assassination Jan. 30, 1948, just a few months after Indian independence, Nehru became the dominant figure and remained so until his death.

Perhaps Nehru's greatest contribution to his country was in being an inspiration to its people, for through that he managed to keep the country and its people glued together as he gave them a sense of direction.

And perhaps the greatest difference between him and Gandhi was in their vision of the Indian future. Gandhi looked back, distrusted mechanization, thought in terms of spinning and cottage-industries. Nehru wanted India industrialized and thought in terms of steel mills and hydroelectric dams.

The answer to his first question is shown by the bidding in the box. The answer to each other question is, "No."

Opening lead—♠ K

The first two rounds or bidding are easy. North's rebid to one no-trump shows both his no trump pattern and the minimum nature of his hand. When South jumps to three clubs as his second bid North's hand suddenll improves.

He still has the 14 high card points he opened with, but he also has a very fine fit for his partner's club suit. This doesn't justify a wild leap into the slam zone, but it does justify a bid that suggests slam possibilities.

North should now bid three spades!

This bid can't be showing a spade suit. Had North held a four card spade suit, he would have bid one spade over his partner's one heart response. Instead, it shows just what he has —hand that has improved, due to the three club bid by South.

South simply goes to four clubs He wants to make sure that North will be able to raise clubs. North does raise to five and now South goes on to six.

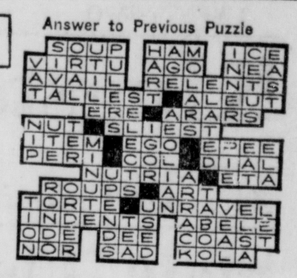

The play is not hard. He wins the spade opening, discards his other spade on a high diamond and plays ace an one heart.

13 Die in Boating Accidents in 4 Months

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The State Conservation Department reports that 13 persons died in boating accidents in New York State through the first four months of this year, compared with three deaths for the corresponding period of 1963.

Conservation Commissioner Harold G. Wilm Wednesday urged observance of "the time-honored rules of water safety."

A Person Came First

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—The gallantry of Sir Walter Raleigh, who spread his coat for a damsel to walk on, isn't dead. Mrs. Marilyn Hay, employed by a fur company, used a $300 persian lamb coat she was delivering to cover postman Raymond Holmes after he was injured in a traffic accident. "I'm afraid there's blood on this coat but he was more important," Mrs. Hay said after Holmes, a stranger to her was en route to a hospital.

Will Meet Union 29th If Picketing Stops

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (AP)—The State Thruway Authority says it is ready to meet with union representatives Friday if racial picketing ends at a maintenance shop.

Pickets of the AFL-CIO state, county and municipal employes union have demonstrated since Monday to protest what they call discrimination against hiring Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

The authority denied any discrimination. It said Wednesday in Albany it agreed to a meeting Friday, as requested by the union, if pickets were removed.

A scuffle broke out Wednesday when a parcel truck went through the picket line and the driver was pushed and shoved when he alighted. No charges were placed.

Dear Abby . . .

You Were Wrong!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday I received a telephone call from a girl asking me to her prom. I had not even seen this girl in FOUR years, and to tell you the truth, it is not long enough. I never liked her because she was loud and forward, and besides, she used to stare at me in eighth grade, which gave my friends plenty to kid me about. I told her I couldn't take her to the prom because I had to work that night, which was true. After I hung up my mother asked me who the girl was. I told her in a nice way that it was none of her business, which it wasn't Do you see anything wrong with that?

GROUNDED

DEAR GROUNDED: Yes. There is no "nice" way to tell one's mother that something is none of her business. Even if it isn't.

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: I myself would not inform a teacher when others are cheating. Any teacher who cares about what goes on in her classroom can catch cheaters with little effort. Cheating in school is dishonest, of course, but it is not to be compared with robbery, assault or murder. When one witnesses harm or violence done to another, he has a moral obligation to report the offender immediately. When one cheats in an examination, he is only cheating himself and damaging his own character and reputation. If he attempts to cash in on his ill-gotten marks, he will only prove to others that his fine record was not earned because he will not know his subject. Don't back down, Abby; I think you were right.

"FORTY-ONE YEARS ON THE BENCH"

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: I do not believe that very young children should "tattle" on one another for the slightest little thing. But when a student sees another student cheating during an examination, I think it is his duty to inform the teacher. Today the classrooms are so crowded, especially in the colleges and universities, we are told that students may get away with cheating, unnoticed. How would YOU like to lie down on an operating table and entrust your life to a surgeon who had cheated his way through medical school?

Kingston Scores 6-3 Decision Over Our Lady of Lourdes

At Trout, Unlimited Meeting

State Fish Expert Discusses Policy Formulae in Stocking

Fundamental considerations and many other facets of scientific fish stocking were explained to members of the Catskill Mountain Chapter of Trout Unlimited by Kenneth F. Wich, Regional Fish Manager, Region 8, of the New York State Conservation Department.

In a highly informative slide lecture discussion at Kahil's Rainbow Lodge, Wich told the chapter members that factors involved include: species suitability, stream carrying capacity, fishing pressures, studies of the natural fingerling production, abundance of non-trout present, conditions of the stream's banks, foliage and rocks and its natural facilities to support fish life.

If a stream is found to contain half the number of fish it can support, Wich said, the term half-bucket is used and half again as many trout are added by stocking to bring the amount [illegible] capacity, or the total amount of trout the stream can adequately support.

Rainbow Habits

With respect to the Esopus stream, the conservation department holds to the theory that when rainbows reach the size of 8 or 9 inches they begin to drop back to the reservoir and from then on come up the Esopus predominately during the spring spawning run, Wich said. He added that browns are used for stocking during the summer months in order to provide continuous trout fishing in this stream throughout the fishing season, as they have been found to adapt more readily to the natural conditions of the stream.

Wich emphasized that the legislature and not the conservation department sets the limit and size of fish that may be taken from any stream. He also noted that fishing license fees and funds obtained through fishing violations are used for research and stocking, but any part of this money can be diverted to the use of another department whenever considered feasible. The state will not stock on posted lands unless they are open to public fishing.

In order to have a "fish-for-fun" or a "fly-fishing-only" stretch, the landowners along the streams must be contacted, and if they are agreeable, the suggestion is presented to the conservation department, Wich said. If the department thinks it is a suitable solution for all concerned, permission will be granted and remains in effect only for the period of time they set. When this time period elapses, the same procedure must be repeated if it is wished to continue using these sections of the streams for "fish-for-fun" or "fly-fishing-only."

Queried about stream pollution problems, Wich said that this is a matter for action by the Board of Health and not the conservation department.

Reviews Program

Reviewing the state stocking program, Wich noted that it was instituted in 1926. From 1926 to 1939, a water survey was taken the result of which constituted the so-called Embody Tables, used from 1926 to 1950. In 1940, after the survey was completed and found to be unsatisfactory it was followed closely by fingerling stocking. From 1950 to 1958 new tables were devised known as the Dr. Green Tables, instituting stocking policy that had to be equitable, impersonal, consis-

[illegible] fishing

FISHING EXPERTS: Kenneth F. Wich, left, and his assistant, Chris Chrystie, addressed the meeting of the Catskill Mountain Chapter of Trout Unlimited at Kahil's Rainbow Lodge. Wich is Regional Fish Manager, Region 8, of the State Conservation Department. Chrystie is an assistant.

scientist and former assistant executive director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission was also a guest at the meeting. Local visitors included Ray Smith, famed fly-tyer and licensed state hunting and fishing guide, who has spent years fighting to save trout fishing and trout waters and expended untold effort in trying to perpetuate the mortality of the area trout world.

Onteora Postpones Big '50' Regular Card Slated Friday

Onteora Speedway officials announced today that they are postponing the special Spring 50-Lap Championship race until a later date.

This was due in order to allow more time for those owners who are readying new cars this season to qualify. The new date will be announced shortly. Track conditions last week were not satisfactory to director Larry Shurter and the crew is working around the clock to overcome the difficulties.

The usual Friday night card will be run as scheduled tomorrow night. Drivers who register at the Big "O" between now and the date of the 50-lap special will be qualified to compete.

Oppose Parkway

The federation voted to oppose construction of a parkway by the National Park Services along the top of the Shawangunk and Kittatinny mountains.

A committee was appointed to mobilize active opposition against the proposed parkway. Members of the committee are: Joe Philips, Highland; Walt Bartsch, Gardiner; Robert DuBois, New Paltz; Lloyd Greer, Walker Valley. Art Sperl of Saugerties will serve as the committee chairman.

The federation voted to hold its annual banquet at the Wittenberg Sportsmen Club clubhouse on Saturday, June 13. Frank Kruse, RFD 3, Box 8, Kingston, is chairman of ticket reservations.

Trail Sweepers Honor Juniors

Junior members of the Kingston Trail Sweepers Ski Club were awarded cups in recognition of outstanding progress during the past ski season, at the annual banquet of the club at the Capri Restaurant. Nearly 140 persons attended. Mickey Edwards was toastmaster.

The chairmen of the Junior Program Committee, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Goffredi received a one-year honorary membership to the club in appreciation for their efforts with the club junior members.

Heppner Wins With Relief Help From Fisher

Coach Al Gruner rewarded most of the regulars with a well deserved afternoon off but Kingston High's reserves proved too much for the Warriors from Our Lady of Lourdes and the locals won a 6-3 non-league verdict yesterday at Dietz Stadium.

In capturing their 11th decision in 14 outings, the DUSO leaders piled up five runs in the first three innings and then stopped a couple of threats by the visitors.

Ken Heppner chalked up his first varsity triumph but had to have some top notch relieving by Vince Fisher. Heppner left with a 5-3 margin and the bases loaded in the fourth. Fisher got out of the scrape and stopped a Warrior bases loaded situation in the seventh.

Gets Three Hits

Jack Schatzel clouted three of the KHS 10 safeties, getting a double and two singles. Shortstop Bob Chilson had two hits, one a neatly executed suicide squeeze bunt.

The locals will conclude their regular season next Tuesday against Lourdes at the Hudson River State Hospital diamond in Poughkeepsie.

If Port Jervis beats Poughkeepsie today in the DUSO league, then the KHS nine will oppose Port next Thursday at Ellenville in a playoff for the DUSO title.

Hank Harder Pitches Perfect Game in NLL, Fans 13 Batters

Hank Harder pitched the first known perfect game in the history of the National Little league as the Cubs walloped the Pirates, 13-0.

While the Cubs played errorless ball behind their chucker, he fanned 13 and didn't issue a walk. The other five putouts were made on two popups to the infield, a pair of ground balls to the pitcher and another to the second baseman.

The winners climaxed the evening with nine runs in the fifth inning. Dan Vogt and Wayne Mencil doubled to pace a nine-hit attack.

Gene Hofbauer was the loser but the only chance he had was to be a perfect chucker like his opponent.

Giannotti Wins 100 Yard Dash In Section One

Richie Giannotti of Saugerties captured the Section One 100 yard dash for Class B schools Tuesday at Pehlam with a winning effort of 10.1 seconds.

The football and track star was third in the 220, being timed in 23.4 seconds.

Both Giannotti and Schirmer will be in White Plains on Saturday to compete in the open meet.

Oregon to Stay With Rocky if He Retains Vote

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention in July says Oregon's delegates will stay with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as long as he gets 35 per cent of the votes in early balloting.

Rockefeller won Oregon's primary election. The state has 18 votes in the convention.

Hatfield told a news conference Wednesday that if Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona wins the California primary next Tuesday, "he will be nominated (for president) on the first ballot."

If Rockefeller wins in California, Hatfield said, "it will set up a wide - open convention" with potential strength for Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

DuBois Is Named To Banking Post

NEW PALTZ—Henry W. DuBois, associated with the Huguenot National Bank of New Paltz for over 35 years, has been named as assistant vice president of the State of New York National Bank, according to an announcement recently by A. Raymond Atkins, president of the bank.

Mr. DuBois is presently serving the most recent of several terms as mayor of the Village of New Paltz. He is also treasurer of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Also named as assistant vice president was Robert B. Murray who until recently had been an assistant cashier of the New Paltz Bank. Mr. Murray is a resident of Kingston, where he serves as director of the Kingston YMCA and the local Red Cross Chapter.

Allen E. Lawton of the bank staff has been made assistant cashier. Mr. Lawton serves the community as a board member of the Central School District No. 1 of New Paltz, as treasurer of the Board of Cooperative Educational Services of Ulster County and is a deacon of the local Dutch Reformed Church.

"The sounnd and rapid growth of the Bank," President Atkins noted, "has made necessary the enlarged scope and expanded duties of these capable men. The bank is proud of the caliber of the men and women associated with this area bank and welcomes the occasion to provide them with the opportunities to grow in stature with the bank and our community. We believe that thus we can be of greater service to our many patrons."

June 20th Is Opening Date For Local Park

The board of trustees of the Mike Moriello Park of New Paltz, have announced the park will open officially Saturday, June 20.

The family fee has been raised this year, but, any family paying dues before June 15 may still have membership for the lower fee.

The weekend of June 6 will be devoted to work at the pool, for such things as repairs, painting, and other items needed doing to get the park in shape for the opening.

As New Paltz has gained population so rapidly in the past few years, the present pool has become inadequate, and the park board is considering going to the public to get their reaction on construction another pool, primarily for diving purposes. The tentative cost for this venture would be approximately $65,000, and to finance such a venture would be quite a problem. Except for a small mortgage and a $11,000 bond issue used recently to pay for a new filter system, this project has been on a pay-as-you-go basis.

The waterfront director this year will be Robert Truitt of Millbrook at a fee of $1,500 for the season.

The board hopes that on the weekend of June 6, as many men and women as possible will turn out to get the park in shape for the opening.

Tickets are available at the office of the high school, Bomze and Van Vlack, Carroll's and Jewett's Dairy Bar.

Rocky Is Denied Talk at Loyola, Goes to Monterey

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller sought to pick up the tempo of his presidential primary campaign today after losing his second Southern California audience of the week by a last-minute cancellation.

He carried the same message into Northern California that he drummed out in a three-day swing through the state's populous south in his battle against Senator Barry Goldwater in next Tuesday's election.

No Place to Go

The New York governor, in a speech prepared for a Monterey rally, reiterated major issues on which he said Goldwater differed with his and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's concept of "responsible Republicanism."

Rockefeller, who has wasted few hours in his windup of the important California contest for 86 Republican delegates, suddenly found himself with no place to go in Los Angeles Wednesday night.

He refrained from comment, but his aides were "shocked" by the decision of Loyola University overseers to call off his scheduled talk to students of the Jesuit institution.

There were different views of what was behind it.

Blames Barry Backer

A Rockefeller campaign official privately blamed an influential Loyola trustee who is a Goldwater supporter. The Los Angeles Times said the college had received numerous calls protesting Rockefeller's appearance because of his divorce and remarriage.

A Loyola spokesman said the action was taken to avoid any implication that the invitation by Dr. Stanley Chan, head of the political science department, could be interpreted as endorsing Rockefeller's candidacy.

The Rockefeller organization had a little more notice last weekend, when the Long Beach Elks Club got orders from its national leaders to cancel an invitation to Rockefeller there Monday night. No specific reason was announced.

The Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, June 4. The board will convene in executive session from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m., when the open meeting will be held.

The 1964-65 tentative budget totals $7,334,254, an increase of $540,804 over the 1963-64 tentative budget of $6,793,450.

The tentative tax levy is listed at $3,679,331, an increase of $400,426 over the 1963-64 tax levy of $3,278,905.

During his baseball career, Babe Ruth earned $1,091,477.

Within a one-day drive for 70 million Americans, a great new tract for enthusiasts of the outdoors life is taking shape in the southwestern corner of Kentucky and northern Tennessee. It is known as the Land Between the Lakes National Recreation Area. • A five-year development program already has been started by the Tennessee Valley Authority. Limited accommodations are available this year. • The area embraces 170,000 acres of virtually virgin territory—a peninsula 38 miles long and eight miles wide. It lies between 185-mile-long Kentucky Lake and the now-almost-completed 118-mile-long Barkley Lake (see Newsmap, left). At the northern end of the tract a canal will connect both lakes for the benefit of far-ranging boatmen and fishermen. • Scattered along the more than 300 miles of shoreline of both lakes will be areas for water sports, fishing, hunting; family, group and primitive camping sites; tent and trailer parks and picnic groves. Hotels and restaurants are barred from the tract but will fringe the area. • For nature lovers the strip abounds in all forms of wildlife and migratory waterfowl in a large acreage game refuge. • Land Between the Lakes is just an easy day's drive (500 miles) for 70 million people and a half-day's motor trip (200 miles) for 10 million. (Outer circle on Newsmap, right, shows 500-mile radius; inner circle is 200-mile radius from the new outdoors park.)

Souvanna Seeks Ammunition for His Russian Arms

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Laotian Premier Souvanna Phouma has asked the Soviet Union to provide his embattled neutralist forces with ammunition for their Russian arms.

Souvanna made the request in a letter to Soviet Ambassador Sergei Affanassiev.

"Ammunition for arms supplied by the Soviet government, notably for 85mm guns, is becoming very short because of several encounters which have taken place recently between neutralist forces and (Communist) Pathet Lao forces," Souvanna said.

Souvanna added his government "would like very much to receive sufficient quantities of ammunition to be able to face situation."

Souvanna also asked the Soviet government to repair Russian gift transport planes which are now inoperative. The premier asked the Russians to repair the planes about a year ago but got no answer.

Russian arms and ammunition were provided to the neutralists in 1961 when they were allies of the Pathet Lao and were fighting together against the right-wing Laotian army.

The Soviet Union is currently withholding aid from all Laotian factions including the Pathet Lao who are under the influence of the Communist North Vietnamese and Chinese.

However, Moscow has supported the Pathet Lao viewpoint in the propaganda side of the Laotian crisis. Diplomatic sources say the Soviets don't want to give the Communist Chinese the opportunity to accuse Moscow of abandoning a "revolutionary movement."

Souvanna said previously he would ask military and economic aid from all countries to defend his country from Pathet Lao and North Vietnamese aggression.

So far, it seems only the United States has responded favorably to his request.

Estranged Wife Accepts, Shoots Husband to Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Apparently infuriated at being unable to get into his estranged wife's apartment, a city fireman pounded on the door early today and shouted at her, "shoot if you want!" A shotgun blast rang out and killed him, police reported.

The ceremony will be held on the lawn of the American Legion property at 1 p. m. following the parade which is scheduled to start at 12 noon, Saturday, May 30.

The parade which starts at noon from the intersection of Orchard Lane and Tinker Street will feature several units, bands from Saugerties and Catskill and the Onteora High School marching band under the direction of Harry Simon, musical director of the Onteora Central school system.

The parade will halt at the Village Green where the annual memorial services will be conducted. Monsignor Austin V. Carey, pastor of St. John's Roman Catholic parish, will give the benediction and Mrs. Mort Moseman, president of the American Legion Ladies Auxiliary, will place a wreath at the Village Green war memorial

After brief ceremonies the parade will march to Woodstock cemetery where the Rev. Norman C. Krapf, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, Woodstock, will offer prayers for the departed veterans of all our wars. The American Legion firing squad will fire a volley and taps will be sounded by a member of the Onteora band.

Styles Grand Marshal

Alan Styles, a past commander of Woodstock Post, will be the parade marshal, and Wayne Underhill, also a past commander, will serve as Officer of the Day.

Past Commander George Rowland will be sergeant-at-arms for the firing squad which also includes: Lynn Covert, Max Hoffmann, Jack Hung, Lester Avery, Earl Paul, Joe Straub, Donald Adams, Steve Bodnar and Mort Moseman.

Elements in the parade will include the American Legion contingent, all four Woodstock township fire companies, Town Board officials, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Woodstock service organizations. Invitations have been extended to the Chamber of Commerce, the Jaycees and other groups to participate.

Charles J. Tiano, chairman of the Legion's President Kennedy Memorial Committee, announced that two pink and two white dogwood trees will be planted on the lawn of the Legion property. The dogwood was one of the late president's favorite trees, he said. Commander Vlock will unveil the tablet and the Rev. James W. Cook, minister of Overlook Methodist Church in Woodstock will offer a prayer.

All Woodstock residents and other interested persons are invited to the unveiling and the traditional American Legion open house following the ceremony.

Two Big Firsts For Daniel Klein

DANIEL KLEIN

When Performing Arts of Woodstock presents its initial production this weekend, local playright Daniel Klein will enjoy two firsts: the premiere of his one-act play, "The Audience" and his first local appearance as an actor.

Klein will have one of the leading roles in his own play, along with John LeFever, former Kingston resident; Robert Denning and Diana Munch. LeFever is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd LeFever of Kingston.

A Harvard graduate in philosophy, Klein now teaches at the Onteora High school and is continuing work toward an MA in philosophy from the New School Graduate Faculty. Though comparatively youthful, Klein has spent time traveling in Europe and did social work in Harlem prior to moving to Woodstock. He is anxious to go into filmmaking in the near future.

The Author's Philosophy

About "The Audience" which will be given two performances (May 29-30) in Woodstock, Klein had this to say:" I keep wondering how seriously I should take 'The Audience.' Hopefully, the audience shall wonder, too; they might even wonder how seriously to take themselves. I hope every one who comes has a good time."

"The Audience" will be given as the second half of a double bill of one-act dramas at the Guild Gallery, Tinker Street, Woodstock, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p. m. Also on the program will be Edna St. Vincent Millay's verse play, "Aria da Capo," with a cast that includes Gloria Criscimagna, Jim Williams, John Le Fever, Lloyd Gibson and George Armstrong. All are Woodstock residents with the exception of Armstrong, a Kingston bartender, in his first dramatic role.

Tickets will be available at the door of the Guild Gallery up to curtain time each night.

Coddington; Jeanne Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goddard; Janet Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris; Jeffrey May, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verner May; Andrea Neher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andre Neher; Brian and Craig Van Valkenburgh, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Van Valkenburgh; Sharon Wolven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolven; Brian and Craig Van Valkenburgh received adult baptism at this same service of commitment.

Muller's Repeat Dance for P-TA

Anyone who missed Pat and Harrison Muller's sensational dance performance at Onteora recently will have the opportunity to see a repeat performance — plus.

On Friday evening, June 5, at the Woodstock school, the Mullers will present a sort of "informal education of the dance," from a demonstration of ballet-bar exercises through a delightful ballet number by the beginner, from 5 years old up, to a group jazz number by the older girls.

High points of the evening will be a solo by Pat Muller to a Bartok piece, played live by Frank Mele and Albert Wray, and a dance interpretation of a Paganini concerto.

Direction and narration (and it's his own special kind of narration) are by Harrison Muller. Tickets may be purchased at the door or by mail from Mrs. Donna Mazzola, Woodstock. The entire proceeds will go to the Woodstock P-TA for its work with the youth of the community.

For Newcombe Candidacy

Kingston, New York

Editor, The Freeman:

The prudent use of our ballot is almost as important as the right to vote. This year, for the first time in several decades, Republicans in our Senatorial District are permitted a choice of candidate for State Senator.

What differentiates these two men. The incumbent, we are told gives our district a man who has seniority and experience. His opponent while a newcomer to party politics has a splendid record of active involvement in bettering his community.

Let's look further. Of 33 Republican State Senators, 75% have seniority greater than or equal to that of Senator Bush. Of his experience one has to wonder. Supposedly the Senator introduced 85 pieces of legislation at the past session of the legislature. This causes me to ask, how could an experienced legislator fail to get positive action on some part of his legislation, or conversely were these proposals so bad that they met with total rejection by the Senate?

Lloyd Newcombe has served three terms on the Catskill Board of Education, was twice president of the Catskill Chamber of Commerce, served on the Greene County Hospital board and was founder, first president and a moving force in the Greene County Development Corporation. All community activities to be sure, but what is a Senatorial district but a group of communities

Lloyd Newcombe is one of those rare people who has actively involved himself in the seeking of solutions to the problems of his community. He should be given a chance to do likewise for the 34th State Senatorial District.

The Republican party in Ulster, Delaware, Sullivan and Greene County need look no further than Dutchess County to observe the consequences of constantly offering the voters the same old diet candidates who go to Albany for a few weeks each year and come home with a well-rested, well-fed look. (In 1963, for the first time in 50 years the Republicans lost their majority on the Dutchess County Board of Supervisors.)

The 34th District needs a representative in the State Senate who knows of the problems of its citizenry, has the energy to advance its cause, and the gumption to fight for attention to the needs of this area. An area which has constantly contributed to the strength of New York's Republican party, and can again, with the nomination of Lloyd Newcombe.

Editor, The Freeman:

Now as we ride joyful through the beautiful country roads and enjoy God's wonderful nature, and the green colors are very restful to your eyes, we will notice with disgust as we ride the cans, containers, bottles and refuse spilled along the roads. This is a despicable sight. If you must ride through the country, take along a trash bag in your car and bring it home to dispose of it in the proper way. If you have accumulated refuse at home, don't dump it over the road ledges, which only spreads disease and brings rodents. Take the time to bring it to the designated dump of your town.

Our club wishes to remind all auto travelers to please follow the above good instructions and let us all cooperate with a good spirit. It is up to you, the public, to keep our country roads clean.

Thank you,

Advice for Safe Swimming Given By Red Cross Unit

With Memorial Day fast approaching, followed by little boys in bathing trunks, here's good advice from some people with 50 years' experience in the water safety field:

Learn to swim. If you can swim, learn to swim better.

The advice comes from the American Red Cross, which this year celebrates a half-century of teaching and preaching safety in, on, and around the water.

"Despite 50 years of progress in the field and an intensive education program, the best defense against becoming a drowning statistic still is knowing how to swim," says Gerhard Klemm, local Red Cross Safety Services chairman.

Thanks to the work of the Red Cross and other safety-conscious organizations, millions of Americans have learned to swim since Commodore Wilbert E. Longfellow launched his "Waterproof America" crusade in 1914. The founder of the Red Cross water safety program, who died in 1947, built his campaign on the slogan, "Every American a swimmer — every swimmer a lifesaver."

Statistics prove the worth of the Commodore's words. In the past 50 years the drowning rate has been cut virtually in half — from 7.7 to 3.4 per hundred thousand population — despite the fact that as many people use the water today as were represented by the total population of the nation in 1914.

Klemm recognizes the record is a good one, "but it is not good enough." He is deeply concerned over predictions that out of the 100 million Americans who will take to the water this year 6,400 will drown.

"Virtually all these drowning accidents can be avoided," he points out. One good way to avoid becoming a 1964 drowning victim is to follow the "10 Red Cross rules to water safety."

Learn to swim. If you can swim, learn to swim better.

Always swim with a buddy, never alone.

Swim where there are lifeguards on duty.

Recognize your limitations. Your endurance is not as great now as it will be at the end of the summer in the water.

Don't depend on inflated tires, tubes, and other flotation devices to keep you safe if you can't swim.

For distance swimming in open water, take along a companion in a boat.

Don't swim immediately after eating, when overtired, or when over-heated.

Stay away from under diving boards when you are in the water.

Stay out of water during electrical storms.

Before diving, check to see if water is deep enough and make sure it contains no hidden objects.

Through its network of chapters reaching across the United States, the Red Cross this summer will again conduct literally thousands of swimming classes to add to the already impressive roster of more than 25 million persons who have obtained free Red Cross certified training in swimming, lifesaving, and boating safety. For further information, contact your Ulster County Red Cross Chapter at 308 Clinton Avenue, Kingston.

Board Planning Further Study on New Ordinance

Further study is needed on the proposed peddler's ordinance and another public hearing will probably be held, Supervisor Abram F. Molyneaux announced at this week's Woodstock town board meeting.

A public hearing was held on the ordinance several days ago but the supervisor said that no action was planned at last night's meeting. He acknowledged the existence of an omnibus ordinance covering peddling and soliciting, dated 1934, but said the board had serious doubts about the constitutionality of the present ordinance.

The supervisor said the board had some reservations about several parts of the proposed new ordinance. One major proposed change from the 1934 ordinance is the lowering of the peddler's license fee from $25.00 to $2.00. This proposal is opposed by the Woodstock Township Chamber of Commerce and the Woodstock Democratic Club.

In answer to questions by Peter W. Rakov, president of the Democratic Club the supervisor stated that several legal opinions supported the board's doubts about the constitutionality of the present document. He said changes in interpretations through the years by the courts has cast large doubts on its constitutionality.

Locals Not Exempt

In replying to other recommendations made in a letter by the Democratic Club, the supervisor said local solicitors and peddlers, if any, could not be exempted from provisions of the ordinance. He said the ordinance would have the same force and effect as any other law and would apply to all persons.

The Democratic Club letter also proposed that the $25.00 license fee now in effect be strictly enforced. It also suggested that all town ordinances now in effect be published in booklet form and updated every two years and be made available to the public. Supervisor Molyneaux said copies of all ordinances now in effect in the town are available on request at town hall and may be inspected at any time.

The supervisor did not indicate when the next hearing on the peddler's ordinance would be held.

'Last Full Measure' Topic for Methodists

The sermon topic for the 11 a. m. worship service on Sunday at the Overlook Methodist Church, the Rev. James W. Cook, minister, will be "The Last Full Measure." A nursery will be provided. Sunday school for the primary and adults is held at 9:45 a. m., while the classes for beginners and kindergarten is at 10:45 a. m.

Rehearsal for the Senior choir will be held on Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. Mr. Cook will assist in the Memorial Day service on Saturday at the Woodstock cemetery and at the dedication of the John F. Kennedy Memorial on the American Legion grounds.

Major Campaign Is Planned by Local Democrats

The Woodstock Democratic Club has authorized its president, Peter W. Rakov, to negotiate a five-months lease for a building to be used for general meeting purposes and the 1964 county, state and national election campaign headquarters.

The Democrats plan the most intensive local campaign for the three tickets in the history of the club. Peter W. Grad has been named campaign chairman. A district-by-district organization is now being set up.

Annual rummage sale of the club has been postponed to a date to be announced later.

The club adopted a resolution in favor of retaining the $25.00 fee in the proposed peddler's ordinance. It also instructed the president to contact the Woodstock town board and recommend that it publish in concise form all the public ordinances now on the town books. The printed booklet would be made available to the public for ready checking and information.

The club voted a cash donation to the Woodstock Youth Center teenagers committee which is conducting an art drawing this weekend at the Kleinert Gallery.

Alerted to Primary

Club members were alerted to the June 2 primary contest for Ulster County Democratic state committee woman. All enrolled Democrats in the township will be reminded of the date by a mailing planned for the club. Voting will be from 1 noon to 9 p. m. at the regular polling centers: District 1, town hall; District 2, Bearsville lodge hall; District 3, Zena firehouse.

The Woodstock Democratic Town Committee has endorsed Mrs. Dorothy Narel as its choice for state committee woman in the June 2 primary. Mrs. Narel, society editor of The Daily Freeman, was the choice of the Democratic county convention.

Women's League Elects Officers

The Woodstock League of Women Voters has announced the officers and members of the Board of Directors for the coming year.

"The Study and Evaluation of a Zoning Ordinance for the Town of Woodstock" and "Study and Evaluation of Recreational Needs for the Township With Continuing Support of Adequate Laws, Agencies and Facilities for the Youth of Woodstock" will be the two new local study items for the coming year.

A report on the national convention will be presented at the general membership meeting at Deanie's on Wednesday, June 3, at 8 p. m. Members and interested guests are invited to attend.

Scout Troop 62 Explores Island

Exploring an island which was reached by an Indian war canoe was the experience enjoyed by Boy Scout Troop 62 of Lake Hill Tuesday evening.

The troop, sponsored by Woodstock Fire Company No. 3, left Catskill Tuesday evening with Scoutmaster Arthur Smith and Asistant Scoutmaster Douglas Eighmey in charge. Members of the troop committee were also in attendance.

The Indian war canoe was 34 feet long and five feet wide, and there were 21 persons aboard when the prow of the canoe headed out the Catskill creek toward the Hudson river.

The destination was the island in the river located at the Rip Van Winkle Bridge. Some "exploring" of this island was accomplished in the tradition of the "days of yore."

Scoutmaster Smith reports that the scouts and adults "really enjoyed themselves on this trip, and they learned something too."

The trip was planned by the scoutmaster and the troop committee as part of the activities of the Boy Scout troop serving the Willow-Lake Hill-Shady areas.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The outdoor eating season gets under way this Memorial Day weekend with an abundance of cook-out meats being featured in supermarkets and neighborhood stores.

The traditional barbecue choices—steaks and broilers — are in the spotlight on meat market counters.

Due to the large number of cattle on farms being fattened for market, retailers have heavy supplies of beef to sell and prices have been reduced.

Broilers will be in good supply and lower in price this summer.

Turkeys and hams are popular with the outdoor cook. Also available will be chopped meat patties — hamburgers, lamburgers, Porkburgers and vealburgers—and frankfurters.

There's lots of variety at produce counters and the supplies of fruits are increasing.

Best buys include asparagus, broccoli, celery, sweet corn, green onions, lettuce, potatoes, spinach, squash and tomatoes.

A sure sign of spring is the abundance of watermelons. Shoppers will also find bananas, lemons, oranges, rhubarb and strawberries.

YMCA Day Camp Is Open to All On Memorial Day

YMCA Day Camp at Shokan will be open to all families in the Ulster County area with full facilities including swimming and picnicking on Saturday, Memorial Day, Y secretary Louis H. Schafer said today.

The camp director and a supervising life guard will be at camp to receive the people from 12 noon until 8 p. m. A new women's and girl's dressing pavilion has been constructed this year, similar to the one built last season for men and boys. Both pavilions are conveniently located near the beach.

The boat piers are in place and the life lines in the shallow area are in place for the kiddies protection. The sand beach will be most tempting for the sun bathers.

The YMCA Camp site is most ideally and beautifully located at the foot of Ticetonyk Mountain on Bostock Mountain Road in Shokan. It consists of 35 acres including two bodies of water, the larger one is especially maintained for swimming. The shallow area for non-swimmers is well supplied with sand and there are no drop off spots in the entire shallow area. The flooring or bottom of the lake is very smooth making swimming less hazardous. There are mountain trails for people that desire hiking and the view from Ticetonyk Mountain across five miles of woodland to the New York City Reservoir is most beautiful, Schafer said.

There are ample fireplaces as well as picnic tables in shaded areas in the woods or along the lake front. The large pavilion, known as the "Lou, Schafer Lodge", has many games including shuffle board, ping pong and other table games and picnic tables.

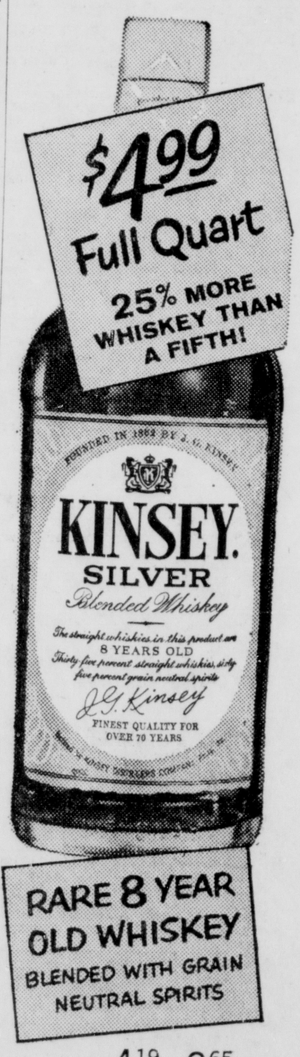

Schafer and Leon Van Heusen, camp director, as well as the YMCA Board of Directors invite parents and their families to take advantage of this one day opportunity to use camp for their days picnic and swimming and see for themselves just what the YMCA has to offer for the boys and girls during the hot summer months. In the event of inclement weather, the free swimming and picnic day will be held on Sunday.

Those interested may phone the YMCA for information concerning the weekend, and ask about the Day Camp program for boys and girls between the ages of 5½ to 14 years of age. Day Camp opens Monday, June 29 and operates five days a week for eight weeks. Families can use camp every evening and Saturday and Sunday until Labor Day by making application at the YMCA, 507 Broadway.

To get to the Y camp. Take Route 28 at the Albany Avenue circle and drive 15 miles to Bostock Mountain Road in Shokan. Turn right and follow the camp signs.

Primary Day Vital

Party Enrollment Helps Choice of Good Candidates

City chairmen of the two major political parties stresses this week the importance of voters affiliating themselves with a particular party and criticized the "independent" voters who in turn critize the parties' choice of candidates .

Howard C. St. John and James T. McCardle, city chairmen of the Republican and Democratic parties, respectively, were participants in a Practical Politics Panel discussion sponsored Monday night by the League of Women Voters of Kingston. Dr. Dale B. Lake, president of the Ulster County Community College, was moderator.

Means of Survival

St. John emphasized that primary day "more than anything else," points out the importance of political parties in allowing people to select candidates. He stressed the fact that the only people who can vote in a primary are those who have "the integrity" to enroll in a party. At one time it was considered degrading to belong to a party, St. John said, but now it is realized as the "right, moral, social and ethical" thing to do.

McCardle expressed his annoyance with those persons who constantly ask, "Why can't you get stronger candidates?" He said these questioners were invariably from independent voters who do not participate in primaries. Dictatorships that have lasted, he said, were in those countries where political parties did not get the active support of the people. Democracy can only survive, he said, if people at the grass roots level help by aligning themselves with a party and work for its survival.

Must Desire to Run

The panelists agreed in a question-and-answer session following their discussion, that a candidate's sincere desire to run for political office was of major importance, and cited the difficulty they faced in finding people willing to run for office. They also agreed that the goals of the respective parties were the same but that the differences between them were in the methods of achieving the goals.

St. John said that primaries should be "used as a tool of reform," but that primaries for "everything" would weaken the party and create "schisms" at election time. McCardle disagreed. He said he felt that primaries give the individual a choice of slate and protect enrolled party members from the creation of a party machine.

Mrs. Renee Sachs introduced the moderator and panelists.

Report Teeners Missing Today

State Police teletype alarms were sent out today reporting two teenagers missing from their homes in this area.

Sergeant Henry S. Rhodes said Michael John Coats, 15, was reported missed from his New Paltz home since about 10 a. m. Wednesday. The teletype alarm describes the boy as five feet, seven inches tall, weighing about 150 pounds. He has blue eyes and brown hair.

Troopers said the boy may be driving a 1961 blue convertible owned by his mother. They said the boy reportedly took clothing and bedding when he left. Troopers reported the boy was seen in the Rifton area late last night.

Sergeant Rhodes also said 15-year-old Ann Jacobson was reported missing from her home in Rifton since late Wednesday night. She is described as five feet tall, weighing about 120 pounds. She has brown hair and eyes, and when last seen was wearing a white skirt and white sweater.

Troopers asked area residents to notify Kingston State Police, if they should see, or know the whereabouts of either of the missing teenagers.

Man Flees Restaurant

Kingston State Police today searched the Woodstock area for a man, who reportedly was surprised in the act of rifling an employe's pocketbook in the kitchen of Bill's Restaurant, according to Sergeant Henry S. Rhodes. Senior BCI Investigator Edward Shannon and Trooper John Kohland investigated, after a woman employe reported the incident. Troopers said the man fled from the restaurant, and only a vague description was available. The complaint was received after 9:30 a. m.

Charges Made

gates petition are the same as those that were on a petition filed two years ago on behalf of Assemblyman Wilson, and the town chairman said it appears that those names were used on the petition for the Goldwater delegates and alternates.

ROBERT L. MISNER

He received a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Union College.

Misner and his wife Lucille reside on DeWitt Mills Road, Kingston.

Training Program

American Legion Boys' State is a citizenship training program designed to meet the needs of the American youth. Boys' State training inculcates individual responsibility to the community, state and nation. The "Learn by Doing" concept is employed on the theory that good citizenship is only in part a matter of knowledge, intellect and understanding. Boys' State has been aptly described as a laboratory of practical political science.

The training program inspires and instills a deep sense of responsibility and obligation in the youth by educating them in the principles of Democracy and by teaching them the duties, privileges and rights of American citizenship.

There will be about 1000 boys in attendance at this year's Boys' State, from all parts of the Empire State. The program provides the boys in attendance with a taste of collegiate life.

Program...

feet north of the Malden Turnpike four corners.

On March 31, The Freeman published an outline of the proposal, and a map showing the exact location was published June 2.

Only One Here Now

The state operates only one other recreation park area in the county, at Woodland Valley, a rather limited facility.

Supervisor Peter M. Williams, who is also chairman of Ulster County Board of Supervisors, has for several years been advocating establishment of a state-operated recreation area for Ulster County and particularly Saugerties. Supervisor Williams was principally involved in early negotiations in securing the properties at the Malden site.

The site has been under study for the past two years and presents opportunities for development of facilities for swimming, boating, campsites, picnic and possibly a marina in a natural cove adjacent to the site.

On April 5, Sen. Bush, Assemblyman Wilson and Supervisor Williams inspected the beach and at that time both legislators said they were impressed by the natural beach and potential of the site.

Goldwater...

sent the U.S. Marines to turn on the water for Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba when the Castro regime shut it off.

"Had I been the commanding officer of the base, I probably would have taken that action. I believe in protecting the American people first, and then worry about what happens afterward," he said.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved irregularly higher early this afternoon despite sharp profit taking in some drugs. Trading was moderate.

Steels pursued their own rally for the third straight session as they were fueled by glowing predictions for output and profits this year.

Throughout the list as a whole, most gains and losses of key stocks were kept within range of about a point.

Drugs and some of the higher-priced, more volatile issues moved more widely.

Selective gains among motors, chemicals and rails helped the averages.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 at 305.7 with industrials up .2, rails up .4 and utilities off .1.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 2.17 at 820.11.

Parke, Davis, which rose 2⅝ Wednesday as the most active drug, was delayed in opening due to selling pressure. Its first trade was on 15,000 shares, down 1⅛ at 29½, then it pared the loss a bit.

Texas Gulf Sulphur was in steady demand and added a fraction.

IBM rose more than 2 and U.S. Smelting over 3.

Fractional gains predominated among rails.

NEW FLAG RAISED AT VFW—Joyce-Schirick Post 1386, VFW, receives a new 50-star flag which was flown over the U. S. Capitol at Washington, D. C. from the Ladies Auxiliary of the Post at a formal presentation recently. Mrs. Thomas Hughes, President of the Auxiliary, looks on as Mrs. Robert I. Davis, Patriotic Instructor, makes the presentation to Gilbert C. Williams, Commander of Post 1386 and Vice Commander Garold R. Rowe. Both the Post Color Guard and the Auxiliary Color Guard took part in the event held at the Post Home, Delaware Avenue.

St. John Urges Primary Voting, Supports Bush

Republican City Chairman Howard C. St. John today urged all enrolled Republicans in the City of Kingston to exercise their privilege of voting in next Tuesday's primary contest, and asked for their support of Dr. E. Ogden Bush, the regular Republican candidate for the nomination as State Senator.

"During the eight years Senator Bush has served in the upper house of the State Legislature," St. John said, "he has compiled a record which speaks for itself in dedication to the interests of his constituents, and in his ability to produce valuable and needed legislation for our Senatorial District.

"He is known in Albany as a legislator's legislator," St. John noted, "which accounts for his rapid rise to a position of leadership on many important committees based on the affection and respect of his fellow Senators.

"And, in his relationship with the people of his district," St. John continued, "he is known to be a warm, understanding man, who speaks in the language of plain talk. Anyone who has ever sought his assistance in Albany will tell you that Senator Bush is both interested in the needs of his people, and effective in helping to solve their problems," he added.

"It seems to me," St. John concluded, "that we Republicans are fortunate to have a man such as him willing to serve us another two years, and I personally hope my fellow Republicans will express their appreciation by overwhelmingly supporting his bid for renomination as the Republican candidate for the State Senate next Tuesday."

Assault Case Is Sent to Family Court by Judge

A third-degree assault charge case involving a Chambers Street man was ordered transferred today in City Court to Family Court.

Raymond Girard Jr., 21, of 24 Chambers Street was charged by his sister, Roberta Ann Girard, 17, of 56 Van Buren Street, with the assult. Judge Joseph D. Saccoman on Monday ordered a three-day adjournment to determine whether the matter should be referred to Family Court.

Meanwhile, police picked up Miss Girard Wednesday night on a warrant charging her with being a wayward minor. She was turned over to the Sheriff's Department for her appearance later today before County Judge Raymond J. Mino.

Slate-Voting Is

state attorney general, said that slate-voting provided "a simple method for finding the candidates you want to vote for."

Levy's attorney, Seymour B. Walzer, said slate-voting was "designed to prejudice an individual candidate and it's accomplishing that very effectively."

The slate-voting measure was in the spotlight in the 1964 legislative session during controversy over revision of the state's liquor laws.

Reports circulated that Gov. Rockefeller's office had made a deal with Rep. Charles A. Buckley, veteran Democratic leader of the Bronx, Buckley was said to want the slate-voting bill to bolster his chances in a primary fight. Buckley reportedly instructed Bronx legislators to vote for the liquor bills in return for Rockefeller approval of slate-voting.

Two Killed

long line of shiny automobiles carried government chiefs, diplomats and soldiers from around the world in the procession.

The huge crowds broke through the police lines many times, halting the vehicles behind the gun carriage.

Spectators Take to Trees

Trees along the route were filled with spectators. Many tumbled to the ground when overloaded branches gave way.

Scores of women and children fainted under the scorching sun. Some were trampled.

"Nehru! Nehru!" thousands screamed, drowning out the funeral drums.

Although Nehru was an agnostic, the ritual of Hinduism—the majority religion of India—was to be followed strictly.

Nehru's grandson, Sanjaya Gandhi, 17, was to light the pyre near the spot where Mohandas K. Gandhi, Nehru's leader in years of campaigning for independence from Britain, was cremated after a Hindu fanatic assassinated him in January 1948.

Dignitaries Arrive

Premiers and foreign ministers, diplomats and military chiefs headed for New Delhi within hours after they received the word that Nehru had died Wednesday of a heart attack.

British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and Admiral of the Fleet Earl Mountbatten, representing Queen Elizabeth II, were among the first to arrive at New Delhi.

Other early arrivals were Soviet First Deputy Premier Alexei Kosygin and Mrs. Sirimavo Bandaranaike, prime minister of Ceylon.

As expressions of regret poured in from around the world Nehru's body lay in state on the front porch of the prime minister's residence.

Weeping mourners flocked to the residence, and by dawn police estimated that 400,000 had passed the bier.

As they passed the body, most mourners folded their hands at the chest in prayerful gesture. The wealthy threw elaborate floral wreaths at Nehru's feet, the poor tossed petals.

The body lay on a polished teakwood table guarded by tall, bearded Sikh soldiers and sailors.

Chou Sends Condolences

Amid the messages of condolence came one from Communist China, which defeated India in a brief, undeclared border war in 1962. Premier Chou En-lai's message cited the bonds of friendship between the people of India and China, despite differences between the nations.

Amid the speculation about Nehru's ultimate successor, most observers believed acting Prime Minister Nanda would be replaced soon after official mourning for Nehru ends on June 8.

Nanda, 63, the Home Minister, was sworn in as Nehru's interim successor Wednesday because he was the senior member of the Cabinet. The rest of the Cabinet agreed to stay in office as a caretaker government.

Nehru, who had served as one of India's leaders for four decades and its only prime minister since independence in 1947, made no provision for a successor to govern India's 470 million people.

Shastri Favorite

The matter will be settled only when the ruling Congress party picks a man to succeed Nehru. The man it chooses will be asked by President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan to form a government.

The favorite in most political speculation is the minister without portfolio, Lal Bahadur Shastri, Nehru's closest political confidant who had served as deputy prime minister in effect since Nehru suffered a stroke last January.

Judy Garland Out Of Danger, Still On Critical List

NEW YORK (AP) — American Broadcasting Co. correspondent Stanley Rich reported in a broadcast from Hong Kong today that singer Judy Garland had been rushed to a Hong Kong hospital unconscious and in a critical condition.

Rich said oxygen was administered to Miss Garland and that doctors worked over her for two hours after her arrival at the hospital.

She was reported out of danger afterward but still on the critical list, Rich said.

The nature of Miss Garland's trouble was not given.

Rich reported, however, that Miss Garland is said to be terrified of storms and that she was stricken in her hotel room as a typhoon raged outside with 90 m.p.h. winds.

Miss Garland was winding up a singing tour. She had told Rich the day before that it had been "miserable."

Rich said the singer had been taken to Canossa Hospital by Mark Herron, an actor. Rich quoted Herron as saying that Miss Garland went to the hospital "for a rest." However, Rich said, she was clearly unconscious when she was taken there.

Living Costs Inch Up Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs inched up one-tenth of one per cent in April, the Labor Department reported today.

But the Bureau of Labor Statistics said price increases so far this year were lower than in the previous two years and indicated "a very stable price situation."

The April rise took the consumer price index to 107.8 meaning it took $10.78 to purchase items that cost $10 in the 1957-59 period, base years for the index.

Recreation, rent, and medical costs were largely responsible for the April increase. Food prices remained steady on the average.

After Husband Retires, Should Wife Work?

Q) "My husband must retire next spring. He will get $500 a month pension on his present income of over $10,000. I earn almost $6,000 and would get only $150 a month if I retired. Since we are used to such a large income, do you advise me to retire or keep working?" — J. C.

A) I feel deeply honored that you would approach me on a very personal matter.

I am occasionally asked this sort of question by my clients and my answer is this. If your husband will not be lonely in retirement and will not feel relegated to a second-class position as part housekeeper, I would go on working while you feel able to do so.

A drop in current income from $16,000 to $7,800 is hard to adjust to, but you will ultimately have to accept this. Try gradually to alter your standard of living so that the transition will not be so difficult when it must be made.

Q) "I am one of the unfortunate stockholders of Penick & Ford and at present have more than a 7-point loss. I am most interested in hearing from you as to the possible prospects for the company in the years ahead." — W. D.

A) I wish that I could give you some encouragement, but I'm afraid that I cannot.

Pennick & Ford is a high-grade company and one of the biggest corn processors, but its earnings vary on the cost of its raw material. After resting on a plateau for several years, net per share. The stock sells to yield 4.6 per cent. Since corn prices remain high, I see little prospect of a turnaround in Penick.

In the corn group I like only Corn Products, which does half its business in consumer goods.

If capital enhancement is your objective, I believe you should switch to General Telephone.

Messinger Speaks At ARC National Convention in N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. Walker of Glenford have returned from New York City where they represented the Ulster County Chapter of the American Red Cross at the national convention which was held from May 17 through May 20.

A native Kingstonian, Lt. General Edwin J. Messinger, addressed the delegates attending the services to the armed forces luncheon at the New York Hilton Hotel May 19. Lt. Gen. Messinger, deputy commanding general, U. S. Continental Army Command, is a West Point graduate and was star end on the Army football teams in the late 1920's. He has held many important military posts, was highly decorated for his combat service in World War 2 and in the Korean Conflict. Prior to his present post, Gen. Messinger was Director of Military Assistance Affairs for the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and later Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Washington, D. C.

Gen. Messinger told the convention delegates that the armed might and industrial potential of the United States rests on a broad base of individual and collective dedication such as reflected by Red Cross volunteers.

"Our ability to convince the Communists of our sincerity of purpose will continue, Gen. Messinger said, "only as long as our unity as a people is based upon public service in building the strongest possible society." Red Cross delegates were told that they "can do the biggest job in convincing others to devote something of their lives to the lives of others, and to the life of the nation."

Views on Wool Incentive Price Asked by June 8

Wool producers are being asked to make recommendations on the incentive price level for shorn wool for the 1965 marketing year, Joseph Sauer, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today. The recommendations are requested by Monday, June 8.

The chairman explained that the incentive level for shorn wool for the 1965 marketing year will be announced this summer so that growers may know the level when they are shaping up their herds for next year's production. The marketing year for wool now runs on a calendar-year basis.

The incentive price level has been 62 cents per pound since the beginning of the wool payment program, and the Department of Agricultural is considering the continuance of the present incentive price level for shorn wool again next year.

Mr. Sauer pointed out that the 1965 marketing year will be the last year covered by the National Wool Act of 1954, as amended. The original 4-year act has been extended twice. The National Wool Act provides that the support price shall be at a level necessary to encourage an annual production of about 300 million pounds of shorn wool. Appropriations to operate the program and the total amount of payments are limited to a portion of the duties collected on imports of wool and wool manufactures.

U. S. production of shorn wool declined from the peak in recent years of 265 million pounds in 1960 to 238 million pounds in 1963. Factors contributing to the decline included the discouragingly low prices for lambs in 1960 and 1961, competition for range, and production problems such as rising costs.

Views on the shorn wool incentive price level should be submitted by June 8 to the Director, Policy and Program Appraisal Division, ASCS, USDA, Washington, D. C. 20250.

Contain Jersey Waterfront Fire

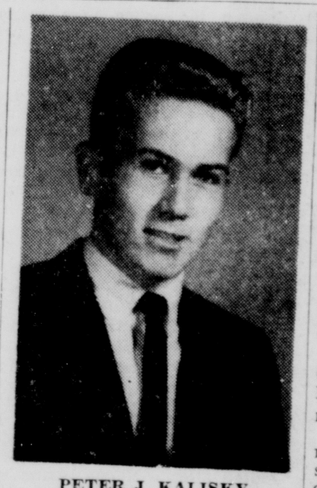

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—A wind-whipped fire destroyed a quarter of a mile of Hudson River waterfront on Wednesday night but appeared to be contained today, police said.

Much debris was still aflame, but the fire was "pretty well knocked down," police Lt. Edward Carroll said.

"So much debris is burning that they'll be picking it apart for a good 24 hours," Carroll said.

While the fire roared out of control it destroyed five 500-foot piers, a huge unused coal trestle and five floating bridges.

Fire broke out today on the waterfront at Portsmouth, Va., and heavily damaged three old piers, and two vessels before it was brought under control.

Doctors Restore Woman's Hand in 5-Hour Operation

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—By medical definition Jessie S. Bray's right hand was detached from her arm in a milling machine accident, but she is on her way to regaining almost complete use of it.

The hand was sewed back in an operation which her surgeon, Dr. Hugh Williams, called "almost an unbelievable success."

Dr. Williams headed a three-man surgical team which restored the hand May 16 in an operation at Community Hospital which took almost five hours. Hospital officials said Wednesday that Mrs. Bray, 39, is almost ready for intensive therapy to regain use of the hand.

The lock company employe's hand hung by an inch of skin and two tendons after the accident. The surgeons stitched together eight tendons, three major nerves and two major blood vessels.

"I woke up afterwards and thought they hadn't done a thing," Mrs. Bray, said. "Then I saw I could move my fingers—nobody in the hospital would believe that until they had all seen it for themselves."

Denies Exile Plane Took Off From Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (ap)—The 30th of November Movement, an anti-Castro organization, took issue with Rep. Paul G. Rogers, D-Fla., who told the House on Wednesday he understood one of its planes flew from south Florida to Cuba early this week.

"The plane did not take off from the United States, but from a secret place in the Caribbean," said Jose Feijoo, 30th of November chief information officer.

Rogers called for a congressional investigation of what he said appeared to be "an inexcusable gap in the U.S. air defense system." He told the House he was informed the plane escaped radar detection by flying at 100 feet.

A Cuban refugee, who said he took part in the mission, has offered to testify at a congressional hearing that the plane took off from Florida providing he is given immunity and the hearing is private.

Rogers said he would try to arrange a hearing.

The exile identified himself by his war name, Manuel Fernandez, and would not give his real name. The 30th of November group said they have a commando named Manuel Fernandez.

In Washington, a Defense Department spokesman said: "We have no information on such a flight. There is no information to verify an allegation that an aircraft flew as alleged." He said the department will investigate.

A 30th of November communique said a plane dropped supplies to guerrillas and propaganda leaflets in eastern Cuba Monday.

Board Regrets Retirement of 17-Year Fireman

A veteran of 17 years of Fire Department service will retire from the department on a disability retirement, effective June 5, it was announced today.

Fire Chief James M. Brett said that the Board of Fire Commissioners has approved with regret the application of Fireman Francis T. Coughlin, of 23 Wilson Avenue, to the New York State Board for Service Connected Disability Retirement.

FRANCIS T. COUGHLIN

Fireman Coughlin, who has been serving as a dispatcher at Central Fire Station, suffered from extensive back trouble.

Coughlin was appointed a fireman on March 1, 1947. He served as secretary of Local 461, Kingston Uniformed Fire Fighters, and as a trustee in the Fourth District, New York State Fire Fighters Conference. He will be 42 years old June 2.

Praised by Chief

Chief Brett cited Coughlin for the "unstinted and valorous devotion to duty that you have displayed through the years." In a letter of resolution to Coughlin, the Board of Commissioners said in part in approving the fire fighter's application for retirement: "His duty was often rendered under the most hazardous conditions, these perilous conditions resulted in a severe injury which brought about his untimely retirement . . . The Board extends its sincere appreciation for a job well done on behalf of a grateful citizenry . . . and extends its best wishes for a happy and healthful retirement for years to come."

The resolution was signed Fire Board members Edward Dasher, president; C. John Bechtold and Henry E. Boice, commissioners, and Chief Brett, secretary. They approved the resolution at the regular meeting of the Board Tuesday night, Chief Brett said.

Two Killed in Stampede During Rites for Nehru

Says Reds Could Take SE Asia

Matter of Great Concern: Bundy

LONDON (AP)—Asst. Secretary of State William P. Bundy said today there is a real danger of a Communist takeover in Southeast Asia.

As Bundy flew in from Washington for London talks on the Asian crisis, the British government rejected a Soviet charge that U.S. reconnaissance flights over Laos violated Laotian neutrality. The Soviet note to Britain warned that the U.S. flights could aggravate the situation throughout Southeast Asia.

Bundy, assistant secretary for Far Eastern affairs, told newsmen the threat of a Communist takeover "is a matter we all have been watching with great concern."

Asked how stability and neutrality for Laos could be achieved without force, he replied, "That is a very difficult question to answer and it is one of the things we must talk about."

Bundy was meeting with Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler for the first of several days of talks on Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

The British Foreign Office, in a sharp rebuke of the Russians, dismissed the Soviet note on the U.S. flights as "purely propagandistic" and said it "totally misrepresents the true position in Laos."

The Soviet note said the United States was "embarking on this dangerous road of an open violation of the Geneva agreements" and "assumes grave responsibility for all consequences following from this."

The Russians also accused the United States of trying to involve the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization in "its dangerous plans for Laos."

The Soviet Union urged Britain to endorse the note for distribution to the United States and other participants in the 14-nation Geneva conference of 1962 which guaranteed Laotian neutrality. Russia and Britain are cochairmen.

"They can never have expected us to agree" to distribute the note, the Foreign Office said.

British officials consider the flights justified because the Communist Pathet Lao forces refused to allow inspection of their military strongpoints by the International Control Commission established by the Geneva agreement.

Laotian Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma asked the United States to undertake the flights.

In a dispatch from Washington, the Soviet news agency Tass accused the United States of "harboring plans for new military actions in Southeast Asia, which hold nothing in store but scandalous failures."

From Laos came a report that right-wing troops were on the move in the Mekong River area about 90 miles northeast of Vientiane and had regained some territory from the Pathet Lao near the town of Muong Huong.

Body Is Committed To Flames

CremationFollows Long Procession

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's body was committed to the flames of a funeral pyre today in an ancient Hindu ceremony watched by hundreds of thousands of mourners on the banks of the sacred Jumna River.

Ending an era, Nehru's 17-year - old grandson Sanjaya Gandhi touched a torch to the huge pile of sandalwood on which the prime minister's body lay.

Beat Back Crowds

Police had to beat back crowds with clubs when the gun carriage bearing Nehru's body approached the cremation site after a funeral procession through the city. Thousands of shuffling feet sent up a dust cloud that obscured even the towering walls of the nearby Red Fort.

Military officers lifted Nehru's body to their shoulders, walked along a freshly laid carpet of red earth spread to the pyre and then up seven steps to the sandalwood resting place.

Frenzied mourners shouted "Nehru! Nehru!"

Even before the procession started from the prime minister's official residence, a stampede among the crowd outside killed two persons and injured six.

Mourners Delay Carriage

The gun carriage was halted repeatedly by the vast throng of mourners. Foreign statesmen and dignitaries riding in cars behind were prevented from following closely.

Uncounted hundreds of thousands jammed the city shouting, crying and throwing flower petals at the body wrapped in India's tricolored flag and lying atop the gun carriage.

The crowd was so thick and the procession so chaotic that U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who arrived from Washington after the funeral march started, could not join the procession. He spent two hours at Palam Airport while aides tried to arrange a helicopter airlift to the cremation site.

Acting Prime Minister G. L. Nanda, with tears in his eyes, placed a floral wreath on the body as it was lifted from the porch of the prime minister's residence to a flower-bedecked gun carriage.

Many Pay Homage

The body had lain in state on the porch through the night as hundreds of thousands of sorrowing Indians passed in mournful homage.

To the beat of muffled drums, an honor guard of Indian soldiers and sailors accompanied Nehru's bier as six horses slowly drew it along the six-mile route to the Hindu funeral pyre at the Rajghat, the Pyre of Kings, on the banks of the holy Jumna River.

Sorrowing Indians jammed the line of march.

Jail Is Reinforced After Labor Threat

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP)—Tension gripped this little southern Michigan city today following a night of strike violence and demonstrators' threats at a jail holding arrested pickets.

Sixty state policemen and sheriff's deputies of neighboring counties came to the aid of Hillsdale's seven-man police force in the emergency.

A crowd of 300 persons had massed at the Hillsdale County Jail. Some demonstrators threw rocks, breaking jail windows.

Angered by Arrests

The trouble began about 7 p.m. with the march of demonstrators to the jail from the strike scene at Essex Wire Corp.

The crowd was angered by the arrest of three persons, one of them a striker's wife. The demonstrators stoned the jail in protest and police began waving their nightsticks to restore order.

After about two hours, the crowd had become generally peaceful.

Mayor C. Aubrey Paul called the City Council into an emergency meeting. City Attorney Harvey W. Moes said the council decided on "a course of action to be taken in this strike." He declined to elaborate, saying that for "good reasons" the council would delay its announcement until later in the day.

Started Feb. 28

The violence-marked strike at Essex, a major industry in this city of 7,629, has been going on since Feb. 28. It became exactly three months old today.

The Hillsdale Local of the International Union of Electrical Workers pulled out its 180 plant workers in a dispute over terms of a first contract with the company.

A chief issue has been the Hillsdale local's demand for wage parity with the Indiana workers.

Essex has said that the average hourly wage at the Hillsdale plant, about $2.43, is from 40 to 60 cents below the average wages paid the employes in the Fort Wayne plant.

A plant guard was shot and wounded Tuesday night, another guard was clubbed with a baseball bat, and a union picket was slashed.

Trouble broke out Wednesday night when a carload of guards leaving the factory was intercepted. Rocks were thrown.

Slate-Voting Is In No Violation, State Court Rules

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The Court of Appeals holds there is nothing unconstitutional about the state law permitting slate-voting.

Slate-voting allows the names of allied candidates to appear on the ballot in groupings.

The state's highest court, acting Wednesday on an appeal by a Brooklyn man, issued no opinion of its own. It did, however, unanimously affirm lower-court decisions holding the statute valid.

Basis for Challenge

The law had been challenged on the ground that it favored party organization candidates over unaffiliated candidates and thus denied the latter equal protection of the law.

Alan C. Levy, an insurgent candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 13th District, in Brooklyn, brought the challenge.

The court reviewed his arguments and those of the State Law Department, which defended the statute, and gave a prompt decision because of the limited time remaining before next Tuesday's state primary.

Listed by Size

Under the statute, the slates are listed in order of size—the largest groups first, down to the names of individuals.

The position of slates of the same size is determined by lot.

Legion Slates Boys' State Fete June 18

The 18the annual testimonial reeeption and dinner for 10 Ulster County selectees to American Legion Boys' State at Colgate University this year will be held Thursday, June 18 at 6:30 p. m. in Broglio's Restaurant, West Park.

The event each year is sponsored by Ulster County American Legion, according to P. J. Beichert, county Boys' State chairman. The dinner session serves as an informal get-together of the candidates and their sponsors, representing the various county Legion posts and guests.

Mothers Invited

An innovation this year will be the open invitation to all posts to invite the mothers of the boy selectees. Prior to this the annual event had been strictly stag.

In previous years many posts had invited the father of the selectee to the dinner. A majority vote of the Boys' State Committee this year extended the privilege to the post to invite the mothers of the boys.

The 10 selectees, one sponsored by each post in the county will spend the week of June 21-27 at Colgate University, Hamilton. The Ulster County contingent with boys from Dutchess and Orange Counties will again travel to Hamilton by chartered bus.

Cunningham Lists How Bush Helped, Reason for Award

Mal Cunningham, past president and honorary life member of the Hudson Valley Homebuilders and treasurer of the New York State Homebuilders Association, today refuted a statement made by Nelson Burhans which appeared Wednesday in The Freeman relative to the award the Association made to State Senator E. Ogden Bush.

The award was presented to Senator Bush Tuesday. Cunningham said, for his favorable voting record in connection with bills affecting the Homebuilders Association throughout the state of New York .

Cunningham said that Senator Bush voted favorably for the Condominium Bill which permits those who build five or more units, to sell the units off as individual houses. He also

Purchase agreements for lands at Malden-on-Hudson this week, at Wittenberg last week, and a 90-acre donation of Hudson River waterfront property will be part of a multimillion dollar State Conservation Department project to provide two state-operated compsite and recreation areas for Ulster County.

The State Conservation Department has been allocated in excess of $2,000,000 for the recreation facility at Malden which covers about 121 acres, including a 22-acre natural beach on the river.

Initial Steps Taken

State Sen. E. Ogden Bush and Ulster County Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson announced they have been advised that the initial steps toward acquiring the necessary lands have been taken by the Conservation Department.

Both Albany legislators have been influential in securing the location of these two recreation areas in the county.

Sen. Bush in an announcement today said a 90-acre parcel of land including 2,800 feet of frontage on the Hudson River will be given to the state by Terry Staples of Malden-on-Hudson. This is part of the Malden brickyard property located about two miles north of the Village of Saugerties on the west bank of the river.

"This is a tremendous gift to the people of the state and Ulster County residents in particular," Sen. Bush said. "Mr. Staples' generosity in providing this highly desirable river front property will help meet the growing recreational needs of our people, now, and in the future," the senator said.

Signed May 20

On May 20 a purchase agreement was signed for the first section of land in the proposed 500-acres Wittenberg State Park in the Town of Woodstock. The agreement covers a 52-acre tract owned by Mrs. Noelle Gilmore of Mt. Tremper and signed under the State's Park and Recreation Land Acquistion Bond Act program. Funds for both projects are made available through the $100,000,000 bond issue for expansion of the state's recreation facilities passed by state voters a few years ago.

The purchase agreement at Malden-on-Hudson includes a 100-foot strip for a two-lane access road from Route 9W to the proposed recreation area and beach site on the river.

The agreement is with Mrs. Florence Whitehead of Malden-on-Hudson. The wide apron entrance will be opposite the Berzal mushroom plant about 2,000

Girl Is Injured As Car Upsets On State Thurway

State police early this afternoon were investigating a one-car accident which occurred on the state Thruway near mile post 82 about nine miles south of Kingston.

A spokesman for Fatum's Ambulance Service said a call was received at 11:56 a. m. from Thruway authorities requesting a physician, plasma and an ambulance to remove an injured girl to a hospital.

An ambulance crew went to Kingston Hospital where they picked up Dr. Philip Goldman who happened to be in the emergency room at the time and a quantity of plasma and then sped to the scene of the accident.

En route to the hospital Dr. Goldman administered plasma to the girl whose name was not available at Freeman press time. According to incomplete reports the girl was a passenger in a car which apparently went out of control and overturned.

Goldwater, Rockefeller Step Up Pace for Primary

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, bolstered by neutrality pledges from Richard M. Nixon and Gov. William W. Scranton, wades deeper into the presidential primary battle today as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, fortified with support from Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge's son, steps up the pace.

Rockefeller planned today to visit Monterey—where Goldwater had been Tuesday — for a round of appearances before continuing north to Santa Cruz, Santa Clara and San Francisco.

Goldwater also planned to move northward, visiting Santa Barbara—where Rockefeller had been Tuesday—to mend any political fences the New Yorker may have toppled.

Goldwater revealed the neutrality statements he'd received from the former vice president and the Pennsylvania governor Wednesday. An aide said the Arizona senator had wired the undeclared Republican contenders earlier in the week, saying they had been represented here as aligned with his opponents.

Both Nixon and Scranton replied they are not out to stop either Rockefeller or Goldwater in the primary election next Tuesday.

There was, conversely, no such statement from Lodge. His son, George, appeared at a news conference early Wednesday to urge Lodge supporters to vote for Rockefeller, saying it was "the surest way to endorse Lodge in California."

Young Lodge said nomination of Goldwater by the GOP "would most likely set the party in decline from which it would atrophy."

The son of the ambassador to South Viet Nam said he believes Rockefeller, more closely than Goldwater, represents the views of "forward-looking" Republicanism enunciated Monday by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Earlier, Goldwater had declared that he is "the only serious candidate" in the California presidential primary and that he hates to think of what would happen to the dollar if Rockefeller became president.

Goldwater also said he'd have

DEMOLISH OLD CEMENT KILNS—The New York State Public Works Department is demolishing 14 old cement kilns on the Rosendale-Creek Locks Road at LeFevre Falls and using the material to widen Route 213 along Rondout Creek between Kingston and Eddyville. The kilns, property of the State Conservation Department, each approximately 15 feet by 40 feet, were considered dangerous to persons visiting the area. Already 2,500 yards of material have been used. In 1895 when the Rosendale Cement industry was in its heyday, the mill was one of over a dozen thriving plants and was operated by the late Thomas Miller interests as the New York Lime and Cement Company. The old brick mill in front of the kilns has been removed. The only cement company still in operation in the area is Century Cement Company at Lawrenceville which has a capacity of 6,500 barrels per day. The Andrew J. Snyder interests, (Century Cement Company,) was the first cement development in the Rosendale area, dating back to 1830, and has always, like the Miller interests, remained one of the Independents, never being acquired by the Consolidated Rosendale Cement Company which took over much of the industry in the latter days of operation. Charges Made That Gardiner Petitions For Goldwater Had Forged Delegates

Charges that a petition allegedly circulated in the Town of Gardiner and filed in Albany on behalf of Barry Goldwater delegates to the Republican National Convention appeared to contain forged signatures, have been made by GOP leaders in that township.

Justice of the Peace Warren McDowell, chairman of the Town of Gardiner Republican Committee, told The Freeman Wednesday afternoon that the matter will be referred immediately to the "proper authorities" for investigation.

Judge McDowell said the petition contained 20 names including several persons he referred to as "the backbone of the Republican party in our town." McDowell said 12 of the persons whose names are on the petition have been contacted and each insists he did not sign the petition and can offer proof to back up their denial.

"We are going to find out who perpetrated this trick," the town GOP chairman said. He contended that two of the persons listed on the petition have not been residents of the Town of Gardiner for more than two years, and one person listed returned to Germany more than two years ago.

Judge McDowell stated that the petition probably will be submitted with a complaint to the office of the state attorney general and the state police for investigation. He noted that no action on the complaint can be expected before Primary Day on Tuesday, June 2, but the complaint definitely will be made in the immediate future.

Chairman McDowell said the matter first came to the attention of the Town Republican Committee recently, after the County Republican Committee leaders learned the petition had been filed in Albany. McDowell said the County Committee asked the reason for the Goldwater delegate petition.

The petition, McDowell said, is for Kent Leavitt, Dutchess county, and Lewis Irwin Hall, West Hurley, as delegates to the Republican National Convention, and on behalf of Alice O. Lafko and Archie C. Lebrecht, as alternates.

The regular endorsed GOP delegates from this area are Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, Ulster County, and Myrtle Tinklepaugh, Columbia County, as delegates to the convention, and Roy C. Ketcham, Dutchess, and Neal Brandow, Greene County, as alternates.

McDowell said the name of Robert L. Lacouette, a town of Gardiner Republican committeeman, is on the disputed Goldwater delegate petition, as a witness. The town GOP chairman contended that Lacouette insists he did not sign the petition, and that he and other committee members will be complainants in contemplated action at the conclusion of an investigation.

McDowell emphasized in comments to a reporter that the Town GOP Committee "definitely will push the investigation" in an effort to learn the identity of persons responsible for the petition, which Judge McDowell said was filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

According to McDowell the names on the Goldwater dele-

Stress Benefits In Asking Funds For Flood Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army Engineers underlined flood control benefits of Kinzua Dam on the Allegheny River near Warren, Pa., in asking a House Appropriations subcommittee to approve $27 million for construction of the project in the fiscal year starting July 1.

"The Allegheny River reservoir project. . .is a key unit in the reservoir system for the protection of the Allegheny Valley. The metropolitan area of Pittsburgh and the upper Ohio Valley," the engineers said in a statement filed with the subcommittee.

"The project will provide a substantial degree of flood protection for these extensively developed and heavily populated areas. . .

"It will protect Warren, Pa., against the maximum flood of record, and in conjunction with the existing Tionesia Reservoir, will practically eliminate Allegheny River floods at Oil City and Franklin, Pa."

The statement, made public by the subcommittee Wednesday in releasing the record of closed hearings a few weeks ago, called attention to a decrease of $2 million in the estimated cost of the project. The estimate is now $107 million instead of $109 million.

The reservoir, when filled, will extend to near Salamaca, N.Y.

Wiltwyck Cemetery Marks 108th Year of Service

Wiltwyck Rural Cemetery Association of Kingston is observing its 108th year of service to the community area.

Organized in 1856

The association was organized March 20, 1856 when a meeting of the citizens of Kingston was held at Browns Hotel, "in the village of Kingston" for the purpose of forming a cemetery association under the act of the legislature of the state adopted April 27, 1847. At that meeting was J. S. Smith, William B. Finch, Abijah Smith, William Lounsberry, E. P. Dederick, J. V. N. Walhiago, William D. Hill, S. A. Bostwick and L. J. Smith. J. S. Smith was chairman of the meeting and William D. Hill, secretary.

Named directors at the organization meeting and elected to terms of office by lot were Edwin W. Budington, Henry H. Reynolds and John D. L. Montanye for the one year term; Augustus Schoonmaker Jr., Joseph S. Smith and Peter Elmendorf Cole for two-year term and William Hays, William Hendricks and Abijah Smith for the three-year term.

At that time the annual meeting was set for the first Monday of April, a designation which has since been observed.

Has Original Minutes

In the possession of Oscar J. Lawatsch, secretary - treasurer, are the minutes of the original meeting written in the hand of William D. Hill who served as secretary of the organizational meeting.

Since the first meeting of the original trustees the annual meeting has been held in the month of April, usually on the second or third Monday of the month.

Since the organization of the Association 108 years ago a large tract of land has been acquired and presently the cemetery grounds consist of approximately 80 acres extending from the West Shore Railroad tracks across West O'Reilly Street and joining the Montrepose Cemetery grounds on the south. Last year the Association purchased over 1,600 yards of clear fill and laid out a beautiful new burial section among the trees on the O'Reilly Street side of the cemetery where plots are now available.

Meeting Honors Three

This year the annual meeting was held at the Kirkland Hotel in honor of Adelbert H. Chambers, who has served as president of the Association for 20 years; John Ferguson, who has been with the cemetery association for 36 years and has served for 20 years as its superintendent; A. B. Shufeldt, who has been a trustee and member of the committee on Superintendents for 20 years. Charles de la Vergne, Cloyd Elias and Ward Tongue were elected trustees for a three year term to succeed themselves.

A. Raymond Atkins, who serves as chairman of the finance committee and James H. Betts have been trustees since 1943. Oscar J. Lawatsch, who serves as treasurer, and Henry Forst have been with the Association since 1946. Charles de la Vergne has served as trustee since 1940 and served as secretary and treasurer for many years.

Superintendent John Ferguson, succeeded the late Henry Downs who was superintendent of the cemetery for over 50 years.

Other Officers

Serving with President Chambers as officers are James H. Betts, vice-president; Oscar J. Lawatsch, secretary - treasurer and A. Raymond Atkins, chairman of the finance committee.

Oscar J. Lawatsch, secretary-treasurer, citing a passage from Gladstone, "Show me the manner in which a nation or country cares for its dead and I will measure with mathematic exactness the tender sympathies of the people, their respect for the laws of the land and their devotion to high ideals" and said it was the aim of the Association at all times to live up to that standard."

The Aleutian earthquake of 1946 produced 55-foot-high waves on the shores of the Hawaiian Islands where some 150 lives were lost.

Siena Student Is Killed, Two Hurt While Walking

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A Siena College student was killed and two others were injured—one critically — early today when struck by a truck as they walked on Route 9, near the college campus, in suburban Loudonville.

The dead youth was identified as Julius Rubsam, 18, of Peekskill.

Reported in critical condition at Albany Medical Center Hospital was Beauregard Robinson, 17, of Cornwall. Joseph Sala, 18, of Amsterdam, was treated at the hospital and discharged.

Police said the boys were students at the college.

The three apparently were walking north on Route 9, near Newton Road, police said, when they were hit by a truck driven by Leroy J. Fox, 33, of Esperance. The vehicle, owned by Bonded Freightways of Rensselaer, also was proceeding north, police reported.

Police said no charges were placed, pending investigation.

Killed Near Potsdam

POTSDAM, N.Y. (AP)—Brian Thompson, 19, of Ogdensburg, was injured fatally early today when his car left Route 2 and struck a tree, about a mile east of this St. Lawrence County community.

AMERICA'S SWEETHEART (AND HIS, TOO)—Mary Pickford was the movie sweetheart of all America, but the special sweetheart of Charles "Buddy" Rogers. They have been married since 1937. Recently they started from New York on a six-week voyage aboard the USS United States, to locate Mary's first films and news clips.

Battle Reaches Virtual Standstill On Rights Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's civil rights battle was at a virtual standstill today, Senate and House holding a joint session to hear President Eamon de Valera of Ireland before members scattered for a long Memorial Day weekend.

It was quiet on the civil rights front Wednesday, too. Although the Senate met for five hours and 15 minutes, only about one hour was devoted to the House-passed civil rights bill.

Leaders have dropped any idea of trying to wear down the Dixie opponents at this point. Instead they are concentrating on trying to enlist the two-thirds majority needed to apply the Senate's anti-filibuster cloture rule.

Sees Long, Tough Grind

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"It's going to be a long, tough grind" says Maurice Osser, chairman of the Philadelphia County Board of Elections, which has been ordered by the State Supreme Court to hold hearings on every one of the 540 challenged absentee ballots from the April 28 Democratic primary.

"With the batteries of lawyers on both sides, we could be here until Labor Day," Osser said Wednesday.

Mental Health Unit Hears About Half-Way House

A report on a hospital improvement grant of $86,000 to Middletown State Hospital for expanded rehabiltation work was heard at Tuesday night's meeting of Ulster County Association for Mental Health Board of Directors held at George Washington School.

Mrs. Frederic W. Holcomb Sr., president, read the report announced Tuesday by the Middletown Hospital which includes the establishment of a half-way house in Kingston.

Carefully Selected

A carefully selected group of discharged or improved patients referred for rehabilitation will take up residence at the center, under the supervision of an adequate staff. A special advantage of this arrangement is that the patients will be able to work in the sheltered workshop of Gateway Industries in Kingston.

It was brought out that the Ulster County Association for Mental Health has worked toward this type of program since its inception, with public educational meetings and specialist speakers from the State Department of Rehabilitation and Middletown State Hospital stressing the value of rehabilitation, and presenting the needs.

Reports from the Catskill Regional Mental Health Planning Committee were given by Charles McKendrick, superintendent of Eastern Correctional Institution, Napanoch, and Mrs. Frieda Dingee, both members of this committee.

A report of a very successful Clergymen's Seminar on pastoral counseling sponsored by the association, with 61 men of the three major faiths participating, was given by Mrs. Harry Gold.

Reports on Workshop

Miss Katherine Murphy reported that a workshop for Welfare workers, public health nurses, probation personnel and interested clergymen will be held at the Benedictine Hospital auditorium June 24.

Donald J. Haughton, field training representative of the Massachusetts Department of Public Welfare will discuss the Basic Theory of Interviewing—Methods and Techniques of Interviewing the Emotionally Disturbed and Retarded. This program has already created a great deal of interest, according to Miss Rose Marie Feeney, chairman of the planning committee.

Mrs. Diana Geiger, part-time executive secretary of the association, read the appointment of various committees made by Harry M. Thayer, president for 1964-65.

The following will serve as comittee chairmen: Education: Mrs. Harry Gold and the Rev. Cecil F. McFarland, co-chairmen; membership, Miss Katherine Murphy; nominating, William H. Van Benschoten; legislation, Arthur B. Ewig; personnel policy, Mrs. Holcomb; professional advisory, Dr. Edward F. Shea; publicity, William J. Mathews; volunteer, Mrs. George F. Reid and Mrs. Edwin C. Schults, co-chairmen.

Reappointed to Board

Miss Henry Millonig was reappointed to the board of directors of the New York State Association for Mental Health Regional Board; Dr. Arnold B. Woehlke to the Professional Advisory Committee of Gateways Industries, and Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Geiger to the Ulster County Council of Social Agencies.

Kenneth Taber, who, with Mathews, is serving as chairman of the Commerce and Industry Fund Campaign, reported that a number of industries and others have contributed to date. Members present volunteered to follow up the appeal to the business and professional people, who have been asked to help the association financially in its educational and promotional program.

Education with institutes, seminars and public meetings for specific and general groups, the showing of films are all part of the association's program. Also promoting better treatment facilities locally, cooperating with the Ulster County Mental Health Center and its director Dr. Katharina Stuber, and with the district Middletown State Hospital as well as with the New York State Department of Mental Hygiene.

Films and informational leaflet are available at the office at 27 East O'Reilly Street.

Supports National Unit

The association also supports research through the National Association for Mental Health.

At present there is a need for a Day Care Center (Psychiatric) and an Alcoholism Clinic. Through further voluntary contributions much or all of these programs will be promoted and accomplished through the effort of our Ulster County people.

WRITING FROM BACKYARD—Aerial star Bonnie Jones can't even write a letter home without having Clown Buzzie Potts peek over her shoulder. They're both members of the Clyde Beatty-Cole Bros. Circus, billed as the world's largest, which comes to Dietz Stadium on Monday, June 8, under auspices of Kingston Council 275, Knights of Columbus. Combined circus carries 150 arenic performers, 200 wild animals, a five-ton hippo and three herds of performing elephants. Clyde Beatty, world-famous wild animal trainer, will lead the performing cast in that act with lions and tigers. Other performers include Carla Wallenda and her high wire act; the six Franconis, Italian horseback riders featuring Amanda; Flying Goanas, trapeze artists; the six Frielanis, bicyclists; Tito Troupe, trampoline performers, and Capt. Astronaut, who is shot 220 feet from a canon. Eddie Dullum, Joe LeRue, Billy Kincaid and Cha-Cha lead the cast of clowns. Doors to show will open at 3 and 7 p. m., with performances starting promptly at 4 and 8 p. m.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The rise in spending for business expansion is credited with giving the economy one of its strongest boosts this year. But is such capital investment a boom?

Compared to the lag since 1958 it is. The Department of Commerce cites it as helping make the over - all economic gains since April 1 look solid in spite of the lagging response of consumers to the federal income tax cut.

The investment fraternity thinks the current increase in business spending is still far from what it should be, if compared to past performance or to the greater growth of the total output of goods and services—gross national product.

Some bankers fear the present rise in business spending, important as it is, may be exaggerated. The statisticians like to talk of percentages rather than dollar volume. This year's increased spending will still be well below postwar peaks as a percentage of the gross national product.

The reason for the lag, say economists at Chase Manhattan Bank of New York, lies in profits These, too, have risen to a record in dollar volume. But the bankers compared them to sales and to the GNP.

After-tax profits this year are expected to rise to 3.3 per cent of corporate sales. But in the years immediately after the war they averaged 4.9 per cent. After-tax profits this year may rise to 5 per cent of the gross national product. In the early postwar period they averaged 7.3 per cent.

When such profit percentages are high, business spends freely for new plant and equipment. When they shrink, so does the urge to expand.

Others point out another factor tending to act as a governor on business spending plans. This is the percentage of production to facilities. As sales have risen in recent months, excess capacity has been shrinking. As the plants now building or projected go into operation the ratio of production to capacity seems likely to drop again.

Hollywood News and Views

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — In the spring, the movies' fancy lightly turns. The film companies seem unwilling to issue anything of a weighty nature; hence, the springtime flood of fluffy, frivolous products.

Passable Entertainment

Three of the current releases demonstrate Hollywood's preoccupation with combining names and nonsense. Vast amounts of each have gone into "What a Way to Go!" The result is not equal to the sum of its parts, but it provides passable entertainment.

Thanks are largely due to Shirley MacLaine, who works ever so hard to keep the flimsy fabric from tearing asunder. The story is reminiscent of old Sid Caesar - Imogene Coca sketches, complete with takeoffs on old and new movies. Shirley is a simple lass whose life is ruined by too much money.

The whole business is not to be taken any more seriously than the premise. The trouble is that none of the characters has a shred of reality; all are as two dimensional as Huckleberry Hound.

"A Bedtime Story" provides the provocative casting of Marlon Brando and David Niven in another farfetched sage of high life. They play a pair of low-lifes, actually jet - age gigolos who relieve rich American women of diamonds, rubies and other baubles.

Sure Brando Touch

Niven is capital for this sort of thing. The surprise is Brando. Whether playing the smooth operator or masquerading as a blithering half - wit prince, he evokes laughs with a sure touch.

Then there is "Viva Las Vegas," another adventure in unreality. This one has Elvis Presley as a race car driver and Ann-Margret as a swimming teacher in Las Vegas, and —oh, why bother? Suffice to say the plot, retreaded perhaps from an old Esther Williams - Van Johnson script, is barely enough to thread together a succession of musical numbers.

HOW NOT TO ACT

Want to keep from getting a job when you graduate from school?

Here are some simple things to do that will practically insure a summer — maybe even a lifetime — of leisure:

Show your individuality by affecting a Beatle haircut and other touches of distinction which make it clear you have a personality of your own.

Show up late and keep your interviewer waiting. Let him know you're not falling over yourself to land this job.

Pull up a chair real close to the interviewer, rearrange the stuff on his desk so his ashtray is near you, and light up. This shows you are at ease and at home anywhere.

Tell him frankly what you think is wrong with his business. So he burns a little. So what? If he can't take a little honest criticism, he's too narrow-minded to fool around with.

Make sure the company is broadminded about coffee breaks, long lunch hours, tardiness, absenteeism and time out for personal business. Bear down on this. It will indicate you have your career carefully planned.

Let the interviewer know the company will be lucky to get you—that a lot of other outfits are bidding for you.

If a starting salary is mentioned, react with pain and hurt surprise. Explain that your professor thought you would be worth a lot more.

Follow this routine and it's dollars to doughnuts you end up with time to catch up on your sleep in the mornings and to polish up your golf game — assuming, of course, that you can get hold of the dough to play.

WE LIKE US, AS IS

What are the heavy thinkers trying to do to us?

A chemist is suggesting that we ought to be learning while we sleep by "utilizing the subconscious."

Scientists have come up with a scheme to attach little motors to a man and thus endow him with increased muscular power so he may be able to lift more and work harder.

Doctors are forecasting that a new miracle liquid may be able to turn tired old faces into fresh new ones and hide our ugliness and age with a chemical mask.

So we face the intriguing prospect of looking like zombies, competing with heavy machinery for a living, and never enjoying a moment's respite from deep thinking.

It almost makes you wonder if the old lady may not have had something when she said: "If the good Lord had meant for us to fly, He'd have given us wings."

GO SUITABLY ARMED

The season of outdoor culinary endeavor is again upon us. Let no man sally forth on invitation to yon neighboring patio save he be armed with bicarbonate or such other nostrums as he deems effective.

The danger is less acute than in earlier days of backyard cookery, granted. Some patio chefs have learned that it is not necessary, when broiling meat over charcoal, to have the result resemble charcoal in appearance and taste. Some have grasped the idea that the purpose of condiments is to enhance and complement rather than overwhelm, the flavor of the piece de resistance.

Some few have become masters of the grilled cuisine. But not all . . . not all. So venture not to the patio unless properly armed for the fray.

BEE, WHERE IS THY STING

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways and be wise." So the Book of Proverbs has been admonishing mankind for three milleniums.

Now, thanks to the work of a West German apiarist, it may be to the bee that men should go to learn, not the ways of industry, but the ways of peace. One Jan Lassen, beekeeper in the village of Wohle in Schleswig-Holstein, has succeeded in breeding a variety of bee that is completely nonagressive.

Lassen spent 50 of his 80 years to achieve his goal by breeding from bees selected for their gentle nature. His "pacifistic" bees can still sting but never do, and Lassen can handle them without gloves or mask.

Alas, as is so often the case in human affairs, interlopers from outside bring trouble to this apiarian Eden. Despite precautions, an occasional wandering, belligerent male successfully woos one of the gentile queens, producing a generation of little stingers who have to be painfully weeded out.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

NEW YORK AND THE CALIFORNIA PRIMARY

It could be a case of when the cat's away the mice will play. Or it could be more serious than that. At any rate, while Nelson Rockefeller is going all out to pick up eighty-six delegates in California, a determined band of Goldwaterites is busy trying to take delegates away from him in his home state of New York.

The New York and California primaries are scheduled for the same day, June 2, and the difference between Eastern and Pacific Coast time could mean that some news of the way things are going in New York will be available to late voters in Los Angeles and San Francisco. But the New York Goldwaterites are not relying on any hopes that a home state defection will be evident in time to affect the vote in California. Regardless of the California primary, they want to put Goldwater delegates across in ten contested New York State Congressional Districts if only to demonstrate to the Republican convention that Rockefeller is weak where popular opinion in the West considers that he is strong. Ten districts could yield a maximum of twenty delegates, but even if the Goldwaterites could pick up from two to six delegates they would consider it a meaningful victory.

The Goldwater push for New York State delegates is concentrated in counties that have been particularly restive under liberal Republican rule. These are mainly "down State," with a big cluster on Long Island — Suffolk, Nassau and Queens. But they include Erie County at the other end of the state. In addition to Long Island and Erie the Goldwaterites are making a pitch on Staten Island, in suburban Westchester and Rockland counties, and in the mid-Hudson Twenty-eighth Congressional District where Kent Leavitt, a big figure in the national Goldwater for President movement, holds forth.

The effectiveness of the Goldwater push in New York has already been proved, for in many of the contested districts the Republican organization candidates for a trip to the national convention are running either as "uncommitted" or as merely willing to support Rockefeller as a "favorite son," not as a serious last-ditch contender. In Suffolk County, an organization Republican who aspires to be a delegate remarked, "If we commit ourselves now, we might very well be out on a limb."

The New York Goldwaterites are far more virulent about Rockefeller than is Barry Goldwater himself. At the very moment when Goldwater was announcing in California that he would concentrate his fire on Lyndon Johnson, not on fellow Republicans, the New York Goldwaterites were busy shipping their anti-Rockefeller literature to the Pacific Coast in large amounts. The burden of this literature, as New York conservatives put it, is that "you've got to live with Rocky really to know him." In an "open letter to New Yorkers," forwarded to the Coast, it plays up the "humiliating concessions" which Rockefeller "extracted" from Richard Nixon in 1960, and adds that, "as a result, Nixon lost New York by 383,646 votes, his beating anywhere in the nation except for Massachusetts, John Kennedy's home state." It calls Rockefeller "the worst taxer and spender in the history of New York State . . . personal income taxes taken from your pay envelope have been boosted an incredible 103.2 per cent." (The N. Y. State Income Tax Bureau denies any increase has been made.) And, pointing to the State Liquor Authority scandals in New York, which have "already resulted in seventeen criminal indictments," it says that "Rockefeller is the only Republican Presidential possibility who couldn't score on the Bobby Baker issue."

Since, prior to his victory in Oregon, Rockefeller had been encountering apathy in California, the New York Goldwaterites hope to promote a renewal of that feeling among California liberals by writing their letters and sending telegrams and placing ads in local papers. The statement has been made in Los Angeles that if the Republicans turn out only 60 per cent of their vote on June 2, Goldwater will win, whereas if 75 per cent go to the primary polls, Rockefeller has a good chance of pulling a "second Oregon." It is in the context of this analysis that the letter-writing and telegram-sending campaign from New York, which was first suggested by Senator Karl Mundt at the Goldwater Rally in Madison Square Garden, could be a potent straw on the back of the Rockefeller camel. It's highly partisan stuff, but the New Yorkers think Rocky's effort to tar the Goldwaterites with a Birchite label merits their taking the gloves off.

The DOCTOR SAYS

Tennis Is a Great Game, But It Is Also Strenuous

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Tennis, anyone? Whether you answer yes or no should depend on your general physical fitness. Tennis, you see, is a strenuous game.

If you are over 40 there is no reason why you should not still enjoy this game if you take pains to build up your fitness by observing a few basic principles.

Like handball and badminton, tennis is a game in which sudden bursts of energy accompanied by quick movements are alternated with periods of rest. For the improperly conditioned player these short spurts often result in sprained ankles, twisted knees, torn calf muscles, shoulder and wrist injuries and tennis elbow.

It is advisable, therefore, to spend six or eight weeks before the season in walking, skipping rope and general calisthenics. When you finally step out onto the court ready to go, you should spend 15 or 20 minutes in a leisurely warm-up volley.

Avoid joint injuries by perfecting the technique of following through on each stroke and leave the violent cuts and smashes to the professionals. Learn to let the out-of-reach shots go.

In other words don't try to be a hero at the expense of your heart and your joints. Remember, you are playing a game, not winning a war. In this regard it is always better for your peace of mind, your health and your wallet not to bet on the outcome. You're supposed to be having fun—not trying to make a place on the Olympic team. At 40, it's better to be slightly seedy than seeded.

As with all summer sports, sunburn and heat exhaustion are hazards to be avoided. It is better to play a little every day than to save it up and play several hours on the weekend. If you can't play every day, it is doubly important to get your walk and your exercise on the days when you don't play. The former King of Sweden was still playing at 70 but then he played every day, using indoor courts in bad weather.

"A Further Appropriation Is Necessary"

Washington News

BY BRUCE BIOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — An inquiry is under way into persistent charges of police brutality advanced by Negroes and some civil rights groups. The probe could help clear the air or corroding elements which undetermine respect for law and order in today's tense society.

The International Association of Chiefs of Police is conducting the study and should have a report later this year.

Protesting groups may argue that the association is an interested party and thus not qualified to undertake a fair investigation in its own house. There is ample sign from a variety of policy statements, however, that the association maintains a responsible attitude toward the problem and is capable of reasonable self-criticism if it be warranted.

An official association comment uttered not too long ago: "It is realized that in the emotion-charged atmosphere of some demonstrations the parties on both sides of the police lines have been guilty of unnecessary force and tactics which tend to spark violence.

"But 'smoke-screen' charges of police brutality to cover excesses and illegal conduct on the part of others are inexcusable.

"Law enforcement agencies and responsible demonstrating groups in virtually every instance want no violence. . .reasonable men faced with these situations realize this and have acted accordingly."

WHAT CONCERNS MANY conscientious law enforcement authorities is the indication, turning up in many places, that Negro leaders have begun to make "police brutality" an almost automatic charge against a community without regard to fair consideration of the evidence. The demand to "end police brutality" appears on nearly every list of Negro demands for redress of grievances.

MOST DISTURBING TO RESPONSIBLE officials is the levying of such charges in instances where demonstrators, both white and Negro, have deliberately acted either to thwart the law or to interupt the normal processes of community life.

When police have responded to uphold the law and end the interference to traffic or whatever, charges of brutality have almost invariably followed.

It is ironic that they should be flug with such frequency and seeming abandon at a time when brutality against the police is being practiced on an ever-increasing scale. Most of these assaults are made by persons facing arrest or being pursued for a variety of offenses. But some are committed by civil rights demonstrators.

One Maryland state trooper who has seen frequent duty at troubled Cambridge, Md., has been injured four times. He has been struck by a bottle and burned by acid. Neither of these seem proper equipment for a "peaceful" demonstrator

In 1962, the last year for which complete figures are available, 78 law enforcement officers were killed by criminal action. The 1960-62 total was 113. Injurious assaults number in the thousands.

POLICE TRYING TO MAKE ARRESTS for minor traffic offenses often find themselvs surrounded by menacing crowds. Sometimes these situations suddenly take on racial overtones. A documented case:

An intoxicated Negro woman driver strikes another car. Stepping out, she tries to pretend she was not driving. When odered to get into a police vehicle, she shouts: "My civil rights are being violated." A gathering crowd of 50 curious Negroes rumbles angrily, stops just short of attacking police.

By their present inquiry, by their conduct of civil rights work shops and other reviews of the problem, responsible police leaders indicate they are trying to assess fairly their performance and their proper role in dealing with racial tensions. There is not yet much heartening evidence of similar concern from all civil rights leaders who press their demands in the public streets.

What Senator Goldwater Really Said on A-Bomb

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Sen. Goldwater can certainly point a finger of blame at the unfortunate reporting job that was done over the week end in telling the world that he favored the use of atomic bombs against the enemy in Viet Nam when he actually never made any such recommendation or proposal.

For immediately after the erroneous reports were widely publicized, UN Secretary General U Thant issued a blistering attack aimed at Sen. Goldwater, and so did the Soviet Ambassador at the UN, Nikolai T. Fedorenko.

What did Sen. Goldwater really say, and how did some of the press associations and newspapers report it? First, it is important to examine the stenographic transcript issued by the American Broadcasting Co. giving the verbatim answers that Sen. Goldwater made to Howard K. Smith on its program, "Issues and Answers," last Sunday afternoon.

Sen. Goldwater had pointed out that the Red Chinese fighting in Viet Nam peninsula have access to unlimited supplies plus those they have taken away from South Vietnamese troops. He declared:

"I would strongly advise that we interdict supply routes wherever they be, either by sea, or most importantly through North Viet Nam, Laos or Cambodia, and I believe this could be done in a way that would not endanger life and I believe it could be done in a way, after having consulted with the leading Red Chinese in North Viet Nam, to the effect that we are stronger. We don't want to occupy any part of Southeast Asia. All we want to do is get this little war over with, and get our boys home and have peace over there and tell them that we are going to bomb the bridges, the roads and so forth, and unless they accede to stopping strategic deliveries over those roads and railroads, that we can step it up. I think those people understand what we would be getting at, and we should be doing it."

Mr. Smith then asked:

"Now a lot of supply lines seem to run in on the Laotian border, in any case, through jungles and along trails. How could you interdict those?"

Sen. Goldwater answered:

"Well, it is not as easy as it sounds, because these are not trails that are out in the open. I have been in these rain forests of Burma and South China. You are perfectly safe wandering through them as far as an enemy hurting you. There have been several suggestions made. I don't think we would use any of them. But defolation of the forests by low-yield atomic weapons could well be done. When you remove the foliage, you remove the cover. The major supply lines, though, I think, would have to be interdicted where they leave Red China, which is the Red River Valley above North Viet Nam, and there, according to my studies of the geography, it would not be a difficult task to destroy those basic routes."

The key sentence in Sen. Goldwater's answer about the various suggestions — including possible use of low-yield atomic weapons —was the following: "I don't think we would use any of them."

One of the press associations, nevertheless, carried a dispatch declaring that Sen. Goldwater had "proposed" the use of low-yield atomic weapons to defoliate the forests along the borders of South Viet Nam. The same dispatch quoted the Arizona Senator as declaring that non-atomic attacks on supply lines should be carried out, and also quoted the Arizona Senator's statement that he did not think any of the atomic weapons would be used.

Sen. Goldwater has expressed resentment over the misinterpretation and erroneous reporting of his remarks. United Press International, in a dispatch from San Diego on Tuesday night, said:

'At one point, Goldwater said he was misquoted by the press, and in wire service reports, on use of nuclear weapons in the South Vietnamese dispute. 'I would never use a nuclear weapon when a conventional weapon would do,' he said. 'I would leave it up to the commanders.'"

It was not surprising for the Soviet Ambassador at the UN to denounce Sen. Goldwater as having "proposed" the use of low-yield atomic weapons in South Viet Nam and to call upon the U. S. government to condemn the "Goldwater proposal." Adlai Stevenson, American Ambassador to the UN, argued in reply that neither Sen. Goldwater nor any other Senator makes foreign policy, and added:

"He (Fedorenko) has not explained the military measures which the North Viet Nam regime, with the assistance of its powerful Communist allies, has been for many years taking in Laos and the Republic of Viet Nam."

It might be added that the Soviet Ambassador to the UN, who has suddenly become worried about a theoretical use of low-yield atomic weapons in Viet Nam, seems to have forgotten that just a few months ago his government constructed missile bases in Cuba, 90 miles away from the shores of the U. S., and that from such installations it was possible for nuclear weapons to be used to destroy a large section of American territory. To this day, the Soviet government has never apolgized to the world for its brazen threat to the safety of the American people.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

In the May 6, 1964 Freeman, page 4, in the "Quick Quiz" column, one question was: "What was 'The Great White Fleet?" The answer being: "On Feb. 21, 1909, 16 white-painted battleships of the United States Navy, nicknamed 'The Great White Fleet,' steamed into Hampton Roads, ending the first round the world journey ever undertaken by an American battle force." In speaking to Captain Andrew Hickey, U. S. Navy, (ret.) historian and author of "The Story of Kingston" he told me about his being on the U. S. Battleship Maine, one of the White Fleet, at the time he was a midshipman. I thought his experiences were unique and exciting, and hope he writes about them.

Among a collection of postal cards my grandfather collected, I found several of "The Great White Fleet" like the U. S. Battleships, Maine, with three stacks on which was Captain Hickey. I also have the U. S. S. Minnesota, the Wisconsin, Ohio, Kansas, Illinois, Kearsage, all daytime shots. The USS Battleships Virginia, Texas, Massachusetts and Brooklyn were photographed at night in moonlight. I also have postal cards of that era of sailors on board ship, fencing, boxing, sewing, peeling potatoes. I see they had little hand sewing machines, with one sailor pushing the cloth under the needle, and the other sailor turning the handle, three machines operated by six sailors. All the gobs were wearing their blue uniform. One is doing hand sewing, I see. No doubt much was written at the time on this famous "Great White Fleet" with which Captain Andrew Hickey of Kingston served.

Mrs. Emma Tonneson of Mt. Marion, sent me a note in which she writes in part: "How often I dwell on similar thoughts you have. In a couple of your latest 'Do You Remember,' you mention the mammoth shopping centers, the Kingston Point Park, the Hudson River and boats . . ." She also enclosed two poems for my pleasure which include some of the thoughts I mention here, about shopping in big centers, and also the pleasure of the Hudson River, and picnic lunches. She compares the relaxing life, to the "buzzing" of cars on the Thruway, wondering where they are going, for what and why. Driving of cars has changed the personality of people I think. Years ago, when cars were few, it was sort of a friendly sport, you waved to friends, you have lots of room, for cars were small and slow. I look at a postal card of the Rondout Bridge, and the cars on it, seem tiny. A policeman was in the middle of the street with a big umbrella stand. Now its intersection lights to watch, traffic directions, one way streets, meters, and a thousand other things you cannot do or should do. I understand going to the present World's Fair in New York by car is not a pleasant adventure.

I received a nice note from my friend, Principal Robert Graves of the Port Ewen School inviting me to the second Port Ewen School "Prose and Poetry" Fair during the week of May 18 to 22. Each pupil in Grades 1-6 will display his best writing, besides an art exhibition in the main foyer of the school. The school will have this exhibition during school hours and also Wednesday evening of that week for their P-TA meeting. I will look again at the old School No. 13 Port Ewen Bell, in a place of honor in the new building, which was given to them by Mr. and Mrs. James S. Belefas of 42 Crown Street who bought the old

Local Bankers Will Attend Stonier School

Fred P. Carpenter and Joseph W. Robertson of the Kingston Trust Company will attend the Stonier Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University June 8 through June 19.

The school, which is conducted by the American Bankers Association will be attended this year by 1,100 bank officers from 45 states, the District of Columbia, Venezuela and the Philippines.

The Stonier Graduate School was founded in 1935 by the A.B.A. to provide an opportunity to experienced bankers for advanced study in banking and related subjects. The faculty for the 1964 session numbers approximately 100 leading bankers, lawyers, educators, and Government representatives. During the two- week session, they will cover all phases of banking, economics, law, government, and related fields.

To qualify for graduation from the school, students must attend three of these summer sessions at Rutgers. In addition, they must complete two years of extension work at home and write a thesis based upon original research in some phase of finance.

Some Timing

Lobbyists Report $8,482 Spent for Liquor Proposals

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Liquor lobbyists, attacked by Gov. Rockefeller during the legislative battle over his proposals for liquor-law reform, say they spent $8,482 in efforts to influence bills during the regular and special sessions of the 1964 Legislature.

The figures were disclosed Wednesday from financial reports filed with the secretary of state.

According to reports, the spending by the six groups representing liquor interests was considerably less than expenditures of other lobbying groups.

Consolidated Edison of New York, for instance, reported lobbying expenses of $23,256.

The reported expenses of the liquor lobbies:

Greater New York Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association, $3,903; New York State Restaurant Liquor Dealers Association, $3,130; Metropolitan Package Store Association, $708; New York State Brewers Association, $553; New York State Wholesale Liquor Association, $188; New York State Wholesale Beer Distributors Association, no expenses listed.

Ho-Hum Attitude on Coast

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Those curious people, the Californians, seem to be displaying a great indifference to the vital business of picking a Republican presidential nominee in their June 2 primary.

The concentration of news media personnel in this former center of movie-making would indicate that something important is going to happen in next Tuesday's primary voting. This contest pits Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz. against New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—and the assembled noncandidate aspirants for the nomination to oppose President Johnson in November.

Usually Exhilarating

Ordinarily, a chance to help choose a party nominee would exhilarate the residents of almost any state. It did exhilarate the Republican voters of Oregon on May 15, when Rockefeller won a victory the pollsters had failed to forecast.

Confronted with the possibility they may be able to veto one of the two challengers for the nomination, California's voters seem to be replying with a political yawn to the campaigns of Goldwater and Rockefeller for the state's 86 GOP presidential nominating delegates.

A drive down California's freeways discloses billboards extolling virtues of the opposing presidential candidates. But off-freeway stops with average citizens registered a minimum of interest.

The cliche being passed among politicians was that the crowds didn't listen to what Goldwater had to say and applauded him vigorously, while they listened to Rockefeller but didn't applaud.

This perverse attitude on the part of California voters left political forecasters nonplussed, despite state polls indicating Rockefeller now is enjoying a surprising substantial lead over the Arizona senator.

Tough on Experts

But no expert could judge from the reception of the two candidates how their campaigns really were going.

In the campaign rallies, the "We want Barry" chant boomed out over full convention halls. The bright lights burned down on the gray-haired candidate from Arizona. The pretty girls in their cowboy hats marched about. But there was no convincing air of victory in all of the maneuverings.

In contrast, Rockefeller, his hair awry, signed autographs in a group pressing around him and stepped onto a platform to declaim his views earnestly and somewhat monotonously. There were seldom any "We want Rocky" shouts. But the New York governor's campaign, nevertheless, had acquired an atmosphere of victory that seemed to be lacking in his opponent's.

Child Recovering From Bite by Dog

A two-year-old girl who was bitten in the face by a dog shortly after 8 p. m. Wednesday, was reported in satisfactory condition today in her home.

Marcia May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin F. May, of 185 Smith Avenue, suffered cuts to her cheek and other facial scratches. She was taken to Kingston Hospital where she was treated and given an injection. She was released after treatment. May said his daughter was riding a tricycle in front of her home near O'Neil Street when she bent over to pick up a piece of paper. He said the dog lunged at the paper at the same time and bit his daughter.

U.S., Soviet Negotiations Improve, But in Some Ways Relations Are Getting Worse

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations between the Soviet Union and the United States are beginning to run up an impressive list of successes. The latest is the new treaty to increase protection for American citizens in the Soviet Union and Soviet citizens in the United States.

Still, relations between Washington and Moscow in some ways are getting worse at the same time they are getting better. The future course or relations is unpredictable, and no one in either capital has any guarantees against the sudden eruption of a new and dangerous crisis.

Agreement on Treaty

Agreement on the new treaty, formally known as a consular convention, was announced by President Johnson Wednesday. He emphasized that it was the first two-nation treaty between this country and the Soviet Union in the 31 years they have had diplomatic links. He expressed the hope that it would lead to a further improvement in relations.

The treaty provides for opening up consular offices in each country, in addition to the embassies in Washington and Moscow. How many offices will be opened and where they will be established are questions still to be negotiated.

The United States is reported interested in having a consulate in Leningrad, and the Soviet Union is understood to want a consulate in Chicago. Each country formerly had consulates in the other, but they were closed in 1948 as a result of cold war incidents.

Important Provision

The most important provision of the pact, in the U.S. view, is a commitment by each government to give official notice within three days of the arrest of a citizen of the other, and to permit officials to visit the person arrested within four days of seizure.

Soviet failure to notify the United States promptly of the arrest of American citizens has been a major source of irritation, one dramatic incident being the seizure last year of Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn. That case was finally straightened out only after the personal intervention of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Typical of the double-sided nature of U.S.-Soviet affairs at present is the fact that, at almost the same hour that Johnson was announcing the consular pact, a spokesman at the State Department was deploring the prospective shipment of Soviet arms to Cyprus.

An arms deal between the Cyprus government, controlled by the island's Greek majority, and the Soviet Union has been rumored for about two weeks. U.S. officials obviously believe the reports are true, and they fear the possibility of new violence between the Greek population and the Turkish minority.

The Worst Crisis

The most serious source of current tension between the world's two major powers, however, is the crisis in Southeast Asia. Faced with Communist offensives in both Laos and South Viet Nam, the United States has been employing all kinds of diplomatic pressures to persuade Red China and Communist North Viet Nam to stop the fighting in Laos, and to realize the dangers of an expanded war in Viet Nam.

U.S. Soviet Negotiations — 2..

Privately, officials said the United States had really got no help from the Soviets in its efforts to bring the crisis under control. On the contrary, they noted a sharpening turn in Soviet propaganda, coupled with warnings against a greater U.S. intervention in the area.

Other sources of tension include continuing Soviet support for Cuba as a Communist beachhead in the Western Hemisphere. In fact, given the possibility of some Cuban action against U.S. reconnaissance planes, many authorities here still see the situation in the Caribbean as a potential powderkeg.

Dates From Missile Trouble

The parallel trend of improved relations dates from the Cuban missile crisis in the fall of 1962. As the great powers backed away from the confrontation that had carried the world seemingly to the edge of nuclear war, there were many statements from both Soviet and American leaders that steps must be taken urgently to strengthen the prospects for peace.

The first of the agreements that resulted was an agreement to open up a "hot line" between Washington and Moscow, so that in any future crisis the men with the power of decision could communicate with speed and secrecy.

The next major development was the successful negotiation in signing of a treaty imposing a limiten ban on the testing of nuclear weapons.

Wheat Deal Cited

One of the more concrete achievements of the series of negotiations which have gone on since the Cuban missile crisis, was last fall's U.S.-Soviet wheat deal. Under this agreement, the United States has sold the Soviet Union 1.7 million tons of badly needed wheat.

Authorities here also cite as an evidence of declining East-West tension the parallel actions taken last month by President Johnson and Premier Khrushchev in announcing a cutback in the production of nuclear explosives.

Most officials here think the trend toward improving relations has been both helped and hindered by the Soviet split with Red China and the resulting rivalry between Moscow and Peking for leadership of the Communist parties around the world.

Undoubtedly, the split has caused Khrushchev to reassess his relations with the West, in the light of the fact that the Soviet Union is caught up in a cold war on two fronts. It is assumed here that the long Soviet border with Red China is a source of constant concern to Moscow strategists.

At the same time, U.S. experts say, because of the competition for Communist leadership, Khrushchev must strike out against the United States and other Western powers on some issues since failure to do so would yield advantage to the Chinese.

EverythingFouled Up in Viet, Major Wrote in Letter

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)— An Air Force major wrote his wife before his death in South Viet Nam that the Southeast Asia forces suffered from "not enough housing, not enough planes, not enough parts, not enough people, not enough bombs."

Lucille Adams, widow of Maj. Hughie Adams, released on Tuesday portion of letters she said she received during the four months before Adams' death Jan. 7.

The major called his B26 plane "The Widow Maker" Mrs. Adams said. She said a young lieutenant told her Adams' plane fell apart in the air, killing him and another flier.

"You can't imagine how fouled up everything is," Adams wrote in one of the letters. "The people who said Diem was doing his best against the Communists are full of baloney. He spent all the money we gave him for special troops to protect him."

Adams was due for retirement in another year and was a veteran of World War II and Korea. He flew 13,000 hours during World War II, dropped paratroopers in Europe on D-Day, and flew troops to Africa and in China.

Correction Made On Mention of Jacobson Firm

In a published account in The Freeman last May 22 regarding the signing of a contract to purchase the former Fuller Shirt Company on Pine Grove Avenue, it was stated in part that "Presently the premises are occupied by IBM, whose lease expires in October; the Kingston Shirt Company, a division of Raymar Shirt Company, which also operates the F. Jacobson & Sons shirt factory on Cornell Street, and the Faymo Sportswear, Inc. factory."

William Buchbinder, district plant manager of the F. Jacobson & Sons firm said the information was incorrect. He told The Freeman that the Jacobson firm was sold to the Kayser-Roth firm of New York City, and is presently operating as a subsidiary of that company. He said that the Jacobson firm also operates its own five-story building at Smith Avenue and Cornell Street and was completely independent of the Kingston Shirt Company, the Ramar Shirt Company, and anyone involved in the contract negotiations.

The news story said a contract was signed by Max Z. Kligman, president of the Pilgrim Furniture Company of Kingston, representing the D. & R. Realty Corporation to purchase the premises at 45-57 Pine Grove Avenue.

The Freeman regrets the error.

Cunningham Lists

voted favorably to increase the age of houses for conventional financing from 10 to 12 years and to set the mortgage limits up to $30,000.

Senator Bush also voted favorably for the amendment of the Transportation Law to permit corporations to install and own sewage treatment plants for homes in housing developments without deeding them to the municipality, Cunningham said. This was, Cunning said, a most important bill to the homebuilders.

Helped on Financing

Mr. Cunningham stated that a bill which affected all banks, realtors and home owners was acted upon favorably by the senator which was an amendment to the State Banking Law to permit 90 per cent conventional financing on homes up to 10 years old.

"It is his voting record plus his activity in steering these bills through the Senate that our Association awarded him the designation as the outstanding legislator," Cunningham said.

Nab Fourth Man In Abortion Ring

FULTON, N. Y. (AP) — A fourth man has been arrested in what state police call a crackdown on a widespread abortion ring in Central New York.

Dominick Froio, 45, of Rome, was arrested Wednesday night at his restaurant by State Police and charged with aiding and abetting in an abortion.

Three other men, including a prominent Fulton physician, were arrested Tuesday night.

Froio, proprietor of Tubby's Restaurant in Rome, was arraigned before Judge Donald K. Comstock of Fulton City Court and was released in $10,000 bail, pending a hearing June 8.

Dr. Harry L. Alpert, 52, and Victor Gorea, 42, both of Fulton and Frank Morreale, 53, of Utica were arrested in Fulton on charges of illegal abortions. Bail for each was set at $10,000.

Judge Comstock set a hearing for Alpert tomorrow. Gorea was to appear in court Monday and Morreale on Tuesday.

State Police said the investigation of the alleged ring, begun nearly three months ago, was still underway. They said the ring had operated in Rochester, Syracuse, Utica, Binghamton, Rome and surrounding areas.

Says His Party Wants Directorate Of Five Nations

LONDON (AP)—The man who may be Britain's next foreign minister says the British Labor party, if it wins the national election in the fall, will work for a five-nation directorate to formulate nuclear and political strategy for the North Atlantic Alliance.

Patrick Gordon Walker, Labor's spokesman on foreign affairs, suggested that West Germany and Italy should join the United States, Britain and France in drawing up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's plans for action "up to the moment when—and if—the nuclear trigger has to be pressed."

At that point, Gordon Walker added, the Americans would be on their own because Labor wants the United States to become the sole custodian of the West's nuclear striking power.

Gordon Walker outlined his party's planning in an interview shortly before flying today to discuss key world problems with Communist leaders in Warsaw, Moscow and Bucharest. Harold Wilson, Labor Party leader, will join him Saturday in Moscow.

Gordon Walker skirted the problem French President Charles de Gaulle's lone - wolf policies create for the Labor NATO plan.

"If the French decide not to join in the group, a place should be kept for them," he said.

NATO's shape and strategy was a major topic when foreign ministers of the 15-nation alliance met in the Hague two weeks ago. It has been a subject of confidential discussion between Wilson and his colleagues and the Johnson administration in Washington. If Labor wins the fall election, Wilson will become prime minister and Gordon Walker very likely will be foreign secretary.

Fire Comes to Firemen

A fire came to Central Fire Station this afternoon to get put out. It is easy, since the fire was on wheels. Dispatcher Walter Madajewski said that a 1964 sedan pulled in front of the station at 12:07. Firmen extinguished the blaze, which was in the back end of a rear seat cushion, with pressured water. Cause of the fire was a cigarette.

The vehicle was owned by the Kinney Rental Service, of 10 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City, and leased and operated by Jessie Friedman, of New York City.

Saturn Is Fired On Apollo Mission

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —A Saturn 1 superrocket blasted off today in the first attempt to orbit an unmanned model of the Apollo moonship.

The launching was the first of a long series of unmanned Apollo flights aimed at earth orbital missions and eventual landings on the moon.

Greatest Power Known

The mammoth two-stage Saturn 1 rumbled skyward at 12:07 p.m. on the tremendous force of the world's greatest known rocket power plant. The cluster of eight first-stage engines was designed to develop thrust of 1.5 million pounds during 146 seconds of flight.

The second stage, powered by high-energy liquid hydrogen, was calculated to produce an additional 90,000 pounds of thrust for eight minutes to drill the "boilerplate" Apollo craft into an orbit ranging from 110 to 140 miles high.

As the rocket's booster engines flashed to life, they showered the launch stand with a mass of flame and sent a thunderclap rolling across Cape Kennedy.

Rising slowly at first under its vast load, the rocket picked up speed quickly as the engines gulped fuel.

About 51 seconds after lift-off the vehicle began a gradual pitch into a southeast heading, spurting a tail of flame more than 300 feet long as it raced across a clear sky.

Appears Normal

Project officials announced three minutes after launching that the second stage had ignited and appeared to be performing normally.

The 190-foot rocket-spacecraft combination—tallest ever launched by the United States — was burdened by 475 tons of propellant. To produce the enormous thrust for their task, the engines had to consume fuel at a rate of nearly three tons a second.

The shot had been postponed twice because of equipment failures.

Because of the test nature of the flight no attempt was to be made to separate the burned-out second stage or an instrument package from the Apollo spacecraft. Total weight of the three payload sections was 37,300 pounds and over-all length 80 feet.

Nor was it intended to recover the satellite, which was expected to burn up from atmospheric friction after about a week in orbit.

Romney Declares Public Emergency In Strike Town

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP) — Gov. George W. Romney, responding to a plea for help from the city's mayor, today declared "a state of public emergency" in strike-torn Hillsdale.

The National Guard was ordered to move troops in after a night of violence in which some 300 rock - throwing demonstrators virtually stormed the Hillsdale jail. The mob was protesting arrest of three pickets.

The governor also ordered the strike-plagued Essex Wire Co. plant here shut down, except for skeleton maintenance crews, for an indefinite period.

Except for police officers and troops, Romney said no one will be permitted firearms in this city of 7,629 in southeastern Lower Michigan.

A third part of the governor's order bars "picketing, demonstrations or public assemblage" in Hillsdale, but it leaves government in the hands of local officials.

Romney said Mayor C. Aubrey Paul was informed of the order and "he has indicated informally that it appears to him to be adequate."

Romney acted in Lansing after a telegraphic plea from Paul for martial law. Beforehand, the governor conferred with State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, assistant adjutant general of the Michigan National Guard.

The governor said his order will remain in effect "as long as people and property are in danger" and that guards at the strike-bound plant will be disarmed.

He ordered production stopped and banned picketing.

"Without this action," Romney told newsmen, "there is a likelihood of violence of an unknown extent."

Sixty state policemen and sheriff's deputies Wednesday night came to the aid of Hillsdale's seven-man police force in the emergency.

May Match 1962 Headache

Disaster Beckons State Dems Again

By ROBERT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) —New York State Democratic leaders searching for a U.S. Senate candidate might be maneuvering themselves into the same type of political disaster that befell the party in the 1962 state election.

The party's inability to produce and develop a strong candidate and leader in time to wage an effective campaign doomed the Democratic effort two years ago.

RFK Complicates Situation

Evidence of the same problem is present now as the party seeks a top-flight nominee to run against Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating this fall.

The uncertainty with which the Democrats had approached the task of choosing a senatorial candidate has been complicated by speculation Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy might want the nomination.

What little efforts had been made toward seeking a nominee appear to have been suspended pending a decision by Kennedy.

He is a resident of Virginia but could run for the U.S. Senate from New York State.

The attorney general has said only that, "all other things being equal," he thinks a present resident of New York should run. That comment did little to clarify his intentions and party leaders say that Kennedy's plans regarding the nomination are not clear.

Kennedy probably could have the nomination if he wanted it, despite the certainty his candidacy would bring sharp Republican attacks on the fact he is an outsider.

Open to Attacks

Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney sounded last weekend what would be the central theme of the GOP reaction to a Kennedy race. Mahoney called the attorney general "a Back Bay carpetbagger."

The Democrats also could expect charges that their party was so impoverished in ability that it had to go outside the state to find a top candidate.

Two years ago, Democratic leaders talked about deciding early on a candidate to run against Gov. Rockefeller.

The theory was that this step would defeat the Republican strategy of setting late dates for nominating conventions, a move designed to benefit the incumbent by cutting down on the time the challenger has for campaigning.

But, after a summer of backing and filling, no candidate emerged until a few days before the convention. His selection was dictated by New York City leaders on the basis of polls and strategic considerations that proved to be unsound.

After a brief, ineffectual campaign, the nominee was defeated soundly.

Betting at Roosevelt Is Up $3.6 Million

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state reports a betting-tax intake of $14.7 million from Roosevelt Raceway's spring meet. This was $3.6 million more than last year's tax revenue at the harness track.

The total handle for the 72-day meeting, which began Feb. 20, was $144 million, compared with $109.6 million in the 61-day meet a year ago, the State Tax Department reported Wednesday.

The Legislature lengthened the racing season in the state in each of the past two years to increase betting-tax revenues.

Attendance was 1,743,212, compared with 1,522,894 last year.

Gateway Industry Will Announce Expansion Plans

Expansion plans providing additional facilities will be announced soon by Gateway Industries Rehabilitation Training Center Inc. The facility in a little over seven years has grown to be of Ulster County's most valuable health and educations services.

Gateway's phenomenal growth from a social club to a professionally staffed rehabilitation and training center for the handicapped is the result of the dedication of community spirited individuals and organizations to a single purpose: to make the handicapped independent of public assistance by training, so as to return them to competitive employment and permit them to become useful contributors to their community.

Housed at Field Court

Housed now in a former factory building on Field Court, Kingston, Gateway occupies and utilizes for workshop and training purposes two complete floors for a total 10,000 square feet. The space enables the Center to currently handle a trainee schedule for 55 clients. These people are supervised and trained by eight highly-experienced professional staff members of Gateway.

Most trainees are developed and schooled for work in the needle trades, industrial bench work and the clerical field. These areas of employment in the community continually demand trained personnel. During the past year 20-25 graduates of Gateway took their place back in competitive employment in work such as this, fulfilling the prime purpose of the organization.

From its infancy to its present adult status, Gateway has been completely Community orientated. It aspires to fulfill a basic need of the Community and must in turn depend upon it for active support; thus Gateway is a member agency of the Community Chest.

Additional income is realized through limited New York State grants and through work contracts negotiated with the county community's industrial and commercial firms. Job contracts, carefully screened to fit the abilities of Gateway trainees, and bid for and won on a competitive basis.

Has Satisfied Customers

Gateway's consistently high quality of performance standards, its ability to meet and cover production schedules, its flexibility and versatility in handling diversified jobs has created high satisfaction with its outside contractor customers. Many return to Gateway with additional jobs without being solicited.

The expansive potential of Gateway services is great. The New York State estimate of handicapped persons in the Gateway service area is 4 per cent of the population. To meet this challenging need Gateway is currently mapping plans for additional facilities and growth. These plans will be ready for general community announcement within two weeks.

Fire Sweeps 20 Acres In West Hurley Area

Volunteer firemen from West Hurley under Chief Fred Myers, assisted by Sawkill fire fighters battled fire in a wooded area on the Byron Gerlach property off Route 28, late Wednesday.

Chief Myers reported the flames swept over about 20 acres of woodlands before the fire was brought under control. West Hurley firemen were called out at about 5 p. m., and later Sawkill volunteers were summoned through mutual aid to assist. The fire was quelled shortly after 10 p m.

It was reported the woods fire apparently started from burning rubbish in a nearby dump.

Reports Car Damage

Police were investigating today a malicious mischief complaint by a car owner. Aron Holland, of East Union Street, reported at 1:55 a. m. today that someone broke off the car's radio antenna, scratched the hood and dented a hubcap while the vehicle was parked opposite 112 Broadway.

All banks and Savings and Loan Associations will close at the usual afternoon hour and will not reopen for the Friday night hours.

Driver Gets Summons

The operator of a car involved in a two-car accident Wednesday afternoon on Creek Locks Road in the Town of Ulster was issued a summons for failure to keep right. The summons is returnable before Justice of the Peace Robert Stedge on Friday. Earle A. Terwilliger, 56, of 14 Cherry Hill Road, New Paltz was traveling west on the Creek Locks Road when his car and that of Herbert S. Bolde, 36, of Creek Locks Road, collided. None was injured. Capitol News in Brief

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

SPACE RACE: The Republican Citizens Committee urged Wednesday that the United States abandon its goal of landing a man on the moon by 1970.

"We see no evidence that urgent defense objectives warrant a crash program or that a meeting or deadlines such as 1970 serves any significant national objectives," declared the committee's Critical Issues Council, headed by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, brother of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

THE CHANGING SCENE: The late President John F. Kennedy, as a New Englander and former Navy man, was in love with the sea and ships.

Under his administration the paintings in White House lobby included one depicting a naval battle in the War of 1812.

WEEKEND TRIP: President Johnson flies to New York today for a clutch of Democratic fund raising affairs and then jets to Texas for the weekend.

On Friday night, the President speaks at commencement exercises at his old high school in Johnson City and the next day he and Mrs. Johnson receive his-and-her honorary degrees at the University of Texas in Austin.

REJECTED: The House rejected Wednesday a bill that would have increased from $10,000 to $20,000 the maximum amount of bank and savings and loan deposits subject to federal insurance.

The rejection came on a 197-142 roll call vote that sent the measure back to the House Banking Committee.

Each crabgrass plant carries 50,000 seeds.

Council Scout Executive Alex Macdonald of Hurley reported to the annual meeting delegates on 1963 Council achievements and 1964 objectives.

Henze Honored

Areas covered in Macdonald's report of Council operations included finance, camping and activities, leadership training, organization and extension, advancement and long range planning.

In recognition of his four years of outstanding service as President of the Rip Van Winkle Council, B.S.A., Clifford Henze was presented with a handsome Scouting wall plaque. Making the presentation on behalf of the Council Executive Board was Dr. Clement Angstrom of Kingston.

Services Monday For Ted Collins

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP)—Funeral services will be held Monday in New York City for Ted Collins, who, by the flip of a coin, launched a lucrative career as singer Kate Smith's manager.

Collins, who also became a radio - tv personality, died Wednesday of a heart attack as Miss Smith looked on in tears. He was 64.

Collapsed in Car

Collins collapsed as the 55-year-old Miss Smith was parking her automobile while driving him to a doctor's office. He had been scheduled to undergo a routine electrocardiogram.

Collins and Miss Smith have spent summers at this Adirondack resort for 30 years, and each had a camp on Buck Island in Lake Placid. He lived in Palm Beach, Calif., in the winter.

Miss Smith, whose theme song "When the Moon Comes Over the Mountain, was scheduled to appear on the Ed Sullivan television show June 14, but she canceled that Wednesday.

Collins originally wanted to be a doctor but changed his plans when his physician-father died while the son was attending Fordham University.

The younger Collins, highly interested in phonograph records, became sales manager at 23 for the Columbia Phonograph Co., in his native New York City, and soon was recording manager.

It was nine years later, in 1933, that he heard Miss Smith sing the lead in the Broadway show "Flying High," after flipping a coin to choose his night's entertainment. That led him to ask her to make some records, and he became her manager.

Burial in Valhalla

They set up a corporation called "Kated." Miss Smith was, for many years, one of the nation's highest-paid entertainers. Collins appeared with her on many television shows.

A solemn Mass of Requiem will be celebrated Monday (10 a.m.) at St. Vincent Ferrer Roman Catholic Church, New York City. Burial will be at the Gates of Heaven Cemetery in Valhalla, north of the city.

Collins leaves his widow, Mrs. Jeannette Collins of New York City, a daughter, Mrs. Adelaide Fitzgerald of Larchmont, and three grandchildren.

3 Cheat Death As Boom Falls On Dutchess Job

Three workmen narrowly escaped death at 12:45 p. m. Wednesday, when a large boom attached to a crane and a huge circuit breaker fell as they were guiding it into position at the Con Edison plant at Pleasant Valley.

South Millbrook State Police reported Richard Lynch, 28, of Peekskill, was operating a crane when the main support cable snapped. The boom and the circuit breaker crashed to the ground and apparently three workers were struck glancing blows by the equipment.

State police said the injured were Tager Nielson, 44, of Brooklyn; Wallace Hornung, 43, of Poughkeepsie, and Boyd Brewer, 36, of Newburgh. The injured were treated at the scene and later rushed to St. Francis' Hospital, Poughkeepsie, in ambulances summoned from the Arlington and Pleasant Valley fire stations.

The injured were reported in satisfactory condition. They were admitted at the hospital for further treatment.

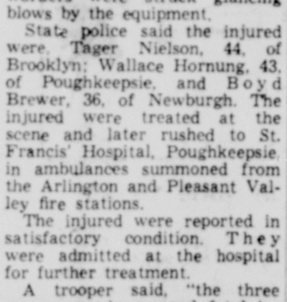

A trooper said, "the three men narrowly escaped fatal injuries."

Flying Garbage

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Herman Spiker blamed a railroad train when his car was hit by a flying garbage can. Patrolman R. E. Huber said the huge garbage container owned by the city had been emptied by a truck, then put down too close to the railroad tracks. A train rolled past and a freight car hit the container, sending it flying into Spiker's car.

CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 28, 1964 SEVENTEEN

And Now There Are Six

May 30 was designated as Memorial Day in 1868 by Gen. John A. Logan, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, to honor the memory of Union soldiers who fell in the Civil War. Eventually most of the states made it a legal holiday. And gradually Memorial Day came to be observed in memory of the warrior dead of all of America's wars and some conflicts that are, in the modern mode, "non-wars." The ranks of the Union comrades have been swelled by their successors of the Spanish War and World War I, that was to have ended all wars, only to be followed by the catastrophic World War II. And then came Korea, which they said was no war at all, but a "police action"—but war it was to the men who suffered and fought and died in it. Now, on this 96th Memorial Day, American servicemen are dying in yet another such "non-war" in a foreign clime—Viet Nam. To these, Memorial Day is dedicated, too. For their deaths are just as much sacrifices for preservation of the American creed of democracy as were those made on the field from Bull Run to Gettysburg.

NEA COLOR SKETCH BY JOHN LANE

Courtesy Card Plan Outlined By Library Group

A plan by which borrowers at any Ramapo Catskill Library System Library might be able to obtain a courtesy card which could be used at any area library was discussed at the May meeting of the RCLS librarians.

Although not all area local library boards have approved the action, a substantial number of the 45 Ramapo Catskill Libraries are ready and willing to make their holdings available to all those in the area to whom they would be useful.

Another feature of the meeting was the review, by the staff of the Ramapo Catskill Library System of current books. One that will be of particular interest to many in the Middletown area was "I Never Promised You a Rose Garden" by Hannah Green. This book, an important new psychiatric novel, was reviewed by David Weill, library intern with the system. It is the story of a schizophrenic girl who is hospitalized, and of her treatment while at the hospital. The title is taken from a statement made by the girl's psychiatrist as the doctor tries to encourage the young woman to participate more fully in her own treatment. The realistically optimistic trend of the book will appeal to those who are aware of the hopeful work being done in this field.

Two Killed in Collision

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP)—Two men were killed Wednesday in the collision of a truck and an automobile at an intersection on a cross-town arterial highway. The car smashed into the office of a service station.

Police said the dead were Francis Barrett, 65, and Felix Juisto, 22, both of Schenectady. They were riding in the car. The driver of the truck was not injured, police said.

Report on Earnings

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The Carrier Corp., maker of air-conditioning equipment, has reported earnings of $4,404,000 or $1.95 a share, for the six months that ended April 30.

Sales for the period, the first half of Carrier's 1964 fiscal year, totaled $152,040,000, the company said Wednesday.

For the corresponding period a year ago, Carrier reported earnings of $3,527,000, equal to $1.52 a share of common stock, and sales of $134,082,000.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"It's nice, but it's also sort of sad," said the tall, lanky fellow with thinning hair. "After 25 years as the Amazing Ballantine suddenly I'm Lester Gruber. And 95 per cent of the people don't even remember all the years on the Ed Sullivan Show."

Carl — the Amazing Ballantine — may be rueful about the recent strange shift in his career, but it is a story with a happy ending.

Over the years, Ballantine built a popular and highly profitable vaudeville act, appearing in magnificently tailored evening clothes and with all the sweeping gestures of the stage magician, but doing tricks that turned into minor disasters—rabbits refused to emerge from top hats, ladies refused to be sawed in half, the wrong card always popped out of the pack.

Then something tragic started to happen to vaudeville and Ballantine — who does not like to play night clubs—started seriously to look around.

"When McHale's Navy came up, there were only eight weeks of vaudeville a year left in this country, coast to coast. I have to work 40 weeks a year to make the money I earn on this TV show," he said.

Show business always knew him as a deft comedian who pulled laughs with fumbling magic tricks. Thus he had some acting offers, including a regular part in "Car 54" with he reluctantly turned down for the ABC Navy comedy.

"I read for the Gruber role," he recalled. "I was just one of about 40 guys looking for the part. They called me four days later to tell me I had it."

Carl plays a torpedoman with the instincts of a con man.

"It's a cinch," he said gleefully. 'I am Gruber—Gruber is me. Other actors may study a part and decide one of 30 different ways to play a character. Me I'm myself. In fact, sometimes I go to the director and tell him my lines are ones Gruber would never say. And he tells me, okay, to rewrite them."

But to Ballantine the most incredible fact is that few of the "McHale's Navy" fans ever connect him with the magician most of them have certainly seen at some time over the recent years.

Some, in fact, have informed "Gruber" how much a magician named Ballantine resembles him.

NBC has offered to underwrite—"up to $25,000" — one-third of the cost of an outside study designed to improve methods of nominating and voting in the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences annual "Emmy Awards." Incoming ATAS president, writer Rod Serling, said he would present the offer to the organization's board of trustees for action.

Rich but delicious: squares of bread toasted in hot butter in a skillet and used hot as the base for a cocktail spread.

15,500 Force Likely to Stay

U.S. Not Ending Viet Help by End of 1965

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is unlikely to admit it, but it seems apparent the plan to wind up the major part of the U.S. military effort in South Viet Nam by the end of 1965 has quietly withered away.

When officials are reminded of that plan, announced last October, they reply: "But there have been two coups in Saigon since then."

What they mean is that the effort against the Communist insurgents has been set back by confusion and disorganization stemming from two changes in the South Vietnamese government. These were the overthrow of the Diem regime by a military junta in November and the overthrow of the junta by another military group in January.

Force to Remain Same

The belief is that the 15,500 U. S. military men in South Viet Nam will not be reduced appreciably, if at all, this year, and perhaps not to any great extent next year.

New plans to double the number of Vietnamese pilots and to boost the Vietnamese ground forces by some 50,000 men will entail increased U.S. training responsibilities that will carry over at least into 1965.

Some U.S. advisers will return home as their tasks are finished—as the Vietnamese get the hang of doing certain things for themselves.

Long Struggle

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says repeatedly it will be a long, hard struggle before the Communists are overcome in Viet Nam.

The latest indication that the end-of-1965 target date has been shelved came Tuesday after McNamara testified in secret before the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., the committee chairman, said McNamara "was not as optimistic on his timetable as he had been before."

Actually, McNamara for some time has avoided any direct answer to reporters' questions about whether the 1965 objective still holds.

Continuation Held

Some officials contend there never was a flat commitment to pull out the bulk of U.S. military men by the end of next year.

They say it was an objective predicated on the ability of the South Vietnamese to stand on their own feet and to control most of their country, and on political stability in Viet Nam.

These officials also note that the statement setting the 1965 target date specified that some U.S. trainers probably would have to stay on beyond that time.

That statement was issued by the White House on Oct. 2 after McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Talylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, reported to President John F. Kennedy on an on-the-spot check.

McNamara and Taylor had gone to Saigon at that time to assess possible damage to the anti-Communist cause growing out of repression of the Buddhists by the regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Home Extension Service News

Since Memorial Day opens the outdoor eating season, many shoppers will soon be considering the availability of meats for the charcoal grill or outdoor fireplace. The expected supplies of various choices may aid selection, says Louise M. Kakargo, assistant home demonstration agent.

Broilers are popular for outdoor barbecuing and will be in good supply and low in price this summer. While the U. S. Department of Agriculture expects the June marketing of broilers to be slightly less than a year earlier, the tender-meated birds will still be abundant and frequently on special.

Although beef steaks are usually not economy cuts, the large number of cattle on farms being fattened for market has meant that retailers have had heavy supplies of beef to sell. Consequently, beef has been repeatedly offered at reduced prices and should continue to be throughout June.

Chopped meat patties—hamburgers, lambburgers, porkburgers, and vealburgers, and frankfurters are outdoor cooking favorites that remain fairly constant in price per pound and supply throughout the year. Shoppers may want to buy a supply of chopped meats when they are offered on special. Chopped meat bought in large quantities sometimes costs less per pound than smaller package. Remember to wrap and refrigerate chopped meat carefully as it spoils more easily than chops, roasts, or steaks.

Shoppers may want to consider marinated lamb stew to broil on a skewer or lamb shanks and breasts to cook in a favorite barbecue sauce. These cuts usually remain economically priced throughout the summer.

Lamb chops and steaks are also available for outdoor meals all summer, but like broilers and beef steaks, they are in great demand during the hot weather, therefore, their price per pound traditionally rises.

This year, lamb supplies are expected to be 3 to 5 per cent lower than last year, as there are fewer sheep on the farms. A small lamp crop will likely mean a rise in the price per pound of lamb sometime late this summer, but as long as beef remains plentiful, lamb prices will probably remain low.

The price per pound of cured pork varies very little throughout the year, as curing improves storing qualities of pork thus helping to keep market supplies fairly constant. Because such cured and smoked pork cuts as ham, picnic, Boston butt, and Canadian bacon are often sold fully-cooked and boneless, shoppers may want to buy one of these cuts for easy slicing before grilling. Some butchers will also slice the meat to the thickness desired.

Fresh pork chops and steak are good barbecued, but like other chops and steaks, their price per pound rises during the summer when the demand for quick cooking cuts rises. Those who plan to grill fresh or cured pork must make sure that the meat is thoroughly cooked before it is eaten.

Many shoppers forget fish for outdoor cooking, yet fillets, steaks, or whole fish as well as shellfish are appropriate choices. Fresh fish is in its peak supply and usually lowest in price per pound during the spring and summer months. Frozen fish is usually in its lowest supply period, but may be offered at special prices to compete with the fish.

The summer should bring good local supplies of these fresh fish — bluefish, cod, striped bass, flounder, halibut, mackerel, salmon, swordfish, and whiting. Fresh shellfish in season during the summer include scallops, soft shell crabs, and lobsters.

Glenford Auxiliary Activities Noted; Meeting on June 3

The Ladies Auxiliary of Glenford Engine Company No. 4 held its regular monthly meeting at the firehouse on Ohayo Mountain Road, Wednesday, May 20 at 8 p. m.

Reports were read and accepted; the annual bazaar, set for August 14 and 15, was discussed; and a date set for a general clean-up day at the firehouse. It was voted to purchase paint to redecorate the kitchen.

Last fall the Auxiliary voted to sponsor a Junior Troop of Girl Scouts. Mrs. Charles (Rita) Orr, of Ohayo Mountain Road, is leader. The group has been meeting every Tuesday afternoon at the firehouse since last November. There are now approximately eighteen girls in the troop. The Auxiliary voted to purchase both an American Flag and a Troop Flag for the girls. Mrs. Donald (Marilyn) Rice and Mrs. Richard (Ginny) Fuchs are Mrs. Orr's assistants.

Mrs. James Levins, principal of West Hurley Elementary School, was then introduced to the group. She desires to meet the greatest possible number of parents of Glenford elementary children who will attend West Hurley School in the fall. With this aim in view a date has been set for Wednesday, June 3, at the Glenford Firehouse. All parents of Glenford elementary children are urged to attend. Mrs. Levins will be present that evening to meet the parents and to answer any questions they may have concerning their children's enrollment and curriculum at the West Hurley School. The Auxiliary feels that this is a very thoughtful, wise and generous gesture on the part of Mrs. Levins.

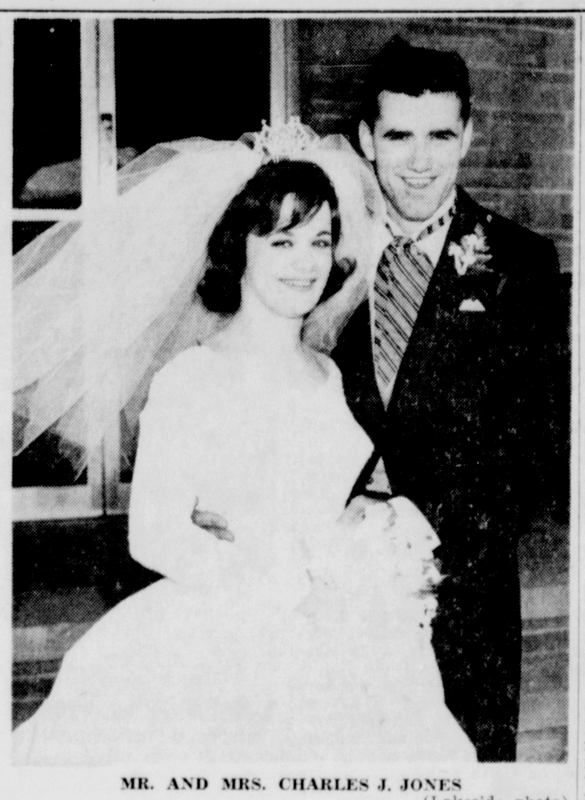

Mrs. Stanley (Paula) Tentnowski, of Arnold Drive, Maverick Park, was introduced to and welcomed by the group as a new member of the Auxiliary. Mr. Tentnowski recently became a member of the Glenford Engine Company.

June Gavigan, a Central Hudson Home Economist, presented a color slide-narration demonstration of home freezing techniques and hints. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Calvin (Marion) Warnecke and Mrs. Charles (Mary Catherine) Eisminger.

Sandra S. Spence of Forest Glen Park Weds Charles J. Jones; Ceremony in Old Dutch

Miss Sandra Stephanie Spence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Countryman of Forest Glen Park, Kingston, exchanged marriage vows with Charles J. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Jones of Easley, South Carolina, on May 23 at a 2 p. m. ceremony held in Old Dutch Church, this city.

Officiating clergyman was the Rev. Arthur E. Oudemool.

White gladioli decorated the church for the occasion and the family pews were marked with white ribbon. Traditional wedding music was played.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin peau fashioned with scoop neckline that was outlined with embroidered seed pearls. The gown also had long tapered sleeves and fitted bodice. The chapel length train was gathered with self roses and a silk illusion veil was secured by a triple tiered jeweled crown. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Shirley Sickler of Kingston was the maid of honor. She wore a two-tone gown of iridescent apricot de luna peau styled with a fitted bodice and floor length skirt with panels of peach from the waistline enhanced with tiny bows. She carried a basket of pink carnations in deep shades. Her short flirtation veil of silk illusion was secured to a miniature jeweled crown.

Bridesmaids were Jane Sickler, Patricia Wolf, both of Kingston, and Joy Garbarino of Hyde Park. Their gowns were similar to that worn by the maid of honor but in iridescent peach with apricot panels in contrast. They wore short flirtation veils secured to miniature crowns and carried white baskets of light pink carnations.

Barbara Lockwood, as the flower girl, wore a floor length gown of peach iridescent similar to that worn by the attendants with contrasts of apricot. She carried a miniature fireside basket of light and dark carnations.

Roy Spence of Warren Street, this city, was best man. He is the bride's brother. Ushering were Edward Miller of Napanoch, William Mergendahl of Saugerties and Henry Sparling of Ellenville. The ringbearer was Brian Lockwood.

Approximately 100 guests were entertained at The Capri in Port Ewen.

The bride, who attended Kingston High School, wore a beige suit with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses for her wedding trip. Her husband was educated in South Carolina School and is now serving with the U. S. Army in Missouri.

Miss Eileen Reis Named Chairman of Membership Drive

Miss Eileen Reis, RN, head nurse at the Benedictine Hospital in Kingston, has been named local chairman of a statewide membership drive to be launched this fall by the New York State Nurses Association.

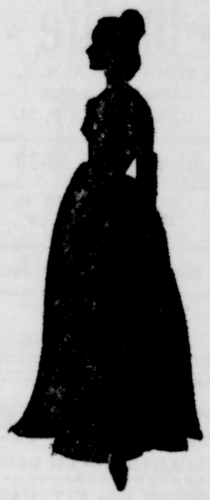

The 13,000-member NYSNA, consisting of 18 districts, is part of the 170,000-member American Nurses' Association.

More than 210 area nurses belong to the local District Association, which encompasses Ulster and Greene Counties. Miss Reis will lead a corps of some 12 volunteers in an all-out effort to recruit at least 60 more members for the district.

Initial plans for the campaign were reviewed in Albany earlier this month by representatives from the 18 NYSNA districts. At the meeting, leaders of NYSNA and ANA stressed the theme that nurses have a "professional responsibility to belong to their 3-4-1 associations."

The "3-4-1" theme refers to the district, state and national levels of ANA, and the fact that members are represented on a fourth, international, level through ANA's membership in the International Council of Nurses.

WHEN FRIEND WON'T TAKE PAYMENT

Q—I telephoned a friend who lives in the city and asked her if she would buy a certain brand of cosmetics for me which I cannot get here in the suburbs, and to bring them with her when she came for the weekend. When I offered her the money, she would not accept it and said the cosmetics were a present. I feel terrible about this. Would it be proper to send her a check, or might this hurt her feelings?

A—I can understand how you feel but since she wished you to have the cosmetics as a gift and refused to accept the money from you, it would be very ungracious to send her a check.

Bride Not Wearing Bridal Clothes

Q—I am going to be married in church but will not be wearing bridal clothes. Instead I have chosen a street length dress in a pale blue with hat to match. May I carry a boquet, or would a corsage be better with a street length dress?

A—If your dress is tailored, a corsage would be more suitable but if it is a rather dressy afternoon dress, you may quite properly carry a small bouquet.

Kwandrans was tried for first-degree murder in the Nov. 17 shooting of Kenneth Knight of Buffalo.

Judge Burke I. Burke of Erie County Court, in his charge to the jury, instructed the jurors that they could not return a first-degree murder conviction, on the basis of the evidence presented.

Knight had been scheduled to enter the Army Nov. 18 and he was headed for a friend's home with several companions when he encountered Kwandrans, who was carrying a .12-gauge shotgun, police said. Kwandrans mistook Knight and his group for neighborhood vandals, a fight developed and Knight was shot, police said.

Judge Burke set sentencing for June 11.

Result Could Be Gruesome

No One in Sight at Present Comparable to Gandhi, Nehru

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mohandas Gandhi picked Jawaharlal Nehru as his political heir. But Nehru, who died Wednesday as India's only prime minister in its 17 years of independence, groomed no one to succeed him.

He was an intellectual who never learned to delegate authority. The result could be gruesome. India has 450 million people in one of the poorest and most jammed countries on earth.

Nehru, a democrat who had enough blind worship among the Indian masses to be a dictator, had sought to guide his country along the democratic path.

But not long before his death he was reported saddened by the incessant quarrels between Indians of different languages, religions and races. And there is bickering in his own strong political instrument, the Congress party.

Seventeen years of democracy —in a country where about 340 million people are illiterate — may have been too brief a time to create any real dedication to the democratic principle.

No One in Sight

In India now there is no one in sight with the stature of Gandhi or Nehru.

They not only led the fight for Indian independence before it was achieved in 1947—thus becoming symbols of it — but by the very nature of these two men their leadership was more than just political.

It was also spiritual, which is unique in the 20th century. They were selfless, with their only interests India and its people. Both had gone to school in England. Both were lawyers.

Both abandoned law to work for freedom from Britain. The British jailed them both for years. That much they had in common. There was much they didn't. Gandhi was humble. Nehru was arrogant.

It was ironic that he once described himself in an anonymous article he wrote as intolerant of other people and with contempt for the weak and inefficient.

While his leadership and vision were tremendous, and he was a miracle for India, he himself was inefficient. Example: He concentrated decisions in his own hands, was his own foreign minister. The result was called an "administrative jungle."

Gandhi put together his philosophy of civil disobedience and nonviolent resistance under the influence of many sources, including the Sermon on the Mount, Henry Thoreau, Leo Tolstoy, John Ruskin, Percy Bysshe Shelley, and India's early Jain sect which preached Ahimsa, the principle of noninjury to living things.

Not Complete Pacifist

But he was never the complete pacifist the world imagined. Louis Fischer, a Gandhi biographer, said he had a "violent nature and his subsequent Mahatma-calm was the product of long training. His mind was a battlefield on which caution constantly contended with passion."

He used nonviolence against the British in India when the British had all the power and the Indians had none. Nehru went along with Gandhi on nonviolence as a tactic to be used when useful, to be abandoned when not.

After years of preaching nonviolence among nations and abhorring war, he sent his army into Goa, a Portuguese colony in India, to take it over. He tried to stand aloof, preaching neutralism, only to be invaded by Red China. Then he armed.

Was Socialist

The influences on Nehru were different from those affecting Gandhi — liberalism, socialism, Marxism. But he was not a Communist. He was a Socialist who sought to bring his country abreast of the times through socialism.

Gandhi said of himself "I am a Christian and a Hindi and a Moslem and a Jew." Nehru was an agnostic with all that means in skepticism about religious beliefs.

But one of his greatest services to India was in seeking to make it a secular state in which the various religions, since none could dominate the government, would live together without trying to crush one another.

After Gandhi's assassination Jan. 30, 1948, just a few months after Indian independence, Nehru became the dominant figure and remained so until his death.

Perhaps Nehru's greatest contribution to his country was in being an inspiration to its people, for through that he managed to keep the country and its people glued together as he gave them a sense of direction.

And perhaps the greatest difference between him and Gandhi was in their vision of the Indian future. Gandhi looked back, distrusted mechanization, thought in terms of spinning and cottage-industries. Nehru wanted India industrialized and thought in terms of steel mills and hydroelectric dams.

13 Die in Boating Accidents in 4 Months

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The State Conservation Department reports that 13 persons died in boating accidents in New York State through the first four months of this year, compared with three deaths for the corresponding period of 1963.

Conservation Commissioner Harold G. Wilm Wednesday urged observance of "the time-honored rules of water safety."

A Person Came First

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—The gallantry of Sir Walter Raleigh, who spread his coat for a damsel to walk on, isn't dead. Mrs. Marilyn Hay, employed by a fur company, used a $300 persian lamb coat she was delivering to cover postman Raymond Holmes after he was injured in a traffic accident. "I'm afraid there's blood on this coat but he was more important," Mrs. Hay said after Holmes, a stranger to her was en route to a hospital.

Will Meet Union 29th If Picketing Stops

WEST NYACK, N.Y. (AP)—The State Thruway Authority says it is ready to meet with union representatives Friday if racial picketing ends at a maintenance shop.

Pickets of the AFL-CIO state, county and municipal employes union have demonstrated since Monday to protest what they call discrimination against hiring Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

The authority denied any discrimination. It said Wednesday in Albany it agreed to a meeting Friday, as requested by the union, if pickets were removed.

A scuffle broke out Wednesday when a parcel truck went through the picket line and the driver was pushed and shoved when he alighted. No charges were placed.

Partner's Bid Improves Hand

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A Schenectady, N. Y., reader asks, "How could we get to six clubs with the North-South cards? Should I have rebid two clubs instead of one no-trump? Or should I have jumped to five clubs over my partner's bid of three clubs?"

The answer to his first question is shown by the bidding in the box. The answer to each other question is, "No."

Opening lead—♠ K

The first two rounds or bidding are easy. North's rebid to one no-trump shows both his no trump pattern and the minimum nature of his hand. When South jumps to three clubs as his second bid North's hand suddenll improves.

He still has the 14 high card points he opened with, but he also has a very fine fit for his partner's club suit. This doesn't justify a wild leap into the slam zone, but it does justify a bid that suggests slam possibilities.

North should now bid three spades!

This bid can't be showing a spade suit. Had North held a four card spade suit, he would have bid one spade over his partner's one heart response. Instead, it shows just what he has —hand that has improved. due to the three club bid by South.

South simply goes to four clubs He wants to make sure that North will be able to raise clubs. North does raise to five and now South goes on to six.

The play is not hard. He wins the spade opening, discards his other spade on a high diamond and plays ace an one heart.

Dear Abby . . . You Were Wrong!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday I received a telephone call from a girl asking me to her prom. I had not even seen this girl in FOUR years, and to tell you the truth, it is not long enough. I never liked her because she was loud and forward, and besides, she used to stare at me in eighth grade, which gave my friends plenty to kid me about. I told her I couldn't take her to the prom because I had to work that night, which was true. After I hung up my mother asked me who the girl was. I told her in a nice way that it was none of her business, which it wasn't Do you see anything wrong with that?

GROUNDED

DEAR GROUNDED: Yes. There is no "nice" way to tell one's mother that something is none of her business. Even if it isn't.

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: I myself would not inform a teacher when others are cheating. Any teacher who cares about what goes on in her classroom can catch cheaters with little effort. Cheating in school is dishonest, of course, but it is not to be compared with robbery, assault or murder. When one witnesses harm or violence done to another, he has a moral obligation to report the offender immediately. When one cheats in an examination, he is only cheating himself and damaging his own character and reputation. If he attempts to cash in on his ill-gotten marks, he will only prove to others that his fine record was not earned because he will not know his subject. Don't back down, Abby; I think you were right.

• • • •

DEAR ABBY: I do not believe that very young children should "tattle" on one another for the slightest little thing. But when a student sees another student cheating during an examination, I think it is his duty to inform the teacher. Today the classrooms are so crowded, especially in the colleges and universities, we are told that students may get away with cheating, unnoticed. How would YOU like to lie down on an operating table and entrust your life to a surgeon who had cheated his way through medical school?

State Fish Expert Discusses Policy Formulae in Stocking

Fundamental considerations and many other facets of scientific fish stocking were explained to members of the Catskill Mountain Chapter of Trout Unlimited by Kenneth F. Wich, Regional Fish Manager, Region 8, of the New York State Conservation Department.

In a highly informative slide lecture discussion at Kahil's Rainbow Lodge, Wich told the chapter members that factors involved include: species suitability, stream carrying capacity, fishing pressures, studies of the natural fingerling production, abundance of non-trout present, conditions of the stream's banks, foliage and rocks and its natural facilities to support fish life.

If a stream is found to contain half the number of fish it can support, Wich said, the term half-bucket is used and half again as many trout are added by stocking to bring the amount [illegible] capacity, or the total amount of trout the stream can adequately support.

Rainbow Habits

With respect to the Esopus stream, the conservation department holds to the theory that when rainbows reach the size of 8 or 9 inches they begin to drop back to the reservoir and from then on come up the Esopus predominately during the spring spawning run, Wich said. He added that browns are used for stocking during the summer months in order to provide continuous trout fishing in this stream throughout the fishing season, as they have been found to adapt more readily to the natural conditions of the stream.

Wich emphasized that the legislature and not the conservation department sets the limit and size of fish that may be taken from any stream. He also noted that fishing license fees and funds obtained through fishing violations are used for research and stocking, but any part of this money can be diverted to the use of another department whenever considered feasible. The state will not stock on posted lands unless they are open to public fishing.

In order to have a "fish-for-fun" or a "fly-fishing-only" stretch, the landowners along the streams must be contacted, and if they are agreeable, the suggestion is presented to the conservation department, Wich said. If the department thinks it is a suitable solution for all concerned, permission will be granted and remains in effect only for the period of time they set. When this time period elapses, the same procedure must be repeated if it is wished to continue using these sections of the streams for "fish-for-fun" or "fly-fishing-only."

Queried about stream pollution problems, Wich said that this is a matter for action by the Board of Health and not the conservation department.

Reviews Program

Reviewing the state stocking program, Wich noted that it was instituted in 1926. From 1926 to 1939, a water survey was taken the result of which constituted the so-called Embody Tables, used from 1926 to 1950. In 1940, after the survey was completed and found to be unsatisfactory it was followed closely by fingerling stocking. From 1950 to 1958 new tables were devised known as the Dr. Green Tables, institut[illegible] stocking policy that had to be equitable, impersonal, consis[illegible] and fishing scientist and former assistant executive director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission was also a guest at the meeting. Local visitors included Ray Smith, famed fly-tyer and licensed state hunting and fishing guide, who has spent years fighting to save trout fishing and trout waters and expended untold effort in trying to perpetuate the mortality of the area trout world.

Onteora Postpones Big '50' Regular Card Slated Friday

Onteora Speedway officials announced today that they are postponing the special Spring 50-Lap Championship race until a later date.

This was due in order to allow more time for those owners who are readying new cars this season to qualify. The new date will be announced shortly. Track conditions last week were not satisfactory to director Larry Shurter and the crew is working around the clock to overcome the difficulties.

The usual Friday night card will be run as scheduled tomorrow night. Drivers who register at the Big "O" between now and the date of the 50-lap special will be qualified to compete.

Federation Elects Greer; Opposes Proposed Parkway

Lloyd Greer of Walker Valley was elected president of the Federated Sportsmen's Clubs of Ulster county at the May meeting held in the clubrooms of the Upper Esopus Rod and Gun Club of Shandaken. He will assume office in September.

Other line officers are: first vice president, Frank Krause, Hurley; second vice president, Walter Bartsch, Gardiner; third vice president, Dick Whelan, Kingston; executive secretary, Fritz Crams, High Woods; treasurer, Bill Davis, Kingston; recording secretary, John Scott, Walker Valley.

Carlton King of Mt. Marion was elected delegate to the New York State Conservation Council. Sherrill Keyser and S. James Matthews of Kingston were named alternates.

Oppose Parkway

The federation voted to oppose construction of a parkway by the National Park Services along the top of the Shawangunk and Kittatinny mountains.

A committee was appointed to mobilize active opposition against the proposed parkway. Members of the committee are: Joe Philips, Highland; Walt Bartsch, Gardiner; Robert DuBois, New Paltz; Lloyd Greer, Walker Valley. Art Sperl of Saugerties will serve as the committee chairman.

The federation voted to hold its annual banquet at the Wittenberg Sportsmen Club clubhouse on Saturday, June 13. Frank Kruse, RFD 3, Box 8, Kingston, is chairman of ticket reservations.

Trail Sweepers Honor Juniors

Junior members of the Kingston Trail Sweepers Ski Club were awarded cups in recognition of outstanding progress during the past ski season, at the annual banquet of the club at the Capri Restaurant. Nearly 140 persons attended. Mickey Edwards was toastmaster.

The chairmen of the Junior Program Committee, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Goffredi received a one-year honorary membership to the club in appreciation for their efforts with the club junior members.

"Broken Bone" awards were also given to 12 deserving Trail Sweepers by Ralph Smith, who is a member of the club ski patrol.

Joe Shapiro ,the new club president, delivered his first speech and was presented with a gavel by the outgoing president. The historian's report was given by Walt Gilman, who was awarded a pewter tankard in appreciation of his services to the club, serving as president for the past two years.

Preparations are now being made for the Trail Sweepers Annual Road Rally on June 27.

Heppner Wins With Relief Help From Fisher

Coach Al Gruner rewarded most of the regulars with a well deserved afternoon off but Kingston High's reserves proved too much for the Warriors from Our Lady of Lourdes and the locals won a 6-3 non-league verdict yesterday at Dietz Stadium.

In capturing their 11th decision in 14 outings, the DUSO leaders piled up five runs in the first three innings and then stopped a couple of threats by the visitors.

Ken Heppner chalked up his first varsity triumph but had to have some top notch relieving by Vince Fisher. Heppner left with a 5-3 margin and the bases loaded in the fourth. Fisher got out of the scrape and stopped a Warrior bases loaded situation in the seventh.

Gets Three Hits

Jack Schatzel clouted three of the KHS 10 safeties, getting a double and two singles. Shortstop Bob Chilson had two hits, one a neatly executed suicide squeeze bunt.

The locals will conclude their regular season next Tuesday against Lourdes at the Hudson River State Hospital diamond in Poughkeepsie.

If Port Jervis beats Poughkeepsie today in the DUSO league, then the KHS nine will oppose Port next Thursday at Ellenville in a playoff for the DUSO title.

Lourdes Defeats Saugerties, 9-3

Aided by five errors, Our Lady of Lourdes nine of Poughkeepsie trounced Saugerties High, 9-3, with only five hits Tuesday. Three hits, three errors and a walk accounted for five Lourdes runs in the sixth inning.

Bruce Owens pitched a 5-hitter for the Sawyers. Cutten was the winner on a 5-hitter with six strikeouts.

Lourdes scored three runs in the first inning, one in the fourth before the five-run rally. The fourth inning tally was a solo home run by Cook.

Coach Smythe's Sawyers pulled off a pair of double steals for two runs in the seventh inning. Ron May and Richie Greco were on the scoring end. In the Saugerties fourth, Steve Bonack singled, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on a fielder's choice.

The Sawyer record is now 5 wins and 10 defeats with a 2-7 UCAL mark. They close out the season with a game against Beacon High Friday at 10 a. m. at Saugerties.

Hank Harder Pitches Perfect Game in NLL, Fans 13 Batters

Hank Harder pitched the first known perfect game in the history of the National Little league as the Cubs walloped the Pirates, 13-0.

While the Cubs played errorless ball behind their chucker, he fanned 13 and didn't issue a walk. The other five putouts were made on two popups to the infield, a pair of ground balls to the pitcher and another to the second baseman.

The winners climaxed the evening with nine runs in the fifth inning. Dan Vogt and Wayne Mencil doubled to pace a nine-hit attack.

Gene Hofbauer was the loser but the only chance he had was to be a perfect chucker like his opponent.

Oregon to Stay With Rocky if He Retains Vote

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention in July says Oregon's delegates will stay with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as long as he gets 35 per cent of the votes in early balloting.

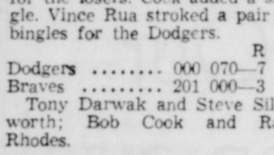

Rockefeller won Oregon's primary election. The state has 18 votes in the convention.

Hatfield told a news conference Wednesday that if Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona wins the California primary next Tuesday, "he will be nominated (for president) on the first ballot."

If Rockefeller wins in California, Hatfield said, "it will set up a wide - open convention" with potential strength for Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

DuBois Is Named To Banking Post

NEW PALTZ—Henry W. DuBois, associated with the Huguenot National Bank of New Paltz for over 35 years, has been named as assistant vice president of the State of New York National Bank, according to an announcement recently by A. Raymond Atkins, president of the bank.

Mr. DuBois is presently serving the most recent of several terms as mayor of the Village of New Paltz. He is also treasurer of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Also named as assistant vice president was Robert B. Murray who until recently had been an assistant cashier of the New Paltz Bank. Mr. Murray is a resident of Kingston, where he serves as director of the Kingston YMCA and the local Red Cross Chapter.

Allen E. Lawton of the bank staff has been made assistant cashier. Mr. Lawton serves the community as a board member of the Central School District No. 1 of New Paltz, as treasurer of the Board of Cooperative Educational Services of Ulster County and is a deacon of the local Dutch Reformed Church.

"The sounnd and rapid growth of the Bank," President Atkins noted, "has made necessary the enlarged scope and expanded duties of these capable men. The bank is proud of the caliber of the men and women associated with this area bank and welcomes the occasion to provide them with the opportunities to grow in stature with the bank and our community. We believe that thus we can be of greater service to our many patrons."

June 20th Is Opening Date For Local Park

The board of trustees of the Mike Moriello Park of New Paltz, have announced the park will open officially Saturday, June 20.

The family fee has been raised this year, but, any family paying dues before June 15 may still have membership for the lower fee.

The weekend of June 6 will be devoted to work at the pool, for such things as repairs, painting, and other items needed doing to get the park in shape for the opening.

As New Paltz has gained population so rapidly in the past few years, the present pool has become inadequate, and the park board is considering going to the public to get their reaction on construction another pool, primarily for diving purposes. The tentative cost for this venture would be approximately $65,000, and to finance such a venture would be quite a problem. Except for a small mortgage and a $11,000 bond issue used recently to pay for a new filter system, this project has been on a pay-as-you-go basis.

The waterfront director this year will be Robert Truitt of Millbrook at a fee of $1,500 for the season.

The board hopes that on the weekend of June 6, as many men and women as possible will turn out to get the park in shape for the opening.

Rocky Is Denied Talk at Loyola, Goes to Monterey

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Rockefeller sought to pick up the tempo of his presidential primary campaign today after losing his second Southern California audience of the week by a last-minute cancellation.

He carried the same message into Northern California that he drummed out in a three-day swing through the state's populous south in his battle against Senator Barry Goldwater in next Tuesday's election.

No Place to Go

The New York governor, in a speech prepared for a Monterey rally, reiterated major issues on which he said Goldwater differed with his and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's concept of "responsible Republicanism."

Rockefeller, who has wasted few hours in his windup of the important California contest for 86 Republican delegates, suddenly found himself with no place to go in Los Angeles Wednesday night.

He refrained from comment, but his aides were "shocked" by the decision of Loyola University overseers to call off his scheduled talk to students of the Jesuit institution.

There were different views of what was behind it.

Blames Barry Backer

A Rockefeller campaign official privately blamed an influential Loyola trustee who is a Goldwater supporter. The Los Angeles Times said the college had received numerous calls protesting Rockefeller's appearance because of his divorce and remarriage.

A Loyola spokesman said the action was taken to avoid any implication that the invitation by Dr. Stanley Chan, head of the political science department, could be interpreted as endorsing Rockefeller's candidacy.

The Rockefeller organization had a little more notice last weekend, when the Long Beach Elks Club got orders from its national leaders to cancel an invitation to Rockefeller there Monday night. No specific reason was announced.

Souvanna Seeks Ammunition for His Russian Arms

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Laotian Premier Souvanna Phouma has asked the Soviet Union to provide his embattled neutralist forces with ammunition for their Russian arms.

Souvanna made the request in a letter to Soviet Ambassador Sergei Affanassiev.

"Ammunition for arms supplied by the Soviet government, notably for 85mm guns, is becoming very short because of several encounters which have taken place recently between neutralist forces and (Communist) Pathet Lao forces," Souvanna said.

Souvanna added his government "would like very much to receive sufficient quantities of ammunition to be able to face situation."

Souvanna also asked the Soviet government to repair Russian gift transport planes which are now inoperative. The premier asked the Russians to repair the planes about a year ago but got no answer.

Russian arms and ammunition were provided to the neutralists in 1961 when they were allies of the Pathet Lao and were fighting together against the right-wing Laotian army.

The Soviet Union is currently withholding aid from all Laotian factions including the Pathet Lao who are under the influence of the Communist North Vietnamese and Chinese.

However, Moscow has supported the Pathet Lao viewpoint in the propaganda side of the Laotian crisis. Diplomatic sources say the Soviets don't want to give the Communist Chinese the opportunity to accuse Moscow of abandoning a "revolutionary movement."

Souvanna said previously he would ask military and economic aid from all countries to defend his country from Pathet Lao and North Vietnamese aggression.

So far, it seems only the United States has responded favorably to his request.

Within a one-day drive for 70 million Americans, a great new tract for enthusiasts of the outdoors life is taking shape in the southwestern corner of Kentucky and northern Tennessee. It is known as the Land Between the Lakes National Recreation Area. ● A five-year development program already has been started by the Tennessee Valley Authority. Limited accommodations are available this year. ● The area embraces 170,000 acres of virtually virgin territory—a peninsula 38 miles long and eight miles wide. It lies between 185-mile-long Kentucky Lake and the now-almost-completed 118-mile-long Barkley Lake (see Newsmap, left). At the northern end of the tract a canal will connect both lakes for the benefit of far-ranging boatmen and fishermen. ● Scattered along the more than 300 miles of shoreline of both lakes will be areas for water sports, fishing, hunting; family, group and primitive camping sites; tent and trailer parks and picnic groves. Hotels and restaurants are barred from the tract but will fringe the area. ● For nature lovers the strip abounds in all forms of wildlife and migratory waterfowl in a large acreage game refuge. ● Land Between the Lakes is just an easy day's drive (500 miles) for 70 million people and a half-day's motor trip (200 miles) for 10 million. (Outer circle on Newsmap, right, shows 500-mile radius; inner circle is 200-mile radius from the new outdoors park.)

Two Big Firsts For Daniel Klein

DANIEL KLEIN

When Performing Arts of Woodstock presents its initial production this weekend, local playright Daniel Klein will enjoy two firsts: the premiere of his one-act play, "The Audience" and his first local appearance as an actor.

Klein will have one of the leading roles in his own play, along with John LeFever, former Kingston resident; Robert Denning and Diana Munch. LeFever is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd LeFever of Kingston.

A Harvard graduate in philosophy, Klein now teaches at the Onteora High school and is continuing work toward an MA in philosophy from the New School Graduate Faculty. Though comparatively youthful, Klein has spent time traveling in Europe and did social work in Harlem prior to moving to Woodstock. He is anxious to go into filmmaking in the near future.

The Author's Philosophy

About "The Audience" which will be given two performances (May 29-30) in Woodstock, Klein had this to say:" I keep wondering how seriously I should take 'The Audience.' Hopefully, the audience shall wonder, too; they might even wonder how seriously to take themselves. I hope every one who comes has a good time."

"The Audience" will be given as the second half of a double bill of one-act dramas at the Guild Gallery, Tinker Street, Woodstock, Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p. m. Also on the program will be Edna St. Vincent Millay's verse play, "Aria da Capo," with a cast that includes Gloria Criscimagna, Jim Williams, John Le Fever, Lloyd Gibson and George Armstrong. All are Woodstock residents with the exception of Armstrong, a Kingston bartender, in his first dramatic role.

Tickets will be available at the door of the Guild Gallery up to curtain time each night.

Board Planning Further Study on New Ordinance

Further study is needed on the proposed peddler's ordinance and another public hearing will probably be held, Supervisor Abram F. Molyneaux announced at this week's Woodstock town board meeting.

A public hearing was held on the ordinance several days ago but the supervisor said that no action was planned at last night's meeting. He acknowledged the existence of an omnibus ordinance covering peddling and soliciting, dated 1934, but said the board had serious doubts about the constitutionality of the present ordinance.

The supervisor said the board had some reservations about several parts of the proposed new ordinance. One major proposed change from the 1934 ordinance is the lowering of the peddler's license fee from $25.00 to $2.00. This proposal is opposed by the Woodstock Township Chamber of Commerce and the Woodstock Democratic Club.

In answer to questions by Peter W. Rakov, president of the Democratic Club the supervisor stated that several legal opinions supported the board's doubts about the constitutionality of the present document. He said changes in interpretations through the years by the courts has cast large doubts on its constitutionality.

Locals Not Exempt

In replying to other recommendations made in a letter by the Democratic Club, the supervisor said local solicitors and peddlers, if any, could not be exempted from provisions of the ordinance. He said the ordinance would have the same force and effect as any other law and would apply to all persons.

The Democratic Club letter also proposed that the $25.00 license fee now in effect be strictly enforced. It also suggested that all town ordinances now in effect be published in booklet form and updated every two years and be made available to the public. Supervisor Molyneaux said copies of all ordinances now in effect in the town are available on request at town hall and may be inspected at any time.

The supervisor did not indicate when the next hearing on the peddler's ordinance would be held.

'Last Full Measure' Topic for Methodists

The sermon topic for the 11 a. m. worship service on Sunday at the Overlook Methodist Church, the Rev. James W. Cook, minister, will be "The Last Full Measure." A nursery will be provided. Sunday school for the primary and adults is held at 9:45 a. m., while the classes for beginners and kindergarten is at 10:45 a. m.

Rehearsal for the Senior choir will be held on Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. Mr. Cook will assist in the Memorial Day service on Saturday at the Woodstock cemetery and at the dedication of the John F. Kennedy Memorial on the American Legion grounds.

Major Campaign Is Planned by Local Democrats

The Woodstock Democratic Club has authorized its president, Peter W. Rakov, to negotiate a five-months lease for a building to be used for general meeting purposes and the 1964 county, state and national election campaign headquarters.

The Democrats plan the most intensive local campaign for the three tickets in the history of the club. Peter W. Grad has been named campaign chairman. A district-by-district organization is now being set up.

Annual rummage sale of the club has been postponed to a date to be announced later.

The club adopted a resolution in favor of retaining the $25.00 fee in the proposed peddler's ordinance. It also instructed the president to contact the Woodstock town board and recommend that it publish in concise form all the public ordinances now on the town books. The printed booklet would be made available to the public for ready checking and information.

The club voted a cash donation to the Woodstock Youth Center teenagers committee which is conducting an art drawing this weekend at the Kleinert Gallery.

Alerted to Primary

Club members were alerted to the June 2 primary contest for Ulster County Democratic state committee woman. All enrolled Democrats in the township will be reminded of the date by a mailing planned for the club. Voting will be from 1 noon to 9 p. m. at the regular polling centers: District 1, town hall; District 2, Bearsville lodge hall; District 3, Zena firehouse.

The Woodstock Democratic Town Committee has endorsed Mrs. Dorothy Narel as its choice for state committee woman in the June 2 primary. Mrs. Narel, society editor of The Daily Freeman, was the choice of the Democratic county convention.

A report on the national convention will be presented at the general membership meeting at Deanie's on Wednesday, June 3, at 8 p. m. Members and interested guests are invited to attend.

Scout Troop 62 Explores Island

Exploring an island which was reached by an Indian war canoe was the experience enjoyed by Boy Scout Troop 62 of Lake Hill Tuesday evening.

The troop, sponsored by Woodstock Fire Company No. 3, left Catskill Tuesday evening with Scoutmaster Arthur Smith and Asistant Scoutmaster Douglas Eighmey in charge. Members of the troop committee were also in attendance.

The Indian war canoe was 34 feet long and five feet wide, and there were 21 persons aboard when the prow of the canoe headed out the Catskill creek toward the Hudson river.

The destination was the island in the river located at the Rip Van Winkle Bridge. Some "exploring" of this island was accomplished in the tradition of the "days of yore."

Scoutmaster Smith reports that the scouts and adults "really enjoyed themselves on this trip, and they learned something too."

The trip was planned by the scoutmaster and the troop committee as part of the activities of the Boy Scout troop serving the Willow-Lake Hill-Shady areas.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The outdoor eating season gets under way this Memorial Day weekend with an abundance of cook-out meats being featured in supermarkets and neighborhood stores.

The traditional barbecue choices—steaks and broilers — are in the spotlight on meat market counters.

Due to the large number of cattle on farms being fattened for market, retailers have heavy supplies of beef to sell and prices have been reduced.

Broilers will be in good supply and lower in price this summer.

Turkeys and hams are popular with the outdoor cook. Also available will be chopped meat patties — hamburgers, lamburgers, Porkburgers and vealburgers—and frankfurters.

There's lots of variety at produce counters and the supplies of fruits are increasing.

Best buys include asparagus, broccoli, celery, sweet corn, green onions, lettuce, potatoes, spinach, squash and tomatoes.

A sure sign of spring is the abundance of watermelons. Shoppers will also find bananas, lemons, oranges, rhubarb and strawberries.

For Newcombe Candidacy

Kingston, New York
May 25, 1964

Editor, The Freeman:

The prudent use of our ballot is almost as important as the right to vote. This year, for the first time in several decades, Republicans in our Senatorial District are permitted a choice of candidate for State Senator.

What differentiates these two men. The incumbent, we are told gives our district a man who has seniority and experience. His opponent while a newcomer to party politics has a splendid record of active involvement in bettering his community.

Let's look further. Of 33 Republican State Senators, 75% have seniority greater than or equal to that of Senator Bush. Of his experience one has to wonder. Supposedly the Senator introduced 85 pieces of legislation at the past session of the legislature. This causes me to ask, how could an experienced legislator fail to get positive action on some part of his legislation, or conversely were these proposals so bad that they met with total rejection by the Senate?

Lloyd Newcombe has served three terms on the Catskill Board of Education, was twice president of the Catskill Chamber of Commerce, served on the Greene County Hospital board and was founder, first president and a moving force in the Greene County Development Corporation. All community activities to be sure, but what is a Senatorial district but a group of communities

Lloyd Newcombe is one of those rare people who has actively involved himself in the seeking of solutions to the problems of his community. He should be given a chance to do likewise for the 34th State Senatorial District.

The Republican party in Ulster, Delaware, Sullivan and Greene County need look no further than Dutchess County to observe the consequences of constantly offering the voters the same old diet candidates who go to Albany for a few weeks each year and come home with a well-rested, well-fed look. (In 1963, for the first time in 50 years the Republicans lost their majority on the Dutchess County Board of Supervisors.)

The 34th District needs a representative in the State Senate who knows of the problems of its citizenry, has the energy to advance its cause, and the gumption to fight for attention to the needs of this area. An area which has constantly contributed to the strength of New York's Republican party, and can again, with the nomination of Lloyd Newcombe.

Editor, The Freeman:

Now as we ride joyful through the beautiful country roads and enjoy God's wonderful nature, and the green colors are very restful to your eyes, we will notice with disgust as we ride the cans, containers, bottles and refuse spilled along the roads. This is a despicable sight. If you must ride through the country, take along a trash bag in your car and bring it home to dispose of it in the proper way. If you have accumulated refuse at home, don't dump it over the road ledges, which only spreads disease and brings rodents. Take the time to bring it to the designated dump of your town.

Our club wishes to remind all auto travelers to please follow the above good instructions and let us all cooperate with a good spirit. It is up to you, the public, to keep our country roads clean.

Thank you,

YMCA Day Camp Is Open to All On Memorial Day

YMCA Day Camp at Shokan will be open to all families in the Ulster County area with full facilities including swimming and picnicking on Saturday, Memorial Day, Y secretary Louis H. Schafer said today.

The camp director and a supervising life guard will be at camp to receive the people from 12 noon until 8 p. m. A new women's and girl's dressing pavilion has been constructed this year, similar to the one built last season for men and boys. Both pavilions are conveniently located near the beach.

The boat piers are in place and the life lines in the shallow area are in place for the kiddies protection. The sand beach will be most tempting for the sun bathers.

The YMCA Camp site is most ideally and beautifully located at the foot of Ticetonyk Mountain on Bostock Mountain Road in Shokan. It consists of 35 acres including two bodies of water, the larger one is especially maintained for swimming. The shallow area for non-swimmers is well supplied with sand and there are no drop off spots in the entire shallow area. The flooring or bottom of the lake is very smooth making swimming less hazardous. There are mountain trails for people that desire hiking and the view from Ticetonyk Mountain across five miles of woodland to the New York City Reservoir is most beautiful, Schafer said.

There are ample fireplaces as well as picnic tables in shaded areas in the woods or along the lake front. The large pavilion, known as the "Lou, Schafer Lodge", has many games including shuffle board, ping pong and other table games and picnic tables.

Schafer and Leon Van Heusen, camp director, as well as the YMCA Board of Directors invite parents and their families to take advantage of this one day opportunity to use camp for their days picnic and swimming and see for themselves just what the YMCA has to offer for the boys and girls during the hot summer months. In the event of inclement weather, the free swimming and picnic day will be held on Sunday.

Those interested may phone the YMCA for information concerning the weekend, and ask about the Day Camp program for boys and girls between the ages of 5½ to 14 years of age. Day Camp opens Monday, June 29 and operates five days a week for eight weeks. Families can use camp every evening and Saturday and Sunday until Labor Day by making application at the YMCA, 507 Broadway.

To get to the Y camp. Take Route 28 at the Albany Avenue circle and drive 15 miles to Bostock Mountain Road in Shokan. Turn right and follow the camp signs.

Advice for Safe Swimming Given By Red Cross Unit

With Memorial Day fast approaching, followed by little boys in bathing trunks, here's good advice from some people with 50 years' experience in the water safety field:

Learn to swim. If you can swim, learn to swim better.

The advice comes from the American Red Cross, which this year celebrates a half-century of teaching and preaching safety in, on, and around the water.

"Despite 50 years of progress in the field and an intensive education program, the best defense against becoming a drowning statistic still is knowing how to swim," says Gerhard Klemm, local Red Cross Safety Services chairman.

Thanks to the work of the Red Cross and other safety-conscious organizations, millions of Americans have learned to swim since Commodore Wilbert E. Longfellow launched his "Waterproof America" crusade in 1914. The founder of the Red Cross water safety program, who died in 1947, built his campaign on the slogan, "Every American a swimmer — every swimmer a lifesaver."

Statistics prove the worth of the Commodore's words. In the past 50 years the drowning rate has been cut virtually in half — from 7.7 to 3.4 per hundred thousand population — despite the fact that as many people use the water today as were represented by the total population of the nation in 1914.

Klemm recognizes the record is a good one, "but it is not good enough." He is deeply concerned over predictions that out of the 100 million Americans who will take to the water this year 6,400 will drown.

"Virtually all these drowning accidents can be avoided," he points out. One good way to avoid becoming a 1964 drowning victim is to follow the "10 Red Cross rules to water safety."

Learn to swim. If you can swim, learn to swim better.

Always swim with a buddy, never alone.

Swim where there are lifeguards on duty.

Recognize your limitations. Your endurance is not as great now as it will be at the end of the summer in the water.

Don't depend on inflated tires, tubes, and other flotation devices to keep you safe if you can't swim.

For distance swimming in open water, take along a companion in a boat.

Don't swim immediately after eating, when overtired, or when over-heated.

Stay away from under diving boards when you are in the water.

Stay out of water during electrical storms.

Before diving, check to see if water is deep enough and make sure it contains no hidden objects.

Through its network of chapters reaching across the United States, the Red Cross this summer will again conduct literally thousands of swimming classes to add to the already impressive roster of more than 25 million persons who have obtained free Red Cross certified training in swimming, lifesaving, and boating safety. For further information, contact your Ulster County Red Cross Chapter at 308 Clinton Avenue, Kingston.

Primary Day Vital

Party Enrollment Helps Choice of Good Candidates

City chairmen of the two major political parties stresses this week the importance of voters affiliating themselves with a particular party and criticized the "independent" voters who in turn critize the parties' choice of candidates .

Howard C. St. John and James T. McCardle, city chairmen of the Republican and Democratic parties, respectively, were participants in a Practical Politics Panel discussion sponsored Monday night by the League of Women Voters of Kingston. Dr. Dale B. Lake, president of the Ulster County Community College, was moderator.

Means of Survival

St. John emphasized that primary day "more than anything else," points out the importance of political parties in allowing people to select candidates. He stressed the fact that the only people who can vote in a primary are those who have "the integrity" to enroll in a party. At one time it was considered degrading to belong to a party, St. John said, but now it is realized as the "right, moral, social and ethical" thing to do.

McCardle expressed his annoyance with those persons who constantly ask, "Why can't you get stronger candidates?" He said these questioners were invariably from independent voters who do not participate in primaries. Dictatorships that have lasted, he said, were in those countries where political parties did not get the active support of the people. Democracy can only survive, he said, if people at the grass roots level help by aligning themselves with a party and work for its survival.

Must Desire to Run

The panelists agreed in a question-and-answer session following their discussion, that a candidate's sincere desire to run for political office was of major importance, and cited the difficulty they faced in finding people willing to run for office. They also agreed that the goals of the respective parties were the same but that the differences between them were in the methods of achieving the goals.

St. John said that primaries should be "used as a tool of reform," but that primaries for "everything" would weaken the party and create "schisms" at election time. McCardle disagreed. He said he felt that primaries give the individual a choice of slate and protect enrolled party members from the creation of a party machine.

Mrs. Renee Sachs introduced the moderator and panelists.

Report Teeners Missing Today

State Police teletype alarms were sent out today reporting two teenagers missing from their homes in this area.

Sergeant Henry S. Rhodes said Michael John Coats, 15, was reported missed from his New Paltz home since about 10 a. m. Wednesday. The teletype alarm describes the boy as five feet, seven inches tall, weighing about 150 pounds. He has blue eyes and brown hair.

Troopers said the boy may be driving a 1961 blue convertible owned by his mother. They said the boy reportedly took clothing and bedding when he left. Troopers reported the boy was seen in the Rifton area late last night.

Sergeant Rhodes also said 15-year-old Ann Jacobson was reported missing from her home in Rifton since late Wednesday night. She is described as five feet tall, weighing about 120 pounds. She has brown hair and eyes, and when last seen was wearing a white skirt and white sweater.

Troopers asked area residents to notify Kingston State Police, if they should see, or know the whereabouts of either of the missing teenagers.

Man Flees Restaurant

Kingston State Police today searched the Woodstock area for a man, who reportedly was surprised in the act of rifling an employe's pocketbook in the kitchen of Bill's Restaurant, according to Sergeant Henry S. Rhodes. Senior BCI Investigator Edward Shannon and Trooper John Kohland investigated, after a woman employe reported the incident. Troopers said the man fled from the restaurant, and only a vague description was available. The complaint was received after 9:30 a. m.

Charges Made

gates petition are the same as those that were on a petition filed two years ago on behalf of Assemblyman Wilson, and the town chairman said it appears that those names were used on the petition for the Goldwater delegates and alternates.

A graduate of Rondout Valley Central School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Misner of Kerhonkson.

Misner joined IBM in June, 1962, as a junior engineer in ground support equipment at Kingston. One year later, he transferred to data acquisition systems in a similar position, one he has held until his present promotion.

He received a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Union College.

Misner and his wife Lucille reside on DeWitt Mills Road, Kingston.

Training Program

American Legion Boys' State is a citizenship training program designed to meet the needs of the American youth. Boys' State training inculcates individual responsibility to the community, state and nation. The "Learn by Doing" concept is employed on the theory that good citizenship is only in part a matter of knowledge, intellect and understanding. Boys' State has been aptly described as a laboratory of practical political science.

The training program inspires and instills a deep sense of responsibility and obligation in the youth by educating them in the principles of Democracy and by teaching them the duties, privileges and rights of American citizenship.

There will be about 1000 boys in attendance at this year's Boys' State, from all parts of the Empire State. The program provides the boys in attendance with a taste of collegiate life.

Only One Here Now

The state operates only one other recreation park area in the county, at Woodland Valley, a rather limited facility.

Supervisor Peter M. Williams, who is also chairman of Ulster County Board of Supervisors, has for several years been advocating establishment of a state-operated recreation area for Ulster County and particularly Saugerties. Supervisor Williams was principally involved in early negotiations in securing the properties at the Malden site.

The site has been under study for the past two years and presents opportunities for development of facilities for swimming, boating, campsites, picnic and possibly a marina in a natural cove adjacent to the site.

On April 5, Sen. Bush, Assemblyman Wilson and Supervisor Williams inspected the beach and at that time both legislators said they were impressed by the natural beach and potential of the site.

"Had I been the commanding officer of the base, I probably would have taken that action. I believe in protecting the American people first, and then worry about what happens afterward," he said.

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved irregularly higher early this afternoon despite sharp profit taking in some drugs. Trading was moderate.

Steels pursued their own rally for the third straight session as they were fueled by glowing predictions for output and profits this year.

Throughout the list as a whole, most gains and losses of key stocks were kept within range of about a point.

Drugs and some of the higher-priced, more volatile issues moved more widely.

Selective gains among motors, chemicals and rails helped the averages.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 at 305.7 with industrials up .2, rails up .4 and utilities off .1.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 2.17 at 820.11.

Parke, Davis, which rose 2⅝ Wednesday as the most active drug, was delayed in opening due to selling pressure. Its first trade was on 15,000 shares, down 1½ at 29½, then it pared the loss a bit.

Texas Gulf Sulphur was in steady demand and added a fraction.

IBM rose more than 2 and U.S. Smelting over 3.

Fractional gains predominated among rails.

NEW FLAG RAISED AT VFW—Joyce-Schirick Post 1386, VFW, receives a new 50-star flag which was flown over the U. S. Capitol at Washington, D. C. from the Ladies Auxiliary of the Post at a formal presentation recently. Mrs. Thomas Hughes, President of the Auxiliary, looks on as Mrs. Robert I. Davis, Patriotic Instructor, makes the presentation to Gilbert C. Williams, Commander of Post 1386 and Vice Commander Garold R. Rowe. Both the Post Color Guard and the Auxiliary Color Guard took part in the event held at the Post Home, Delaware Avenue.

St. John Urges Primary Voting, Supports Bush

Republican City Chairman Howard C. St. John today urged all enrolled Republicans in the City of Kingston to exercise their privilege of voting in next Tuesday's primary contest, and asked for their support of Dr. E. Ogden Bush, the regular Republican candidate for the nomination as State Senator.

"During the eight years Senator Bush has served in the upper house of the State Legislature," St. John said, "he has compiled a record which speaks for itself in dedication to the interests of his constituents, and in his ability to produce valuable and needed legislation for our Senatorial District.

"He is known in Albany as a legislator's legislator," St. John noted, "which accounts for his rapid rise to a position of leadership on many important committees based on the affection and respect of his fellow Senators.

"And, in his relationship with the people of his district," St. John continued, "he is known to be a warm, understanding man, who speaks in the language of plain talk. Anyone who has ever sought his assistance in Albany will tell you that Senator Bush is both interested in the needs of his people, and effective in helping to solve their problems," he added.

"It seems to me," St. John concluded, "that we Republicans are fortunate to have a man such as him willing to serve us another two years, and I personally hope my fellow Republicans will express their appreciation by overwhelmingly supporting his bid for renomination as the Republican candidate for the State Senate next Tuesday."

Assault Case Is Sent to Family Court by Judge

A third-degree assault charge case involving a Chambers Street man was ordered transferred today in City Court to Family Court.

Raymond Girard Jr., 21, of 24 Chambers Street was charged by his sister, Roberta Ann Girard, 17, of 56 Van Buren Street, with the assult. Judge Joseph D. Saccoman on Monday ordered a three-day adjournment to determine whether the matter should be referred to Family Court.

Meanwhile, police picked up Miss Girard Wednesday night on a warrant charging her with being a wayward minor. She was turned over to the Sheriff's Department for her appearance later today before County Judge Raymond J. Mino.

Slate-Voting Is

Levy's attorney, Seymour B. Walzer, said slate-voting was "designed to prejudice an individual candidate and it's accomplishing that very effectively."

The slate-voting measure was in the spotlight in the 1964 legislative session during controversy over revision of the state's liquor laws.

Reports circulated that Gov. Rockefeller's office had made a deal with Rep. Charles A. Buckley, veteran Democratic leader of the Bronx, Buckley was said to want the slate-voting bill to bolster his chances in a primary fight. Buckley reportedly instructed Bronx legislators to vote for the liquor bills in return for Rockefeller approval of slate-voting.

Two Killed

long line of shiny automobiles carried government chiefs, diplomats and soldiers from around the world in the procession.

The huge crowds broke through the police lines many times, halting the vehicles behind the gun carriage.

Spectators Take to Trees

Trees along the route were filled with spectators. Many tumbled to the ground when overloaded branches gave way.

Scores of women and children fainted under the scorching sun. Some were trampled.

"Nehru! Nehru!" thousands screamed, drowning out the funeral drums.

Although Nehru was an agnostic, the ritual of Hinduism—the majority religion of India—was to be followed strictly.

Nehru's grandson, Sanjaya Gandhi, 17, was to light the pyre near the spot where Mohandas K. Gandhi, Nehru's leader in years of campaigning for independence from Britain, was cremated after a Hindu fanatic assassinated him in January 1948.

Dignitaries Arrive

Premiers and foreign ministers, diplomats and military chiefs headed for New Delhi within hours after they received the word that Nehru had died Wednesday of a heart attack.

British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and Admiral of the Fleet Earl Mountbatten, representing Queen Elizabeth II, were among the first to arrive at New Delhi.

Other early arrivals were Soviet First Deputy Premier Alexei Kosygin and Mrs. Sirimavo Bandaranaike, prime minister of Ceylon.

As expressions of regret poured in from around the world Nehru's body lay in state on the front porch of the prime minister's residence.

Weeping mourners flocked to the residence, and by dawn police estimated that 400,000 had passed the bier.

As they passed the body, most mourners folded their hands at the chest in prayerful gesture. The wealthy threw elaborate floral wreaths at Nehru's feet, the poor tossed petals.

The body lay on a polished teakwood table guarded by tall, bearded Sikh soldiers and sailors.

Chou Sends Condolences

Amid the messages of condolence came one from Communist China, which defeated India in a brief, undeclared border war in 1962. Premier Chou En-lai's message cited the bonds of friendship between the people of India and China, despite differences between the nations.

Amid the speculation about Nehru's ultimate successor, most observers believed acting Prime Minister Nanda would be replaced soon after official mourning for Nehru ends on June 8.

Nanda, 63, the Home Minister, was sworn in as Nehru's interim successor Wednesday because he was the senior member of the Cabinet. The rest of the Cabinet agreed to stay in office as a caretaker government.

Nehru, who had served as one of India's leaders for four decades and its only prime minister since independence in 1947, made no provision for a successor to govern India's 470 million people.

Shastri Favorite

The matter will be settled only when the ruling Congress party picks a man to succeed Nehru. The man it chooses will be asked by President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan to form a government.

The favorite in most political speculation is the minister without portfolio, Lal Bahadur Shastri, Nehru's closest political confidant who had served as deputy prime minister in effect since Nehru suffered a stroke last January.

Judy Garland Out Of Danger, Still On Critical List

NEW YORK (AP) — American Broadcasting Co. correspondent Stanley Rich reported in a broadcast from Hong Kong today that singer Judy Garland had been rushed to a Hong Kong hospital unconscious and in a critical condition.

Rich said oxygen was administered to Miss Garland and that doctors worked over her for two hours after her arrival at the hospital.

She was reported out of danger afterward but still on the critical list, Rich said.

The nature of Miss Garland's trouble was not given.

Rich reported, however, that Miss Garland is said to be terrified of storms and that she was stricken in her hotel room as a typhoon raged outside with 90 m.p.h. winds.

Miss Garland was winding up a singing tour. She had told Rich the day before that it had been "miserable."

Rich said the singer had been taken to Canossa Hospital by Mark Herron, an actor. Rich quoted Herron as saying that Miss Garland went to the hospital "for a rest." However, Rich said, she was clearly unconscious when she was taken there.

Living Costs Inch Up Again

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs inched up one-tenth of one per cent in April, the Labor Department reported today.

But the Bureau of Labor Statistics said price increases so far this year were lower than in the previous two years and indicated "a very stable price situation."

The April rise took the consumer price index to 107.8 meaning it took $10.78 to purchase items that cost $10 in the 1957-59 period, base years for the index.

Recreation, rent, and medical costs were largely responsible for the April increase. Food prices remained steady on the average.

Medical costs were up three-tenths of one per cent from March.

After Husband Retires, Should Wife Work?

Q) "My husband must retire next spring. He will get $500 a month pension on his present income of over $10,000. I earn almost $6,000 and would get only $150 a month if I retired. Since we are used to such a large income, do you advise me to retire or keep working?" — J. C.

A) I feel deeply honored that you would approach me on a very personal matter.

I am occasionally asked this sort of question by my clients and my answer is this. If your husband will not be lonely in retirement and will not feel relegated to a second-class position as part housekeeper, I would go on working while you feel able to do so.

A drop in current income from $16,000 to $7,800 is hard to adjust to, but you will ultimately have to accept this. Try gradually to alter your standard of living so that the transition will not be so difficult when it must be made.

Q) "I am one of the unfortunate stockholders of Penick & Ford and at present have more than a 7-point loss. I am most interested in hearing from you as to the possible prospects for the company in the years ahead." — W. D.

A) I wish that I could give you some encouragement, but I'm afraid that I cannot.

Pennick & Ford is a high-grade company and one of the biggest corn processors, but its earnings vary on the cost of its raw material. After resting on a plateau for several years, net per share. The stock sells to yield 4.6 per cent. Since corn prices remain high, I see little prospect of a turnaround in Penick.

In the corn group I like only Corn Products, which does half its business in consumer goods.

If capital enhancement is your objective, I believe you should switch to General Telephone.

Messinger Speaks At ARC National Convention in N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard K. Walker of Glenford have returned from New York City where they represented the Ulster County Chapter of the American Red Cross at the national convention which was held from May 17 through May 20.

A native Kingstonian, Lt. General Edwin J. Messinger, addressed the delegates attending the services to the armed forces luncheon at the New York Hilton Hotel May 19. Lt. Gen. Messinger, deputy commanding general, U. S. Continental Army Command, is a West Point graduate and was star end on the Army football teams in the late 1920's. He has held many important military posts, was highly decorated for his combat service in World War 2 and in the Korean Conflict. Prior to his present post, Gen. Messinger was Director of Military Assistance Affairs for the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and later Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, Washington, D. C.

Gen. Messinger told the convention delegates that the armed might and industrial potential of the United States rests on a broad base of individual and collective dedication such as reflected by Red Cross volunteers.

"Our ability to convince the Communists of our sincerity of purpose will continue, Gen. Messinger said, "only as long as our unity as a people is based upon public service in building the strongest possible society." Red Cross delegates were told that they "can do the biggest job in convincing others to devote something of their lives to the lives of others, and to the life of the nation."

Views on Wool Incentive Price Asked by June 8

Wool producers are being asked to make recommendations on the incentive price level for shorn wool for the 1965 marketing year, Joseph Sauer, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today. The recommendations are requested by Monday, June 8.

The chairman explained that the incentive level for shorn wool for the 1965 marketing year will be announced this summer so that growers may know the level when they are shaping up their herds for next year's production. The marketing year for wool now runs on a calendar-year basis.

The incentive price level has been 62 cents per pound since the beginning of the wool payment program, and the Department of Agricultural is considering the continuance of the present incentive price level for shorn wool again next year.

Mr. Sauer pointed out that the 1965 marketing year will be the last year covered by the National Wool Act of 1954, as amended. The original 4-year act has been extended twice. The National Wool Act provides that the support price shall be at a level necessary to encourage an annual production of about 300 million pounds of shorn wool. Appropriations to operate the program and the total amount of payments are limited to a portion of the duties collected on imports of wool and wool manufactures.

U. S. production of shorn wool declined from the peak in recent years of 265 million pounds in 1960 to 238 million pounds in 1963. Factors contributing to the decline included the discouragingly low prices for lambs in 1960 and 1961, competition for range, and production problems such as rising costs.

Views on the shorn wool incentive price level should be submitted by June 8 to the Director, Policy and Program Appraisal Division, ASCS, USDA, Washington, D. C. 20250.

Contain Jersey Waterfront Fire

Much debris was still aflame, but the fire was "pretty well knocked down," police Lt. Edward Carroll said.

"So much debris is burning that they'll be picking it apart for a good 24 hours," Carroll said.

While the fire roared out of control it destroyed five 500-foot piers, a huge unused coal trestle and five floating bridges.

Fire broke out today on the waterfront at Portsmouth, Va., and heavily damaged three old piers, and two vessels before it was brought under control.

Doctors Restore Woman's Hand in 5-Hour Operation

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—By medical definition Jessie S. Bray's right hand was detached from her arm in a milling machine accident, but she is on her way to regaining almost complete use of it.

The hand was sewed back in an operation which her surgeon, Dr. Hugh Williams, called "almost an unbelievable success."

Dr. Williams headed a three-man surgical team which restored the hand May 16 in an operation at Community Hospital which took almost five hours. Hospital officials said Wednesday that Mrs. Bray, 39, is almost ready for intensive therapy to regain use of the hand.

The lock company employe's hand hung by an inch of skin and two tendons after the accident. The surgeons stitched together eight tendons, three major nerves and two major blood vessels.

"I woke up afterwards and thought they hadn't done a thing," Mrs. Bray, said. "Then I saw I could move my fingers —nobody in the hospital would believe that until they had all seen it for themselves."

Denies Exile Plane Took Off From Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (ap)—The 30th of November Movement, an anti - Castro organization, took issue with Rep. Paul G. Rogers, D-Fla., who told the House on Wednesday he understood one of its planes flew from south Florida to Cuba early this week.

"The plane did not take off from the United States, but from a secret place in the Caribbean," said Jose Feijoo, 30th of November chief information officer.

Rogers called for a congressional investigation of what he said appeared to be "an inexcusable gap in the U.S. air defense system." He told the House he was informed the plane escaped radar detection by flying at 100 feet.

A Cuban refugee, who said he took part in the mission, has offered to testify at a congressional hearing that the plane took off from Florida providing he is given immunity and the hearing is private.

Rogers said he would try to arrange a hearing.

The exile identified himself by his war name, Manuel Fernandez, and would not give his real name. The 30th of November group said they have a commando named Manuel Fernandez.

In Washington, a Defense Department spokesman said: "We have no information on such a flight. There is no information to verify an allegation that an aircraft flew as alleged." He said the department will investigate.

A 30th of November communique said a plane dropped supplies to guerrillas and propaganda leaflets in eastern Cuba Monday.
